THE WORLD TOOK HIS NAME AND MADE IT A WAR-CRY!

GERONIMO!

CHUCK CONNORS and introducing KAMALA DEVI

TV's famed "Rifleman" burns his brand on the screen as Geronimo

JUANITA MOORE comforts Lana Turner when the latter loses her first chance at a stage role in "Imitation of Life," now playing at the Harlem.

GLYNIS JOHNS, a frightened guest in an eerie mansion, finds herself unable to resist the mysterious and menacing demands of the "keeper" of the house, "Caligari," in 20th Century-Fox's "The Cabinet of Caligari." The nerve-shattering shocker was filmed as a tribute to the classic silent screen horror production of the same name and is now at the Regent Theater.

CHUCK CONNORS, stars in the title role of "Geronimo," the powerful action drama of the Apache leader's war against U. S. and Mexican troops. The United Artists release, a Laven-Gardner-Levy presentation in Panavision and Technicolor, now playing at the Met Theatre.

FIRST RUN FILMS

Mahalia, Earl Grant in film at Harlem

Two reigning song stars are heard — and one of them seen as well — in "Imitation of Life," Universal's new version of the famous Fannie Hurst novel now playing at the Harlem theatre.

Unseen, but very much heard, is Decca star Earl Grant, who does the title song.

The music is by Sammy Fain, with words by Paul Francis Webster, and Decca also is issuing a "single" of the number.

Also singing in the picture — and very much seen as well — in one of the dramatic highlights of the production, is the famed spiritual songstress, Mahalia Jackson.

It is Miss Jackson who sings 'Trouble of the World" during the elaborate funeral services for beloved "Annie" in the picture.

'Geronimo' rides on Met's screen

Kamela Devi, a dark-eyed actress born in Bombay, India, who lost out on two very big movi opportunities because cause she was "too sexy" for "Ben Hur" and "to beautiful" hfor "The Devil at Four O'Clock," is both sexy and beautiful in the Laven-Gardner - Levy presentation, "Geronimo," a United Artists release in Panavision and Technicolor, starring Chuck Connors, now playing at the Met Theatre.

Miss Devi, who is seen as the Indian girl who opposes the Apaches' campaign of warfare in spite of her love for their leader Geronimo, is destined for stardom even though she lost out on the previous choice assignments.

Producer - director Arnold Laven says: "She can't miss. Her performance in 'Geronimo' stamps her as an actress of great potential."

Although William Wyler felt she was "too sexy" for "Ben Hur," he predicted great success for her as a screen star, and this was borne out by Mervyn LeRoy who later tested her for "The Devil at Four O'Clock."

He found her the most exciting star material he had seen in years.

Thrilling horror film at Regent

As a tribute to the great all time silent screen horror classic, "The Cabinet of Caligari," 20th Century - Fox and Robert L. Lippert have created an unusual film based on new psychological theories and subliminal shocks. The CinemaScope view of a macabre world stars Glynis Johns and Dan O'Herlihy and is now at the Regent Theater.

Taking you on a haunting journey into the bizzare mind of a woman who undergoes a wierd series of traumatic terrors, 'Caligari" was penned by producer - director Roger Kay and Robert Bloch, who won fame for his writing of "Psycho."

The authors have given the film a unique twist ending which is in keeping with the shock values of the daring subject matter.

Kay, who has had extensive experience on television, is making his debut as film producer - director; it was his idea to devise the film's concept and have it based on psychological suspense rather than outright violence.

A Pirandello approach of "People seeing what they want to see and that nothing is what it seems to be" has been applied to "Caligari."

Korea duty

The tour of service is so rigorous in Korea that the average United States soldier only spends nine months there.

However, if he is assigned to Germany or other European posts, his tour can be up to three years.
