BALTIMORE AFTER DARK "On the TOWN" with the Pub Crawler

"You pays your money and you takes your choice."

This ancient slogan was in vogue over the past weekend as happenings aplenty were popping all over town.

There was the "Afternoon With Hilda Simms" at Morgan where the party set was treated to a one - woman spectacular of dramatic readings and recitations.

The big, melodic and soothing voice of Jay Neely of Radio Station WITH, added a touch of excitement to the proceedings.

CLEGG BLACKWELL'S "Swing into Summer," showing off how the well dressed man should look these burning brights, made a creditable showing.

The sparse attendance was due, in part to the number of events on tap plus terrific competition from the traditional lure of out of doors.

Clarence M. Mitchell 3rd, young Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates and Isiah Fletcher of the Urban League, were cited as "young fathers who have achieved."

No word on the outcome of the Sonny Rollins jazz fiesta at the Lyric this past Satty. Hear tell Floyd Bartz was man behind scene, but that's all.

Morgan campus will again be the scene of interest this Sabbath when sound lovers trek there to give a listen to Gene Ammons and chirper Nancy Wilson.

Should be another nice one.

WITH THE CLUBS — Thursday was a good day for Dave Garret, mike man at WITH. After a year of chasing he caught up with Wilmer Jacobs and she said "yes."

Dave promptly plucked a diamond on that special finger as big as an ice cube.

As an encore, Dave and Wilmer took down the 10 buck twisting prize the same night at the Casino.

They won it hands down because nobody else was was even close.

Whew, but can they twist!

Winner of this week's contest will be given an all-expense trip to the City of Light and Casino will pick up the tab.

A final reminder If you haven't caught the Tune Toppers yet, you are missing a good one!

Without a doubt this brothers —outfit is one of the best acts in show business. . . . even Moya agrees!

ANOTHER STOP you'd better make these simmering summer dazes is the Tall Man's Kleeco. Walter has given the place a face lifting and the appearance is as cooling as the tall frosty ones which go for a meagre 49 cents.

Thelma, Shirlee. Greta and "oil queen" Jerri are expecting you.

Food is taking the play from other aspects of the night beat. For instance. the rather plush Castle D'or, where Cornel Muldrow makes the music, is putting on a swinging eating campaign.

If you drop in between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. or 5 to 9, you can sample the delicate and delightful edible being served-up there.

MACEO'S LOUNGE, long known for fine eating habits, is getting a lot of mileage out of its "Three for One" night. And to make things flow smoothly, Orfa Day, a fixture at another well known hideout for many moons, has joined our Queen Joan on the other side of the fountain.

Agnes, who celebrated her ???? birthday the other dark, but is not telling which one, holds the fort by day.

See that Kai Yai has gotten out of the dog house for a change. He spells bossman Maceo Paysour when he takes off.

'Twas some brights and darks ago that we told you about the spaciousness of Alpine Villa. It's no wonder, then that they have a program lineup that looks like an endless festival.

Every Wednesday cha-cha-mambo and maringue, featuring the Los Tremendos, make up the bill of fare.

Thursdays, its twisting time with the Stylist, starring Johnny Page in the Sportsmen room. Fred Thaxton is the man on weekends and wrat a man!

James Peterson (Big Pete) and James Jones (Bootney) are your genial hosts.

"COME OUT and twist with Charlie Brown," is the invitation flung out by Frank Reddish at Dotson's.

With Dave Ross's Trio in the background, this should

With Dave Ross's Trio in the background, this should be easy. And the country air is nice, too.

Flink is back at his usual stomping ground, Chick's Lounge and dishing music, songs and ad libs as hot as the weather. He is aided and abetted by a troup of torso turners — Delores Proctor, Marianne La Vann, Segueme and Rusty.

Stripteasers remind us that that Block thing is in full bloom again, and we wonder what will happen when all the shouting is over.

Smart money is saying that it will result in exactly nothing. But we aren't that smart!

But you'll be smarter if you'd drop in on Knotty Pine, Lounge, Cabana Club, Red Fox, and Jones Cocktail Lounge. You don't have to place any bets and still have gobs of fun.

We dug Al Hibbler's proposed spectacular he announced when he dropped in the other p.m.

'The name of the show will be 'Let Me See,' and it will star George Shearing, Ray Charles and myself," said Al.

How about that for a guy who has learned to live with a handicap?

1,000 take part as Mosher Little League is opened

Close to 1,000 persons were on hand for the recent opening of the James Mosher Little League summer program at School 144, Mosher St., and Wheelen Ave.

A colorful parade, featuring four marching banks and members of the nine Mosher project teams, preceded official opening ceremonies in the school enclosure.

Musical units were from Dunbar High School, Hamilton Post of the American Legion, Kadets of America and the Cadets and Cadettes of Ames Methodist Church.

* * *

INCLUDED among the speakers were Gene Whidbee of the Rea Keech Buick Co., City Council president Philip Goodman, attorney George Russell, Urban League director Isaiah Fletcher and Dr. Arnold Dickman.

In part, Mr. Whidbee said:

"Being here on this platform today is probably the proudest moment of my life. Not entirely for what it means to me, personally, but for what it symbolizes in the growth and progress for the youth of our Baltimore community.

"The fact that so many mothers and fathers, players of various young ages, sponsors, officials, civic leaders—that we all can meet here in a spirit of sportsmanship and friendly fellowship is indeed an outstanding tribute to this City which is the home of all of us.

"I especially wish to thank Mr. Rea Keech for giving me this opportunity which, in many other communities, would not be possible.

"Our team is the Wildcats, playing in the Pony League. Our coach is Mr. Isaiah White.

"I don't know how one man could have been more dedicated to youth programs in the past 25 years than Mr. White.

"He is sincere, he is devoted, and he is a disciplinarian in daily life as well as in sports.

"Because of his tireless efforts over a quarter of a century, I think Mr. White has every reason to be proud of events like this one today.

"We could all wish that more people would take the time and effort to help our growing children in these fine baseball programs."

* * *

THE KEECH company placed a car at the disposal of the parade committee. The A. D. Anderson Chevrolet dealership provided two automobiles.

Radio Station WSID broadcasted the proceedings from 3:30 to 4 p.m., on the afternoon of the ceremonies. Announcing was Kelson Fisher.

Junior Games will see record-breaking field

The Bureau of Recreation will hold its annual Junior Municipal Games Track and Field Meet at Clifton Park on Friday, June 23.

The line-up for the parade of contestants will start promptly at 1 p.m. This meet will probably have the largest number of participants in the history of the City.

Entries have been received from 65 playgrounds and recreation centers listing approximately 2,500 different competitiors; 1,500 boys and 1,000 girls.

Seventeen track events and sixteen field events will be held and trophies will be awarded to the winners of first, second and third places in the individual events and to the members of each winning relay team.

The age classifications are Midget, 11 years and under; Junior, 12 and 13 years; Intermediate, 13 and 15 years and Senior, 16 and 17 years.

The Honorary Referees will be: Mayor J. Harold Grady, Dr. Frank C. Marino, president, Board of Recreation and Parks; Charles A. Hook, director, department of Recreation and Parks; L. Edgar Myerly, superintendent, Bureau of Parks; Marshall S. Turner, chairman, Baltimore City Commission on Physical Fitness and Harry D. Kaufman, chairman, Maryland Commission on Physical Fitness.

Willie Walker shines as Carver grad

By WALTER BAKER

Young Willie Walker of the 600 block of Roundview Rd., a recent graduate of Carver Technical High School is easily the most popular young man in Cherry Hill.

Why? Well, Willie won a number of honors and citations including a $50 savings bond upon graduating from Carver.

Cherry Hill Presbyterian Community Church was one of the busiest churches in Cherry Hill Sunday. Among the activities on a crowded schedule were a Father and Son Breakfast and a groundbreaking ceremony for their new sanctuary on Cherry Hill Rd.

The Rev. E. Rudolph is minister of the church.

The Cherry Hill Mothers and Homemakers Club is conducting a candy sale to raise money for their summer projects.

Walter A. Baker of Roundview Rd. was called to Rich Square, N.C. recently to attend the funeral of a relative.
