4th D. GOP nominees primary expenses light

Four of the seven successful Republican candidates for the State Legislature in the Fourth District have reported primary election expenditures of $25 each.

They are:

Raleigh Jones, unopposed for the Senate nomination, Dorothy Austin, Prodgell Green and Glenn W. Hilbert for the House of Delegates.

Adolfth. Thomas Jefferson, also a House nominee, listed his expenses at $106.09, and reported these were his personal funds.

Campaign expenses of two other GOP nominees, King Ross and Brenda Satterfield, both House nominees, were not located in the Circuit Court files.

THE CAMPAIGN expenditure affidavits of Mrs. Austin and Messrs. Thomas and Jones were notarized on on June 3 by an "Ernest D. Young."

* * *

The affidavit of Mrs. Green was notarized by an "Ernest D. Young" on June 2.

An unsuccessful House of Delegates candidate among the seven who had filed for the six Republican nominations was Joseph Drumwright, who also listed his expenses as $25.

Mr. Drumwright's campaign expenditure affidavit was notarized by an "Ernest D. Young" on June 3.

The filing papers of these candidates, timed as having been placed before the Board of Supervisors of Elections shortly before the midnight deadline on March 5, also bore the notary seal of an "Ernest D. Young."

Shortly afterwards, an AFRO exclusive story quoted Republican city officials as saying they had no knowledge of these candidates.

* * *

SAM HOPKINS, then chairman of the GOP City Committee, said only Miss Satterfield, whose papers bore another notary seal, was known to Republican officials.

Mr. Hopkins charged at the time that the filing of these candidates, with the exception of Miss Satterfield, blocked GOP plans to enter an official ticket in the district.

GOP officials turned the case over the State's attorney for investigation, but the matter was not cleared before the primary and hence dropped.

YOUNG MISS Vondalear King, 11, of 1530 W. Lexington St., was a recent graduate of the Franklin Square Elementary School No. 95.

Salary hike asked for Welfare head

Action on a recommended $2,500 raise in salary Wednesday for Miss Esther Lazarus, director, city's Department of Public Welfare, was postponed until the coming Thursday by the Board of Estimates.

The raise, asked by the Standard Salary Board, would hike Miss Lazarus' salary from the present $15,000 to $17,500.

The Salary Board's recommendation pointed out that the requested new salary level would be more in keeping with that set in other cities for this position.

Mayor J. Harold Grady said afterwards he would delay swearing Miss Lazarus in for a new term in office until after the Board of Estimates acted on the proposed salary increase.

A city code prohibits a city official's salary hike during term in office. This new salary scale would become effective July 1, the scheduled beginning of her new term.

Miss Lazarus' salary was increased in February of last year from $12,500 to the present $15,000.

Carroll County Board integrates 1st grade

The Carroll County Board of Education recently announced that integration of all first grades will begin in September 1962.

Superintendent of Education, Samuel Jennes, said about 50 colored first grade pupils now attending Westminster's Moton School will be transferred to the nearest school, and the first grade classes at Moton abolished.

In the past, all transfers of colored pupils to formerly all white schools were made on request of the parents. Sixty colored persons are now attending integrated schools.

Under the new plan, colored pupils entering the first grade will be directly assigned to integrated schools.

Mr. Jenness said, if present plans continue, one grade-a-year will be integrated until all 12 are completed.

Admitting this would be a very slow process, Mr. Jenness said he was confident it would be speeded up considerably.

"But", he declared, "right now we don't have room for total intergration. Practically all my schools are filled."

* * *

THE REV. Nevin Kirk of the Human Relations Committee formed in April to push for total integration, takes a different view, however.

As committee chairman, he contends the colored population in Carroll County is so small that total integration should not require so much time.

There are 462 colored pupils enrolled in the Robert Moton and Johnsville Elementary Schools, out of a total enrollment of 11,500 in the county.

Husband's testimony wins him a divorce

Winston Johnson divorced Mrs. Shirley Johnson, last Monday, after testifying that she went into a North Avenue apartment at 4:30 a.m. on January 1, wearing a cloth coat with a fur collar, and came out in the afternoon at 1 o'clock that afternoon wearing an all fur coat.

Mr. Johnson, who gave his address as 2409 Callow Ave. said that he and two friends kept vigil near the apartment and saw Mrs. Johnson drive up.

The husband told the court that he didn't want to cause any disturbance by going to the apartment.

He said that when, a half hour later, lights went out in the apartment he and the friends left.

Later, however, with a detective, he returned. He then called a Mr. Harris, who lived in the apartment house and asked him to tell Mrs. Johnson that her father wanted her.

Soon after, he said, Mrs. Johnson came out of the apartment. It was then 1 p.m. he said.

That was when he noticed that instead of a fur-trimmed coat, she was wearing an all-fur coat.

A cross - bill which Mrs. Johnson filed in the suit, and which charged the husband with cruelty and excessively vicious coduct, was dismissed.

In her suit the wife had asked for support for their two-year-old daughter and alimony for herself.

She said that Mr. Johnson's income was above $500 per month.

The court awarded her $25 per week for support of the child.

A DIVORCE went to Mrs. Constance Bates of 420 Robert St., from Alfred H. Bates on grounds of constructive desertion.

Mrs. Bates, represented by Milton B. Allen, testified that she was forged to leave her husband because he beat her and threatened her life.

* * *

"SHE DIDN'T say anything she just left and has never been back". William Lewis of 2614 Boone St., testified in the suit which brought him a divorce from Mrs. Georgia M. Lewis.

The Lewises were married on Dec. 10, 1921 and separated Sept. 15, 1953, the husband said.

* * *

ELMER H. TRAVIS was ordered to pay Mrs. Georgett E. Travis $150, when he was divorced from her, recently.

The husband, who lives at 2907 Presbury St., said that he and Mrs. Travis of 527 Bloom St., voluntarily separated in April of 1954.

They were married Sept. 11, 1952. Calvin Douglass was attorney for the husband.

MRS. BLANCHE GREGORY of 1418 Druid Hill Avenue, said that her marriage to Sheiton M. Gregory lasted only four months.

"My husband came to me and told me he had a girl friend and was leaving", she said.

They were married on March 5, 1959 and are parents of a son, whose custody was given to the mother. She was represented by Linwood Koger, attorney.
