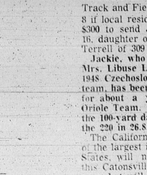
Seek $300 to send track star to Calif.

Maryland will have a top contender at the California Track and Field Meet July 7-8 if local residents can raise $300 to send Jackie Terrell, 18, daughter of Mrs. Gloria Terrell, of 309 Winters Lane.

Jackie, who is coached by Mrs. Lihuse Lomsky, of the 1948 Czechoslovakia Olympic team, has been running track for about a year with the Oriole Team. She can run the 100-yard dash in 11.2 and the 220 in 26.8.

The California meet, one of the largest in the United States, will not only give this Catonsville girl experience but will give coaches a chance to see her and maybe bring an offer of a four-year scholarship.

At this meet the USA team will be picked to run against the Russian team July 21-22 in California.



MISS TERRELL
Eyes on California

A 12TH GRADE pupil at Catonsville Senior High School, Jackie placed first in the Washington meet last year during the 100-yard dash; second in the 100-yd. in Baltimore, and her relay team placed second in the New York meet.

She ran second to Debbie Thapgood of the Frederick Track Team. The City of Frederick is sending Debbie to California with all expenses paid.

Eugene King, of the Catonsville American League baseball team has been seeking contributions to help Jackie get to California. Contributions may be sent to Mr. King at 211 Winters Lane.

2nd Tan Pitcher Gets No-hitter

BOSTON, Mass. — Earl Wilson, a 26-year-old right-hander from Ponchatoula, La., became the second colored player in history to pitch a no-hit, no-run game in the major leagues.

Wilson tossed a strong, 2-0 shutout for the Boston Red Sox against the Los Angeles Angels, here Tuesday night at Fenway Park.

The 6-3, 215-pound fireballer thus joined Sad Sam Jones, now of the Detroit Tigers, claiming no-hit, no-run distinction.

Jones was the first tan athlete to achieve the honor when he blanked the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-0, on May 12, 1955.

• • •

THAT WAS the same year that Wilson, only recently signed by the Red Sox, began seven seasons of bouncing about the Boston farm system. He was up for a brief spell in 1960, but was optioned to Seattle of the Pacific Coast League when he continued to be plagued by control trouble.

Last year, Earl had an unspectacular record of 9-14 at Seattle, with an unimpressive 4.23 earned run average.

On Tuesday, Wilson struck out five and walked four while fashioning his masterpiece. He also contributed to his own cause by hitting—a home-run.

• • •

THE RECORD books show 48 no-hitters in major league history. Of this number, 12 have been pitched in the last ten years—including the two by tan hurlers.

Al Holloman of the St. Louis Browns, beat the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-0, on May 6, 1953, and Jim Wilson of the Milwaukee Braves, turned back the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-0, June 12, 1954.

• • •

THEN CAME Jones' breakthrough for tan pitchers against the Pirates in 1955.

In 1956, Carl Erskine of the Brooklyn Dodgers, tossed a 3-0 no-hitter against the New York Giants, and Johnny Klippstein, Hershell Freeman and Joe Black collaborated for nine innings of hitless work against Milwaukee for Cincinnati, the latter losing in ten innings.

Sal Maglie threw a 5-0 win for the Dodgers over the Phillies on Sept. 25, 1956.

• • •

THE FOLLOWING year, Bob Keegan blanked the Washington Senators, 6-0, on August 20, for the Chicago White Sox.

Jim Bunning of the Detroit Tigers, beat the Boston Red Sox, 3-0, on July 20, 1958, and Hoyt Wilhelm of the Baltimore Orioles shut out the Yankees, 1-0, on Sept. 20, 1958.

Don Cardwell of the Cubs, beat the Cardinals, 4-0, on May 15, 1960; Lew Burdette of the Braves, blanked the Phillies, 1-0, on Aug. 18, and Warren Spahn victimized the same Phillies, 4-0, also in 1960.

Last year, Spahn tossed the only no-hitter of the season, a 1-0 accomplishment over the San Francisco Giants on April 28.

Perkins ring career ended

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — A promising contender for the middleweight boxing title appears to have reached the end of his ring career.

A spokesman for the fighter's management expressed such a fear here Tuesday.

• • •

FREDDIE PERKINS, who remained in a coma for more than a week after collapsing during a sparring session a month ago in preparation for a title fight, closed out his professional career with six wins and five losses.

"He'll never fight again," a spokesman for Perkins' manager said. "Doctors say he's through. He'll go down to the club and help other boys but he'll never again climb through the ropes with gloves on."

Perkins had gone two rounds with a sparring partner when he fell to the floor.

Orioles slate week-end trials

The Baltimore Orioles will conduct a two - day try out camp at Catonsville, Maryland today (Friday) and Saturday.

It will be held at the Spring Grove Hospital grounds located at Frederick and Wade Avenues, and sessions will begin promptly at 10 a.m.

Oriole scouts Fritz Maisel and Whitey Youse will be in charge of the workouts and will be assisted by other area scouts.

The camp will be open to boys between the ages of sixteen and twenty - two, who need only bring their gloves, shoes and wear a uniform if they have one.

Junior American Legion players are required to have written consent of their coaches or post commanders in order to take part.

Women's Olympic track meet soon

Track and field meets for girls and women interested in development for Olympic training will be held July 19, 28 and August 17 and 18, at American University.

Weigh JC suit to oust Birds from Stadium

Bidders, Inc., a 14 - member local civic interest club, has reportedly consulted with lawyers on the matter of filing suit against the Baltimore Orioles charging racial discrimination.

The club, through its president, Frank Ellis, has indicated that it may seek an injunction against the Park Board and other city officials, restraining them from leasing the Municipal Stadium to the Orioles for baseball.

BASIS FOR the action, Ellis told the AFRO Thursday, will be the lily - white aspect of the baseball club following the Tuesday sale of outfielder Earl Robinson. Robinson, the lone colored player on the Oriole roster, was sold to Rochester of the International League.

"We are convinced," said Ellis, "that the Orioles have never made a conscientious effort to obtain a colored player of established quality.

"And we question the release of their last colored athlete while retaining several white athletes of 'fringe' status."
