Gregory seeks No. 2 post in D.C. schools

WASHINGTON

Francis A. Gregory, asst. superintendent and one of the top - ranking colored officials in the Washington school system, has applied for the position of deputy superintendent of schools.

The application reflects heightening concern in the colored community that the number two post in the school system not go to any white official simply because no colored had applied.

A tribute to the retiring Lawson J. Cantrell was read at a recent school board meeting by School Superintendent Hansen. The post pays $16,000 per year.

Gregory's application is one of four by persons within the school system. A total of six applications was filed.

• • •

FRANCIS A. GREGORY, 55, has been assistant superintendent for Vocational and Adult Education and Summer Schools since segregated school staffs were combined in 1954.

From 1951 to 1954, he was in charge of junior high schools and vocational high schools in the colored school system. Gregory's experience includes nine years of teaching at the high school level, additional years at the college level, and 11 years as principal of first a vocational high school and then an academic high school.

Gregory attended public schools in Washington and Philadelphia and was elected to the esteemed honor society, Tau Beta Pi, when he took a B.S. from the Case Institute of Technology. He went on to win an M.A. in Electrical Engineering from M.I.T.

Gregory is a member or advisor to some 40 organizations of local, and national scope.

He is the first colored president of the Adult Education Association of Greater Washington; he has a distinguished record in vocational education and was one of two state chairmen picked from 50 to write a report for a Panel Of Consultants by Secretary Ribicoff (HEW) to orient vocational studies in America.

• • •

GREGORY HAS LONG fought for jobs and vocational training for colored youths, and unknown to many people in his leadership in the fight for more job opportunities.

He has often testified before committees of Congress on bills of many different kinds.

Gregory is an executive board member of the National Association of Intergroup Relations Officials. He is the only school official on the superintendent's Advisory Committee of Civic Leaders and Experts in Human Relations", a group formed in January, 1962.

FRANCIS A. GREGORY presently assistant superintendent of schools of Adult Education, Vocational Education and Summer Schools is the only known colored official to apply for the position of Deputy Superintendent of Schools in Washington.

It meets quietly with the superintendent to discuss racial and religious aspects of education within the schools.

New ass't U.S. att'y sworn in

WASHINGTON

Henry H. Jones, 35, was sworn in as an assistant U.S. Attorney Monday in the office U.S. Attorney David C. Acheson, by Municipal Court Judge Andrew Howard, who said:

"The defense will miss him but the U.S. Attorney is getting a good man."

• • •

JUDGE HOWARD praised Mr. Jones, a lawyer here since 1957, as one who "prepares his cases well and is cool, calm and collected."

Mr. Jones, of 732 Jefferson St., NW, was formerly associated with the firm of Cobb, Cain, Hyman and McCormick and is a 1956 graduate of the Howard University School of Law.

A native of New Bern, N.C. he attended public schools there.

In the absence of Mr. Acheson, "his principal assistant, Charles T. Duncan, presided at the ceremony.

Among those present were Mr. Jones' wife, Glanys, and the seven children, Jo Ann, age 17; Henry Jr., 16; Brenda, 14; Dorothy, 13; Deborah, 11; Maria, 9 and Sherman, 6.
