TWO FIRST — Girl Scouts Beverly Johnson and Arlene Hamlett of Newark Troops 423 and 353, respectively, inspect Beverly's insignia during a recent dress rehearsal at South Mountain Reservation held in preparation for the 3rd International Senior Scout Roundup of 8,500 girls July 18-31 at Button Bay State Park, Vermont. The two are the first colored Girl Scouts from Essex County selected to attend this international activity.

3 Set Precedent

BALTIMORE — Two cities facing suits charging school segregation have elected colored men as head of their respective school boards.

At recent organizational meetings, Dr. Leroy W. Bing man was elected chairman of the Gary (Ind.) School Board and Verner V. Henry, district supervisor for the New Jersey Bureau of Parole, was named head of the Newark school board.

Dr. Bingham's election came as 499 parents filed segregation charges. A similar suit is pending in federal court in Newark.

TWO OTHER members of his race — both ministers — have served on the Gary board but Dr. Bingham, a three-term Councilman, is the first to be elected chairman.

This is the first time in the history of the Newark board that a Negro has been a member of the board. It also is a precedent that two colored persons are on the board.

The other is an attorney, Harold Ashby, who is chairman of the State Parole Board.

WHILE PRECEDENTS were being set in Newark and Gary, the District of Columbia School Board was making history.

Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, president - emeritus of Howard University, was sworn in for a three - year term, ending a 62 - year tradition holding a colored membership to the 72-year-old educator replaces Rowland F. Kirks, who retired June 30 after nine years on the nine-member board.

In addition, Wesley S. Williams was re-elected to his second full term as president. He became the first of his race to hold the post when picked to fill the unexpired term of now District Commissioner Tobriner in 1961.

Southerners keep governors from adopting strong rights measure

HERSHEY, Pa. —(ANP)— The nation's governors wound up a long, wordy hassle over civil rights last week by deciding to let each governor decide for himself what, if any, several plans he liked —mild, strong or stronger.

For the most of six hours, the Governors Conference had become entangled in a parliamentary briar patch on the civil rights issue that seemed to offer no escape.

A Southern filibuster blocked adoption of a civil rights resolution.

Gov. Ernest F. Hollings, 40-year-old South Carolin Democrat, barred action on such resolutions at the final business session of the conference with a filibuster aimed at Northern Democrats as well as Republicans.

The host governor, Pennsylvania's 73-year-old Democrat David L. Lawrence, finally came to the rescue.

The "Lawrence plan" broke the deadlock by permitting individual governors to sign any civil rights proposal they choose to, including one offered by Michigan's Gov. Swainson.

Gov. Lawrence laid it straight on the line. Every governor's position on the touchy civil rights issue was going home to his constituents, he said.

He suggested they could sign proposals offered by Swainson, New York's Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, a mild resolutions committee offering or posal they choose to, including

Dr. King faces Ga. sentence

ALBANY, Ga. — Dr. Martin Luther King was scheduled to appear in court here Tuesday for sentencing on an indictment growing out of segregation protests.

Along with Dr. King will be the Rev. Ralph Abernathy. Both were tried four months ago in the local police court on a charge of parading without a licence. Sentencing was delayed.

They were arrested as they led a mass meeting from Shiloh Baptist Church into the heart of town. The mass meeting was called to protest the arrests of more than 500 protesters, mostly students, who demonstrated on city buses and jimcrow facilities in interstate bus stations.

The two ministers indicated that there was a possibility that if sentenced to jail, they might serve the terms instead of appealing and staying free on appeal bond.

They said, however, they had made no final decision on this matter. The local bus company was forced out of business when a selective buying campaign developed over the city's refusal to suspend city laws requiring jimcrow seating.

THE CHAIRMAN of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board absolved Dr. King of any blame in a case involving two savings and loan associations in Miami, Fla.

One, the Roosevelt, said that Dr. King had made a telephone call on behalf of the other, the Franklin. The Roosevelt firm asked an investigation to discover if the alleged call was instrumental in its competitor being chartered.

After the board reviewed the case, it decided there was nothing improper about Dr. King's calling.

"I don't feel that it had any influence on my decision," said Joseph P. McMurray, chairman of the federal bank board.

HE SAID HE HAD not answered the charge earlier on the advice of counsel to felt that since the matter was still being reviewed, it would be improper to discuss it.

Wyatt Tee Walker, chief aide to Dr. King, said concerning the case:

"The statement by Mr. McMurray . . . completely vindicated Dr. King just as we predicted . . . This is one instance where the general public has been able to see clearly the flimsy basis on which Dr. King is often criticized".

Observers predict that the Roosevelt Savings and Loan Association will take the case into court.

Jury indicts Ga. cop in beating

ATLANTA — A federal grand jury indicted two former Lawrenceville policemen on a charge of violating the civil rights of John C. Brown who lost one eye after a severe beating.

The policemen are John H. Patton and Joseph W. Robert. They resigned from the police force shortly after the Lawrenceville City Council discussed the case.

budget. He said it has given over $275,000 in six years and has assumed the university's capital debt of $340,000.

The grand president-fourth-er said the convention's help has been "a major step" in the university receiving accreditation in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

THE BOARD fired Strassner on the head of student protests against the administration of the university. The students had the support of the alumni.

In the meantime, the board has appointed Dr. Nelson Harris, chairman of the Department of Education, as interim president.

Cleric raps threat in Strassner case

RALEIGH, N.C. — A "threat" by a group of Baptists calling for the re-hiring of Dr. W. R. Strassner as president of Shaw University last week drew the ire of a local minister.

The Rev. Paul H. Johnson, chairman of the Board of Trustees' executive committee, said the 319,000-member General Baptist Convention of North Carolina is in no position to "raise threats."

Members of the convention's executive committee passed a resolution, to be presented to the full convention July 17, warning financial contributions may be withdrawn if the board didn't re-hire Strassner.

THE REV. Mr. Johnson, pastor of Martin Street Baptist Church, said the convention contributes "slightly less than six per cent to the total budget of the school.

He added the convention "would do themselves honor" by increasing the support to "more than 20 per cent."

Dr. Strassner said, however, the convention contributes "around nine per cent" of the total Shaw

Dream of motherhood ends in charge of kidnaping baby

HOUSTON (ANP) — A woman who thought she was pregnant went to a hospital recently and left an hour later with a baby she claimed was her own.

Police, last week, were holding Mrs. Ruth Warfard, 24, as the kidnaper of a five - day - old boy, Sidney Palm. A doctor said the case is similar to phantom pregnancy.

Lt. A. E. Peake of the Houston Police Department's juvenile division went to Mrs. Warfard's home on a tip from a suspicious doctor and found the missing baby lying on a bed.

He first tried ended a search by police and FBI agents that began on June 22 when the baby, then 36 hours old, was found missing from the nursery. Mrs. Warfard still claimed the baby was hers and that she gave birth to it at Lockwood hospital.

Her husband, Charlie, 23, told police he took his wife to the hospital and watched her leave through an emergency fire exit about an hour later with the baby. She told him she had just given birth. They named the baby Charlie Jr.

In Memoriam 3

BRANCH — In loving memory of our dear husband, WOOD, who passed away July 16, 1958:

In a home that is lonely today.

I go to your grave every day
And tell you I miss you so much.
Sometimes I feel how I miss you
Most of all.
God alone knows how I miss you
Now that you're gone.
WIFE.

MRS. LUCILLE BRANCH.

CEPHAS — In loving memory of our dear husband, SOLOMON J. CEPHAS, who passed away seven years ago, July 17, 1955:
Those days I walk, this life alone,
The path we once together trod,
I walk my journey steps
For each leads nearer you and God.

Sweet was the love we shared
Sweet was the life we lived
Sweet are the memories we leave behind
Sweet is the peace he found at last
Sweet is the rest he now enjoys
Sweet are the days we will spend with him
Sweet is the hope that we shall meet again.
WIFE, MARY FOSTER

STERLING — In loving memory of our dear mother, who died July 14, 1961:
NOVELLA, who passed away July 14, 1961:
Peaceful be thy rest, dear loved one,
It is sweet to breathe her name;
In life we did so love you dearly,
In death we do the same.
THE FAMILY

VAUGHN — In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, ELLEN VAUGHN, who died July 14, 1961:
No one knows how much we miss her
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered, since we lost her
Life has never been the same.
Sweet memories linger fondly
Over her gentle, tender face,
There is not a day, dear love one
That I do not think of you.
Devoted Daughter, Mary
CHILDREN And GRANDCHILDREN.

HUGHES — In loving memory of our dear mother, ADA V. HUGHES, who passed away July 14, 1958:
BISHOP W. A. C. HUGHES, who passed away two years ago, July 14, 1960:
GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.
CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN.

JONES — In loving memory of my husband, ROBERT, who passed away July 14, 1961:
My heart aches and shades are fallen,
I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there are many sighs to moan.
If you only could come home,
Oh and oft my thoughts do wander,
To your grave so far away,
And I sing, dearest husband,
One year ago today.
LOVING WIFE—SUSIE.

SCOTT — In loving memory of my wife and our mother and grandmother, ELIZABETH, who died July 16, 1961:
Sudden was the call,
And sudden was the parting,
Of one so dearly loved and true,
It was a shock severe
It had to part with you,
But God said think of you
And think of you
Is all we could not say good-bye.

In Memoriam 3

UNDERWOOD — In loving memory of our dear father, WILLIAM C., who passed away July 14, 1956:
He never closed his eyes in sleep
Till we were all in bed;
On party nights till we came home
He often sat and read.
He little thought we cared about it then,
When we were young and gay,
And that he waited just to know
That we'd come home all right;
Why sometimes when we stayed away
Till one or two or three,
It seemed to us that father heard
The turning of the key;
For always, when we stepped inside,
He smiled and we'd reply:
"Why, we're here with you now."
And so kindly doctor said;
And in his eyes there gleamed
A look
That we'd come home all right.
Just told he had been waiting,
Just to know we were safe;
Then with a familiar smile
He'd say, "Good night, God bless you."
And prayed to God to bless
Us safe and sound throughout the night.
And then he went to sleep.

WHITE — A tribute of love to my dear husband, who passed away July 14, 1963:
Dear husband, friend, and lover,
daughter and friend.
In our hearts your memory lingers
Sweetly today as then and true.
There's not a day, dear Vivian,
That we do not think of you.
