ON THE Eastside

By CHARLOTTE W. DOWNIE

Lovely Mrs. Quintina Short, of Washington, D.C., was married recently to Leamond Peyton of East Baltimore.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harry Dixon, pastor of Christ Methodist Church. A reception was held at the home of the newlyweds, 1708 E. Chase St.

Mrs. Shirley Munford, daughter of the bride, of Washington, D.C., was matron of honor. James Peyton was best man.

The bride looked radiant in a mint green color chiffon gown with matching slippers. With this she wore a tiny half hat with a tiny veil.

The bridegroom is employed at Bethlehem Steel Company.

OUT-OF- TOWN guests at the reception included Mr. and Mrs. Burke Munford, Morgan Pratt, Eddie Pwinn, all of Washington, D.C.; Miss Desire Munford and Eddie Pwinn Jr., of Washington, D.C., and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cross of Long Island, N.Y.

Guests from Baltimore were: George Lamont, George Graves, Lemuel Lofton, James Payton and wife, Jack Winn, John Edwards, Walter Ennalls and James Goldsborough.

Miss Mattie Mitchell, Miss Thomas Knox, Mrs. Myrtle Chew, Novella Hicks, and Dr. De Cosmo. Miss Mattie Mitchell and Bernadette Ennals.

Mrs. Wilbert Payton, Henry A. Wise, Thomas and Frank Knox.

OUR GOOD Neighbor of the Week is charming Mrs. Leona Gardner, wife of William Gardner, a local business man.

Mrs. Gardner is a substitute teacher in the Baltimore City Schools and is at present attending summer school at Morgan State College.

Our Good Neighbor is a native of New York City and active in the Public schools in New York. She is a member of the NAACP and does much work helping with the retarded children's campaign.

Our Neighbor likes to sew, read and watch TV. Her color specialty is black, her favorite hymn is "Fairest Lord Jesus," and she likes to recite the 23rd Psalm.

BIG DOINGS are coming up for members of The Eastside Community Committee and their friends. Come August 5 the group will be going on its 13th annual outing at Carrs Beach. Mrs. Laura White is chairman and her assistants are Messdames Ada Brown, Inez Spicer, Lillian Walston, Bertha Driver and Mae J. Harlee.

The General Directors and Morticians Association will be embarking on their 15th annual moonlight cruise on July 24. Making with the music will be Jimmy Smith and his Rockets.

Now hear this Neighbors... There are civic duties that should be on our must list... First, let us get on the band wagon and help with the Register and Vote Campaign.

Many volunteers are needed to ring door bells...to donate cars for transportation...Won't you help with this worthy cause...Call the NAACP office, La. 3-8503 TODAY.

Memo to all Eastsiders — If you have any club news, weddings, birthdays that you would like to have appear in my column, a friend is to me at 2411 Mondebello Terr., Balto. 14, or you may call me at 426-2294. Thanks to my faithful readers who have dropped me notes.

Mr. Kinsey left $2,500 in postal savings. Debts paid amounted to $1,868.96. Of the balance $210.35 went to his widow, Mrs. Celia Kinsey; and $420.69 to his daughter, Mrs. Geneva K. Davis.

ANNAPOLIS DOINGS

By ELOISE RICHARDSON

This correspondent is visiting relatives and friends this year in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Margaret Wright, a former Annapolis teacher, completed a course in guidance counseling at Ball State Teachers College, Muncie, Ind.

She taught at Florida A. and M. University until her father, the late Richard Brown, became ill. He died last October.

Mrs. Wright has since returned to her Indiana home to take a job as a case worker with the Delaware County Department of Welfare.

HOMES FOR all income brackets are becoming plentiful in Indianapolis as private builders are constructing practically all over town.

The upper income bracket families are able to buy homes in practically every area of the city.

For one, the home of Mrs. Vernice Brent, an elementary school teacher, has been done up very smartly by her husband, Bernard, an interior decorator.

Mr. Brent is a sponsor of the Pioneers Boys Club of the YMCA and member of the Omega Wives and Zeta Phi Beta sororities.

Mr. Brent is the first colored representative for the Duraclean Company, and international decorating concern.

He is chairman of the district housing committee of the regional office of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

"But I would say that the register and vote drive is at this time very timely for Baltimore city," he said.

He deplored the some 70,000 colored unregistered voters in Baltimore and added:

"The extent to which a people refuses to participate in the democratic process is the extent to which they are denied their rights."

Mr. Dukert promised CIG the use of a jeep with a public address system and a bus in the vote drive.

WHEN YOU FINISH READING YOUR AFRO — PASS IT ALONG TO A FRIEND

Baltimore County

By DORIS B. ADAMS

Members of the Cul-Ko-Non Neighborhood Association are proud their ... De-So Debutante, Devera Jenkins. It is hard to believe that when we first moved into the area, De ers was our little AFRO girl. Now she is a poised and charming young lady.

The AFRO route has passed down to a sister and younger brothers. But if necessary reckons, Devera still pitches

A Western High School graduate and now a student at Morgan, Devera plans to enter the Provident Hospital School of Nursing. While awaiting that day, Devera serves as a volunteer nurse at Provident.

• • •

DEVERA IS the daughter of ...ard and Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, Monastery Ave, and one of six children.

She likes reading the works of modern and classical writers. Painting and sketching are hobbies.

She also enjoys modern dancing, lectures at Walters Art Gallery and music of all types. Her outstanding participation in the Cleli Debutante cotillion for Devera a citation.

A member of Union Baptist Church, Devera plans to enter Provident Hospital School of Nursing in September.

HOLDING forth at their annual 4th of July cookout were Catonsville's William A. and Pimmie Ross. And was the barbecued chicken divine! The secret sauce couldn't be pryed from Pinnie's lips.

Enjoying the fun and good food were the Leroy Thompsons (Puff and Mint) Charles and Delores Ridgely; also Mesdames Rosetta Colbert, very chic in beige bermuda ensemble, Edith Clement, Dorie Adams and Captain Andrew Johnson, who—retained his throne as horseshoe king; plus the kiddies, Dion, Ray, William Jr. and Geneva Baker.

Later the group watched the fireworks display held at the Catonsville Senior High School.

Incidentally, when Dunbar teacher John Miller presented his piano students in recital at the WCBM Radio Station Studio recently, seven - year - old Rae Ross was the youngest and smallest of the group.

Her air of confidence and mastery of recital selections brought smiles to the faces in the audience and a hearty round of applause.

LEAVE IT to Turner's Station's Mary Johnson to be one of our area hostesses with the most! When it was time to entertain the La Comrades social club, Mary took the reading to Carmen Reginald Bennett's to enjoy a gourmet's delight, Maryland soft shell crab platter. And the pinocle prizes were fabulous!

First prize winner Gertrude Corbett's bag drew raves. Mabel Webster's second prize was a combination salad bowl and ice bucket. Third prize winner Catherina Royster, received a lovely brass powder container.

One of the youngest lay teachers at St. Gregory the Great Bible Vacation School is 12-year-old Philathia Hall, daughter of the Ruxton Ave. John Halls.

Come September Philathia will be a seventh grader, at St. Edward School. This summer she's teaching third graders and loves it. And . . . she actually checks the papers!

• • •

DON'T FORGET the annual camp meeting to be held at Fairview AME Church, Jarrettsville and High Point Road, July 15. The C. E. Johnson, his choir and congregation from Grace AME Church will render the service.

Thank you readers for your cards, telegrams and words of encouragement. I'm happy so many of you like my book.
