was quiet, courteous and cultured.

In 1959, he retired after 35 years on the waterfront to devote his time to his family, their home and gardens, they noted.

THE REV. Ernest P. Clark, pastor of the Ames Church where Mrs. Butler was a lifetime member, delivered the eulogy.

He too spoke of the family as an "ideal" one.

The Rev. Mr. Clark pictured the father as "gathering his family together, reaching them back to God, to Christ, waiting to receive his own."

The Rev. Mr. Clark said it was probably Mr. Butler, 8 years old when John Jr. was born, thought of his young son and daughter as youngsters who "left heaven's door ajar" to eventually lead their father home."

The minister pictured the husband probably as taking his wife, gentle and kind, with him, "to keep the spirit's tryst 'neath heaven's dome."

He said: "If the father were alive he would probably go along with these words I speak."

The Rev. Mr. Clark told the more than 3,000 persons within the sound of his voice, "No man dies by himself. Whether we live or die, we are of the Lord."

ASSISTING IN the 60-minute rites were the Revs. C. E. Johnson, pastor, Grace AME Church, Catonsville; O. E. Hardin, chaplain, Northrop Grumman's International 838 Union; Oscar Christmas, Grace Church assistant pastor; Alfred Dixon and T. C. Jackson, Gillis Memorial Church pastor.

The church choir and soloists, Mrs. Gladys White, Miss Dorothy Chappell and Miss Phyllis Randall, sang "God Will Wipe Away All Tears," "His Eye is on the Sparrow" and "Lead Me, O Lord, Lead Me."

The Rev. Mrs. Grace Hill gave the benediction. Also on the platform was the Rev. William King, pastor of Simmons Memorial Baptist Church.

MR. AND MRS. Butler were married June 30, 1937. Characterized as "kind, family - loving and generous," Mr. Butler drew into the family circle his wife's daughter by her second marriage, Mrs. Marlene Robinson Randall, and her husband, Thomas Randall.

Leslie D. Butler, the couple's first child, was born June 4, 1947, 10 years after the marriage. The son, John Jr., was born May 17, 1952.

MR. BUTLER was the son of the late William and Katie Butler and born Sept. 1, 1893 in Saluda, S.C.

During his employment on the waterfront he was a member of the 858 Union and a Mason.

After nearly 40 years work, he retired in 1959 to the comfortable home the couple had established in Catonsville.

MRS. BUTLER was born Jan. 1, 1910 to Mrs. Anna Purvey Ross, now a New York resident, and the late Thomas Purvey.

Christened at the Ames Church, she was educated in Baltimore public schools and studied to become a beautician.

For many years she operated a shop in the 700 block Cumberland St. near Ames and her childhood home at Cumberland and Carey Sts.

She was married three times. Her first husband was the late James Smallwood. The second marriage to Alvin Robinson, now a resident of Harrisburg, Pa., ended in divorce. Mrs. Randall is their daughter.

Mr. Robinson was present at the funeral services.

THE THIRD marriage, to Mr. Butler, resulted in a home acquaintances described as filled with love.

Mrs. Butler, as housewife and mother, devoted her time to home duties. Upon her husband's retirement, they spent time in beautifying their residence and acquired several pieces of Catonsville property.

The children attended the Grace AME Church nearby in Catonsville.

Both participated in school activities. John as a member and pitcher of the Junior League Pirates and recently was chosen an "All - Star" player.

Leslie was a former member of the Madison Avenue YWCA "La Petite Huit" teen club.

Along with their parents, they participated in Catonsville community activities.

MRS. RANDALL, works at the Woodlawn Social Security building in the vicinity. Mr. Randall is employed by the telephone company.

They told the AFRO the first of the Sunday morning shots was taken to be a "firecracker."

Mrs. Randall discovered her mother had been shot when she rushed to her bedroom to tell her John Jr. had been shot. Leslie was still alive when the ambulance arrived but died enroute to St. Agnes Hospital.

Police state they found Mr. Butler dead in a downstairs room of face and neck wounds.

Neighbors say they met Mr. and Mrs. Butler in a nearby shopping center last week after she had driven him to the doctor in the family car.

* * *

MRS. BUTLER was a member and Past Matron of the Order of Eastern Star, Rebecca Chapter. Representatives served as honorary pallbearers.

Also honorary pallbearers were members of the 858 Longshoremen's Union.

SURVIVORS include Mrs. Butler's mother, Mrs. Ross, New York; a sister, Mrs. Ida M. Poindexter, Bronx, N.Y.; two brothers, Leroy and Madison Purvey, New York City.

Mr. Butler is survived by two brothers, James Butler, Baltimore, and Furman Butler, South Carolina.

Other relatives present for the funeral include:

Mrs. Madison Purvey, New York; Mrs. Bernice Dunn, Mrs. Catherine Rosemond, Mrs. India Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rosemond, Leonard Rosemond, Edward Parker, Mrs. Viola Day, Theodore Poindexter, all of Washington;

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Galloway, Annapolis; James Dunn, South Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Purvey, New York; Miss Ruth Butler, South Carolina; Edward Butler, Wilmington, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Green, Mr. and Mrs. James Bennett, James Butler, Mrs. Katie Butler, Mr. and Mrs. James Bennett, Hamilton Bennett, Miss Barbara Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harding, Miss Carol Bennett, Miss Sylvia Poindexter, Gerald Poindexter, Miss Barbara Thomas and Mrs. Bertha Knives, all of Catonsville and Baltimore.

War I veteran.

The 10-year-old son, John Jr., reposed next to his father in a white casket. Dressed in a white suit, a white rosary was entwined in his hands, a white carnation in his lapel.

NEXT TO HER brother, 15-year-old Leslie reposed in a pink casket, wearing a flowered party frock overlaid with white chiffon, a pink carnation corsage at her left shoulder. White pearl earings and necklace matched the rosary in her hands.

The mother's casket was also pink matching the pale pink lace and chiffon burial gown. Pearls in her throat and her earings were replicas of the ones Leslie wore.

Inside her casket was the Order of Eastern Star Evepoint floral star. Also, a white floral cross matching the ones in the caskets of her children.

DURING SERVICES all caskets were closed. A huge American flag covered the father's casket. Large floral designs were atop the other three caskets.

MOURNERS ARRIVED at 10 a.m. to secure seats.

Honorary pallbearers included more than 50 members of International Longshoremen's Union 858 and 15 women dressed entirely in black from head to toe, representatives of the Order of Eastern Star Rebecca No. 25 chapter and members of various church organizations.

Mrs. Butler was christened in the church, remained a lifetime member, active until the family moved to Catonsville.

On the choir, which filled the entire loft, were many singers who recalled her dedication to the church during childhood and young womanhood.

MINISTERS of Methodist Churches of the Baltimore area as well as ministers of other denominations were present.

The vast audience sat motionless for the 60-minute rites.

Accompanied by two white-clad nurses, was the dead woman's 78-year - old mother, Mrs. Anna A. Ross, of New York.

Seated in the same pew were Mrs. Butler's daughter by her previous marriage, Mrs. Marlene Robinson Randall, 29, and her husband, Thomas Randall.

The Randalls' 3-year-old daughter, Bernel Andrea, was not present.

Mrs. Butler's first husband, Alvin Robinson, 53, of Harrisburg, Pa. arrived in Catonsville on Tuesday to be present with his daughter, Mrs. Randall.

SCORES OF other relatives from Catonsville, Baltimore, Annapolis, Washington, New York, Delaware and Pennsylvania, filled the entire center pews.

Also present were an interracial group of schoolmates of the two children, former teachers, neighborhood children, Junior League Pirates baseball teammates of the 10-year-old youngster who was one of their pitchers.

Following church services women church members, neighbors, friends carried floral designs from the auditorium, formed a block long ane eitsor lak l.gaSB long aisle along Baker St. from Carey St. to Pennsylvania Ave.

THE FOUR hearses were lined abreast at the intersection of Baker St. and Pennsylvania Ave., one for each casket.

The father's hearse rode out first, the two hearses carrying the children next with the mother's hearse last.

In the 100-car procession were seen parents and children of Catonsville identified with the Butler family as longtime neighbors.

Mrs. L. Brown

Funeral services were held today (Friday) for Mrs. Laura Ann Brown, 73, 1421 Argyle Ave., at Shiloh Baptist Church.

Mrs. Brown died Tuesday at her home after five months illness.

A NATIVE of Nottoway County, Va., Mrs. Brown came to Baltimore at an early age.

She was married to the late William Brown for 45 years before his death several years ago.

A member of Shiloh Baptist Church, Mrs. Brown sang in the Allen Gospel Chorus, was a member of the missionary society, the Bible class and an usher, before she became ill.

Science Shrinks Piles
New Way Without Surgery
Stops Itch—Relieves Pain
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

No wonder the English keep so cool!
(mix Gordon's Gin in a tall, iced drink—and you will, too!)
The English are not easily fazed, even by summer heat. This national talent was given a cheerful accompaniment in 1769, when Alexander Gordon introduced his remarkable gin. The Gordon's you drink today harks back to his original formula, because one does not tamper with gin of such distinctive dryness and flavour. Try it soon in a tangy Gin & Tonic or Tom Collins. You'll see why, summer and winter, Gordon's Gin is the biggest seller in England, America, and indeed — the world!

Trail of phantom bandit leads back to complainant

Police looking for a six-ot, broad - shouldered, ark - complexioned holdup an reported to have robbed e Ace Currency Exchange 8 Park Ave. on July 10, disered this week that he esn't exist.

As a matter of fact, there asn't even a holdup.

Some $6,890 is missing however. Instead of looking for a holdup man, police have charged the clerk, Mrs. Martha LeBrun, 23, 2900 block Erdman Ave. They say her holdup story is false.

She is being held at $7,500 bond along with two accomplices, Howard D. Hush, 25, 8000 block of Oak Pl., and Robert Watts, 1600 block Hadwick Rd., who were arrested in Atlantic City Wednesday. All are white.

On the day of the "robbery", Mrs. LeBrun sobbingly described the holdup man as "a colored male, 35-40, 6 ft., 200 lbs., wearing blue pants and a shirt and a blue uniform-type jacket.

SHE SAID he entered the office around 10:55 when she was alone and ordered her to give him money while he kept one hand in his pocket as if concealing a weapon.

"I don't want to hurt you. Unlock the counter door and you won't get hurt," Mrs. LeBrun quoted the "bandit" as saying.

"I opened the door and he walked behind the counter and told me to open the safe and put all the money in a brown paper bag," the woman said.

She said the man then asked the location of the twenty dollar bills. When she told him there weren't anymore, he said, "I know better than that," she told police. She said she gave him the rest of the money.

"THEN HE TOLD me to get in the back room and to sit on top of my hands in a chair. He took out a roll of tape and taped my hands and feet to the chair and ran out the front door," she reported.

She said when she freed herself, she called the firm's owner, Benjamin Burkowitz, who was acting as a pallbearer at a funeral.

Central District police said that they questioned people in the area and could find no evidence that 'a man fitting the description supplied by Mrs. LeBrun had been seen in the vicinity.

Acting on a tip, police said they visited Mrs. LeBrun again this week and found $600 in her home.

Tubmans in London

LONDON — President William V. S. Tubman of Liberia, and Mrs. Tubman, drove from Buckingham Palace to the Guildhall last Monday in an open carriage accompanied by a sovereign's escort of the Household Cavalry.

Steel workers return; say 'hat' dispute not settled

Steel workers return; say hat dispute not settled—MJ

A Bethlehem Steel Co. spokesman said Thursday that sheet, tin and strip mill division employees have returned to work.

Hamilton Whitman, public relations official, said their return marks the end of a 'hat' dispute which began Monday.

However, a spokesman for the workers, said the matter is not settled yet.

The company said an additional complaint about free steeltoe safety shoes, has not come officially to its attention.

Local 2609 United Steel Workers Union refused comment on the shoe issue.

THE 'HAT' walkout on Monday was triggered by a 'handful' of crewmen who refused to wear 12-ounce safety helmets which they called 'hot' and 'uncomfortable.' Mr. Whitman told the AFRO.

He explained that when hatless workers were barred from work for failure to obey company safety rules, their 500 fellow crewmen, wearing hats, were unable to work without them.

He added that the protective helmets have been worn for years, and since the 'handful' works inside under normal temperatures, the Monday's weather was cool, the complaint came as a surprise.

REPRESENTING THE WORKERS, the Union spokesmen said over 3,000 workers were "sent home" on Monday in what they term "a lockout."

Reporting, "it's not settled yet," they stated Thursday, that the 2609 Union president, Edward Plato, was still in conference with Bethlehem Steel officials.

The "must" order for all employees to wear safety helmets is a recent one, the Union argues, noting the rule formerly applied only to Maintenance, construction and mechanical employees.

Death penalty for 2 brothers upheld

The death penalty for two Montgomery County brothers was upheld by the Maryland Court of Appeals Wednesday.

The brothers, James 22, and John Giles, 20, of Spencerville, were convicted by a Circuit Court jury of raping a 16 - year - old blond girl.

THE DEFENSE asked the verdict be overturned for these reasons:

1. Colored persons were excluded from the jury.
2. The complainant consented to the act.
3. The penalty was excessive.
5. It was a violation of the brothers' constitutional rights for the jury to judge both facts and law during the trial.

Youth balks

A reluctant convict was sentenced to life in prison, plus 20 years Wednesday by Criminal Court Judge Shirley B. Jones.

Jesse L. Adair, 16, 1700 block John St., who refused to stand up when ordered to, drew the term for attempted rape and assault of two housewives earlier this year.

After Judge Jones imposed sentence, Adair still refused to move and fought with guards when they took him bodily from the courtroom.

During the scuffle police handcuffed him but not before he had bitten guard Paul Ehrenberg on the arm.

Judge Jones said she added 20 years to the life term to cancel out any possibility that Adair, whom she described as "serious threat to society."

Five couples get divorces

Mrs. Elaine H. Smith of 2409 Piedmont Ave., who divorced Leroy Smith, recently, testified that her husband deserted her while she was hospitalized.

The beautician said that when she returned from the hospital on March 19, 1957 Mr. Smith had moved and had taken everything in the home with him.

She added that when she saw him the following October he told her that he wasn't coming back. They were married on Nov. 17, 1954

She had her maiden name, Elaine H. Ross, restored. William H. Murphy was her attorney.

EUGENE R. ARNOLD of 2237 Druid Hill Ave., divorced from Mrs. Ethel N. Arnold of New York, also charged that he was deserted.

Married on Feb. 1, 1951, they separated on Jan. 1, 1960, according to the husband.

His wife, he told the court, was tired of the responsibility of keeping house and being a wife, so she packed and left. Mr. Arnold said that the last was the second time she had left him.

Custody of two children, a daughter, 11, and a son, 9, were given into his custody.

NATHAN POWELL of 1900 W. Mulberry St., testified that Mrs. Ellen Powell of 1805 Poplar Grove St., left him in April, 1953.

Mrs. Powell, he said, told him that she was tired of being married. They were wed on Feb. 10, 1946. A divorce went to the husband.

* * *

MRS. CLEMENTINE ABRAMS of 2307 Elsinore St. was granted a divorce after she testified that her husband, Walter, left when she asked him to get a job.

Their marriage lasted from June 9, 1956 to April, 1958, according to her testimony.

THE MARRIAGE of Mrs. Gloria Lyles of 1381 Gilmor St. and George Lyles of 214 N. Stricker St. was dissolved by mutual agreement, the wife said.

The couple, married on May 28, 1955, separated on August 4, 1956, she testified.

Two children of the couple were given into custody of the mother and the father charged generally with their support.
