Women of many lands here for Odd Fellows' conclave

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

To lend a hand to the men's endeavors of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, the women's division, the Household of Ruth, has the Biblical quotation, "Whither thou goest, I will go", as a guilding principle.

This fraternal vow, accounts for the presence in Baltimore next week of a colorful group of more than 200 women delegates from 47 states, Africa, Aruba, Canada, Bahamas and Bermuda.

Grand Household of Ruth convention sessions at the Odd Fellows Temple, 2257 Madison Ave. are simultaneous with the other lodge division meetings, and extend from Sunday, Aug. 12 through Friday, Aug. 17.

Highest women's official is Miss Susie Jones, St. Albans, N.Y. a social worker who is director of children's activities for the Brooklyn, N.Y. Youth Center.

To head the international group of more than 20,000 women, she bears the lengthy title, "Right Worthy of Ruth, Grand United Order Superior, Grand Household of Ruth, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows in America and Jurisdictions."

A member of order since childhood, Miss Jones has held the office since 1949 and has been reelected to the post every two years for 14 years.

She and other national officials anticipate reelection on Friday when the lodge votes on the 1962-64 governing body in closed executive session at the Temple.

Grand Master Ernest D. Cooke, Boston, Mass, holds the men's highest post which corresponds to Miss Jones's office.

NEXT MOST important figure on the convention scene is Mrs. Mable Stewart, Quantico Md., who is official hostess and District Grand Most Noble Governor of Maryland.

Mrs Stewart is serving as co-host along with Maryland's top Odd Fellows official, Leslie I. Gaines, the Grand Master of Maryland.

Miss Jones and Mr. Cooke are the Maryland lodge's honored guests and will be extended highest fraternal courtesies on Thursday at the 7 p.m. banquet at the Alcazar Ballroom.

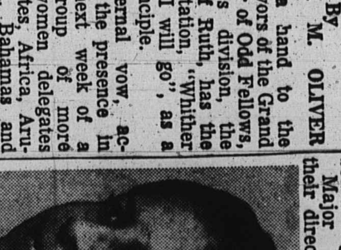
OTHER GRAND officers are Miss Annie E. Brogdon, Sumpter, S.C., treasurer; Miss Lucie A. Newton, Washington, usher; Mrs. Margaret A. Moseley, Patterson, N.J. chamberlaim; Mrs. Ida E. Harris, Annapolis, Md. recorder; Mrs. Roxanna M. Johnson, Jacksonville, Fla., prelate; Mrs. Emily B. Jordan, shepherd; Mesdames Vivian C. D. Robinson, Brooklyn, and Mollie A. Gray, Steelton, Pa., members of the board of governors.



MISS SUSIE JONES St. Albans, N.Y. leader of Odd Fellows 20,000 women for 14 years

Major departments and their directors are: Education, Mesdames Iola Jones, South Carolina, and Mamie Stewart, Washington; Health and Hygiene, Mesdames Mary Barnes, Massachusetts and Lillian Whittaker, Washington; Arts and Crafts, Mesdames Gladys Carey, South Carolina and Dolores Rhoades, Pennsylvania,

Public ..Relations, ..Mrs. Madelyn Freedman, New York; History, Miss Mable Diggs, Massachusetts and Mrs. Martha Bowden, Illinois.

Press and publicity chairman for the convention is Mrs. Mary Auter, Pennsylvania.

Women officials and delegates other than those from Maryland, are lodged at the Sheraton Belvedere Hotel while in Baltimore.

Shiloh to host council

The National Association Council of Community Churches of America and Elsewhere, Inc., will convene at the Shiloh Christian Community Church, Lombard and Catherine Sts., August 19, with the Rev. George W. Baynard as host pastor.

This Council was organized in September, 1951 by the late Dr. Wilbur Henry Waters, who was at the time pastor of the Emmanuel C. C. Church.

Beginning with six churches, this organization has since grown to a membership of 30 Community Churches, located as far west as Chicago and as far south as Memphis, Tenn.

Dr. Jesse H. William, pastor of St. Luke C.C. Church, Chester, Penn., is the National President. The Rev. Mr. Baynard is first vice president.

BALTIMORE CHURCHES affiliated with the Council are: Emmanuel C.C. Church, the Rev. Sidney Daniels; Gillis Memorial C.C. Church, the Rev. Theodore C. Jackson Sr.; Shiloh C.C. Church the Rev. Mr. Baynard; Ivory Temple C.C. Church, the Rev. Benjamin Shell;

Mt. Sinai C.C. Church, the Rev. Phillip Wilson; New Bethel C.C. Church, the Rev. Charles Mack; Highway C.C. Church, the Rev. Christine Hillard; First Community Christian Church, the Rev. Irving Flemming; and St. Andrews C.C. Church, the Rev. Inez Bracey.

On Wednesday at 8:00 p.m., a welcome program will be sponsored by the host church. A banquet will be the feature next Saturday at 8 p.m.

SERMON OF THE WEEK

'The cross reminds us that we are devilish and capricious'

"One of the things which frighten man more than anything else, is that he might be forgotten," said the Rev. Marion C. Bascomb during his sermon Sundat at Douglas Memorial Community Church, Madison and Lafayette Aves.

The title of the Rev. Mr. Bascomb's sermon was "We Lift This Cup."

"We have come with that idea from the dawn of man's existence. He has set up our memories so that we cannot forget Him.

"One of the hungers of our existence is we will not be forgotten.

"It is normal that we hope no one forgets us.

"This town is known as a memorial town. Actually, it is Frances Scott Key who is remembered.

"WHEN WE think of Jesus Christ, we have very few things we can remember him by. In the terms of memorials, and statues, he is almost nil.

"Instead, he is remembered by a crude cross. The cross is still mankind's ultimate that God is not always appreciated and that man will do almost anything to crush good.

"The cross will remind us that we are mean, devilist and capricious, and that we will go to almost any length to hurt someone.

"Communion is a symbol of bread and wine. Some people say, 'I'm going to get Communion' when they should say 'I'm going to share Communion.'

"The experience at the Lord's Table makes you estatic not energetic. You feel an experience with Jesus Christ. You are renewed; ready to become a new force in the world.

"Communion lets you know that you have come into an experience with what is the highest and the best in human experience.

"It lets you know that you are a member of the royal species.

"COMMUNION DOES not change a man. If it does, why are we so mean? It is a process by which man can begin to change.

"While there are many things we want to remember, there are also many things we want to gorget.

"When we are mean, devilish and capricious just to hurt somebody, we want to forget.

"Need I remember over and over again my shortcomings?

"It has got to stand in the presence of God. Sooner or later you are going to stop pretending and let God in so innocent and pious.

"There are so many things which transpire in our lives that we ought to forget.

"A MAN said this: 'There are many cups we lift to our lips. Some for fulfillment, some for sustenance, but most of the time it is to forget.'

"One night a week we help the alcoholics. They want to be helped. The reason churches have failed is that instead of helping people, they have become goodie, goodie hypocrites.

"There is another cup, a wonderful, most beautiful cup in the world. This isHe that cometh in the name of the Lord.

"As Isaiah said, 'His name shall be called Wonderful.'

"He took them to the Room and they must drink out of the cup and share the joys of fellowship.

"I remember that God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him shall have everlasting life."

Zackie Carter

Funeral services for Zackie Carter, 68, 1819 Madison Ave., were held Wednesday at Eastern Methodist Church Wolfe and 20th St. Burial was in Mt. Calvary Cemetery.

Mr. Carter died Friday. Born on Deals Island on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, he came to Baltimore in 1923.

He worked in various factories and chemical plants before illness forces his retirement in 1953.

He was a member of the Eastern Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Lottie May Carter; a son, Broderick Carter; a brother, Ernest Carter; and sisters, Mesdames Lena Wallace, Marie Davis, Rosie Wallace and Martha Dickson.

The Rev. Martin Luther King does not want your sympathy. He wants you to register and vote.

Positive acts must be major

That the local church should attack positively small areas of a problem rather than vaguely discuss large problems keynoted a recent Methodist seminar.

The Methodist at Work in the Inner-city Christan Social Concerns Seminar was held at the Ebenezer Methodist Church, 4th and D Sts., Washington, D.C.

The interracial seminar, the first of its kind in the area, was sponsored by the Baltimore and Washington Annual Conference Boards of Christian Social Concerns.

During the Seminar, SOS Shepherd of the Street programs were described. The SOS programs were established to train store front pastors on how to meet community and spiritual needs.

The programs were set up to ease the void of churches which had fled to the suburbs.

IT WAS established that the local church commission must study and act on housing, street sanitation and zoning codes.

While liaison can be established with Juvenile Court, Boy Scouts, the League of Women Voters, the local commission should clearly define the church's witness, stand and mission in order to avoid friction with an agency's position, a seminar summary said.

Many persons in the church may be called upon to help with the program, for example, the shut-in who clips newspapers.

The stated goals of the inner-city church were emphasizing the gospel, witnessing the Christ and being more concerned about the neighborhood than the inner walls of the church.

Cancer kills Sammy, age 2

"It is a tragic thing. I know what it is to watch a person die. And it is doubly so when it is one so close to you."

The poignant statement was made by Eldridge Walker, father of two-year-old Samuel Walker, who died Saturday of cancer.

It was discovered that he had the disease six months ago.

"Death was a relief to him," continued his father. "There wasn't a chance in the world for him.

"The whole time he was ill, he never complained."

SAMUEL WALKER is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Walker, a brother, Milton, 9, and a sister, Gwendolyn, 16.

Arthur Scott

Arthur Scott, 70, 4629 Falls Rd., died after a heart attack Friday. He had been retired for a month.

Funeral services were held Monday at the Herbert Nutter Funeral Home. He was buried in Arbutus Memorial Park.

Mr. Scott had been self-employed in the hauling business since the age of 17. He owned three trucks.

He was a member of the Tyson African Union Methodist Protest Church, which was located at 4701 Falls Rd.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Betty Scott, and a sister, Mrs. Lydia Francis.

The News of the Churches

Prayer of the Week

Out Heavenly Father, we find so much in election contests that is not true, kind, or tests that is not true, kind, or honest that we are afraid because we wonder how we can build a people or a nation when its leaders are consumed with greed, deceit and lust for power.

So we pray that Thou will give common people wisdom to make right decisions, and to vote their decisions in the coming elections.

Above all things, we pray, give us character. Amen.
