Bishop Mills greeted by governor, religious leaders in Virgin Islands

The Rt. Rev. Cedric E. Mills, first bishop of the Virgin Islands, and Mrs. Mills arrived in St. Thomas Saturday morning, May 11 at 8:45 o'clock.

Bishop and Mrs. Mills were flown from Puerto Rico in a chartered plane and were met at the airport by the Governor of the Virgin Islands, The Honorable Ralph M. Paiewonsky, Mrs. Paiewonsky, the rector of All Saints', the Rev. Raymond E. Abbitt, clergy, wardens and vestry of All Saints' Parish.

A motorcade was formed immediately and Bishop Mills, the Governor, clergy and vestry were taken immediately to All Saints' Church for a service of welcome and thanksgiving.

Upon arrival at All Saints' Church there was a trumpet fanfare and the processional hymn, "Our Father, By Whose Servants Our House Was Built of Old" began and was interspersed between the stanzas by the All Saints Parish School Choir singing "Vivat Episcopus Cedricus."

* * *

AT THE service, the Rev. Raymond E. Abbitt, in his introduction of visiting clergy said:

"Right Rev. Father in God, and Mrs. Mills, this day is a day for which we in the Virgin Islands have been praying for many years — to have our own resident Bishop; our own Shepherd to lead us, to set our goals; to share our joys and share our sorrows; to guide us in the solving of our problems and in bringing to the peoples of the Virgin Islands an ever deepening realization of what it means to be a Christian.

"Sir, the peoples of the Virgin Islands have a wonderful and grave responsibility small though we are in area, in showing the world that people can live together in harmony and peace, devoid of prejudice in fields which have caused so much strife in other parts of the world.

"We need only, under your leadership to follow one rule and if this is followed, all else will fall into line: 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, with all thy strength, with all thy mind; and thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.'

"In the name of the peoples of All Saints' Parish we welcome you to the Virgin Islands and pray God's continual blessing upon you, Mrs. Mills and your family."

* * *

FOLLOWING FR. Abbitt's introduction the Honorable Ralph M. Paiewonsky, Governor of the Virgin Islands welcomed Bishop and Mrs. Mills on behalf of the Government and peoples of the Virgin Islands.

The Rev. Fr. Alfred Sears, C.SS.R., on behalf of The Rt. Rev. Edward Harper, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of the Virgin Islands, welcomed Bishop and Mrs. Mills on behalf of the Roman Catholic Community in the Virgin Islands. Fr. Sears is Bishop Harper's Vicar General.

The Rev. Marvin Henkelmann welcomed Bishop and Mrs. Mills on behalf of the Protestant churches of St. Thomas. Pastor Henkelmann is president of the St. Thomas Council of Churches.

Rabbi Moses D. Sasso, for 49 years head of the Jewish Congregation of St. Thomas welcomed Bishop and Mrs. Mills on behalf of the Jewish Community of St. Thomas.

Bishop Mills, until his elevation was pastor of the St. James Episcopal Church here; responded to the welcome addresses by saying:

"Greetings in the Name of the Lord. We have just overcome our first fright because this is the first time that Mrs. Mills and I have ever flown. And now I am going to try to overcome my second fright as I face you this lovely morning. For it is a humbling experience to be greeted by you and to be with you.

"This takes me back to a few weeks ago in Baltimore when, at a testimonial, my very good friend of the Hewbrew Congregation in Baltimore, gave the invocation. So I am indeed happy that Rabbi Sasso although he did not stay for the service, was here to bring greetings from the Jewish community. For we are working under the banner of Almighty God and under his banner we are the children of God.

"Indeed it is a pleasure to have the president of the Council of Churches to express greetings to us because it has always been our happy privilege to work with a Council of Churches.

"I trust that the Vicar General of Bishop Harper will take back to him these words, that it is indeed a double pleasure to have the Vicar General here to symbolize the real necessity for Christian thought and concern for all peoples in a religious community.

"As I left behind me many, many, friends in the Roman Communion, I trust that as the years go by we will have the privilege and opportunity of creating new friends within the Roman Communion of the Virgin Islands.

"One cannot be more flattered and humbled by the presence of the Governor of the Virgin Islands. It was a distinct pleasure and joy to be greeted by him at the airport and to have this opportunity to acknowledge that greeting and to send our thanks to him, for surely no minister of any religious group can be concerned about the spiritual development of that group without also being concerned about how people live and when they live.

"To the rector of this parish, to the clergy who are here, I am deeply indebted for this greeting. And to you my people, I can only turn cut to you my heart of love for people, that in that love that God does give us we must work, we must pray and we must live.

"And so I bring you, my prayers, greetings of joy and greetings of thanks in the Name of the Lord."

U OF ALABAMA CASE

Legal showdown set for Tuesday

By CLIFF MACKAY

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Moving with more than all deliberate speed, federal judge H. H. Grooms, Thursday order the University of Alabama to show cause why it should not be integrated beginning with the summer season on June 10.

He set a hearing on the order for Tuesday, requiring Hubert E. Mates, dean of admissions to prove why he should not be held in contempt for not admitting three colored students and the University to show why "they should not be admitted forthwith."

The students are Jimmy Hood, 20, of E. Gadsden, Ala., now enrolled at Clark College, Atlanta; Sandy English, 21, of Birmingham; and Vivian Malone, 20 of Mobile.

Alabama is the only remaining state which has no integration in state schools of higher education.

* * *

THE HEARING Thursday was to determine whether a permanent injunction issued in 1955 against the University in the Catherine Lucy Case was still valid.

University lawyers contended that since the injunction, also issued by judge Grooms specifically named Williams Adams, then Dean of Admission, it did not affect Mr. Mates.

Judge Grooms, coming into court with a prepared order, quickly dismissed that argument, declaring that his order applied "not only to the man but to the position as well."

Appearing for the students were Mrs. Constance Baker Motley and Leroy Clarke of New York City, and Arthur D. Shores of Birmingham. Andrew J. Thomas, who represented the University in the Lucy Case, appeared again for the school.

* * *

IN ADDITION to the three students seeking admission to the University's main campus at Tuscaloosa, two scientists of the U. S. Redstone Arsenal at Huntsville have applied for admission to the University Center for graduate studies at Huntsville.

They are Marvin Carroll, who wants a Master's degree and David McLaughtery, who would like to pursue studies leading to the Doctorate degree, both in physics.

Troops on alert in Birmingham

By CLIFF MacKAY
AFRO Staff Correspondent

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — All was calm in Birmingham Monday and Tuesday but the feeling persists that it is a calmness that could be shattered any second.

Apparently this rear of a possible outbreak is what has persuaded President Kennedy to keep some 3,000 troops on the alert at nearby military camps despite the wailing and gnashing of teeth by Gov. George Wallace and members of the state's congressional delegation.

Burke Marshall, who heads the Justice Department's Civil Rights Division, and a key figure in working out the truce agreement, left Tuesday morning for Washington to make a full report to President Kennedy and Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy.

* * *

ALTHOUGH MARSHALL Monday expressed "full confidence" that city and county officials "were meeting their responsibility in maintaining law and order," he significantly omitted any eference to some 500 state highway troopers and hastily deputized state forest rangers who ring the colored business district on orders of segregationists Gov. George Wallace.

It is the presence of these heavily - armed state officers which many fear is likely to trigger another outbreak like that which occurred Saturday night.

Clearly indicating that the Kennedy Administration has no intention of pulling out the 3,000 troops anytime soon was the arrival on Tuesday morning of Maj. Gen. Charles Billingslea, commander of the Second Armored Division, to assume command of military operations here.

* * *

THE BELIEF that the present calm is but temporary was also strengthened Monday when Sidney Smyer, who headed the white team of negotiators, told a news conference that the employment of only one colored person in one store as a clerk on a trial basis had been promised.

This differs from the understanding held by A. G. Gaston, who headed the team of colored negotiators. It also differs from the statement of Dr. Martin Luther King at a Thursday news conference.

Both Gaston and King insist that the agreement calls for the employment of colored clerks at all of the downtown stores.

Two unsubstantiated incidents occurred Monday night. An unidentified colored man was shot in the face with what appeared to be a bee-bee gun by three white youths in an automobile. A white youth reportedly claimed he had been stabbed by a group of teenaged boys in North Birmingham.

* * *

THE "MIRACLE" of the Birmingham demonstrations has been the control Dr. King and his lieutenants have been able to exercise over thousands of Birminghamians who simply don't buy this "non - violent" philosophy.

This element, bolstered by some 21,000 combat-seasoned veterans, is ready to do battle any minute, one observer told the AFRO.

Jackie Robinson, in addressing a mass meeting Monday night brought consternation to the faces of King and his workers when he publicly announced: "You can love 'em if you want to, but me, I simply can't do it. It's not in my nature."

Steelworker charges Ala. trooper beat him

By CLIFF MACKAY
Afro Staff Correspondent

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — The Justice Department Thursday urged the growing list of brutality victims in this racially tense city to make full reports to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Burke Marshall, assistant attorney general in charge of civil rights, instructed the Rev. Fred L. Shuttlesworth by telephone from Washington to instruct persons set upon by Gov. George Wallace's state troopers, to pass all details of the attacks on to the local office of J. Edgar Hoovers' agency.

* * *

A STEELWORKER getting off from work early Tuesday morning told the AFRO that he was stopped by two of the state storm troopers, who knocked out three of his teeth with the butt of a riot gun when he failed to move fast enough in showing his driving license.

Another man related how he had stopped to fix a flat tire when he was approached by one of the troopers who slapped him for drunkeness, although arqund, then arrested him he has never taken a drink in his life.

The Wallace Highway Patrol, brought in at the invitation of ousted Police Commissioner Eugene "Bull" Connor, is swarming over the colored business district in a naked attempt at intimidation.

* * *

THE HIGHWAY police have been augmented by hastily sworn in Forest Rangers and Game Wardens, who have been given guns, crash helmets, nightsticks and armbands and rushed to Birmingham where freedom fighters charge they are terrorizing innocent citizens.

Newly-elected Mayor Albert Boutwell reportedly was unhappy over the presence of the State Police as are the Rev. Mr. Shuttlesworth and his followers.

The new administration has made it clear it had nothing to do with the invitation to Wallace's troopers, nor did it think their continued presence was necessary.

* * *

NEVERTHELESS while keeping up a drumfire of protest to President Kennedy over the detailing of combat troops in the Birmingham area, Gov. Wallace instead of withdrawing the highway patrolmen, Thursday morning increased their number to more than 700.

The state's highways have been cleared of all patrolmen, it was disclosed at Montgomery. The job of handling traffic matters has been assigned to County Sheriffs. Even the Driver License Bureau has been closed while the state men ride with riot guns exposed through colored neighborhoods of Birmingham. Mackay.

Air-conditioned buses ordered

Glen L. Stanley, president of the Baltimore Transit Company, has informed the Metropolitan Transit Authority that the air - conditioned buses needed to convert the remaining street car lines have been ordered from General Motors Corporation.

Mr. Stanley said 15 would be delivered during July the remainder during the latter part of September and the first of October, 1963.

June 2 is designated as Provident Hospital Sunday

The General Solicitation Division of the Provident Hospital Development Program under the leadership of Mrs. Victorine Adams will get underway June 6 and will continue through Saturday, June 8, says George L. Russell Jr., cochairman of the campaign for the New Provident Hospital.

According to Mrs. Adams, block workers are now being recruited. Instruction meetings for workers will begin on May 23, the first meeting being District 3 with Mrs. Catherine Adams as district chairman.

June 2 has been designated Provident Hospital Sunday in all the churches. The clergy will be asked to discuss briefly the needs of Provident Hospital on June 2 with their congregations.

* * *

MR. RUSSELL said memorials are available for individuals, clubs and firms from $150 and upward. Memorials maybe designated for a member of a family or stand as a memorial to the contributor.

All gifts may be paid over a period up to five years.

The New Provident Hospital to be built on Liberty Heights Ave. west of Reisterstow Road will be the most modern in hospital construction with the lat equipment.

The total cost is estimated to be $8,000,000 and approximately 70 per cent of the cost has been covered by an allocation from the State of Maryland and a Bond Issue voted last year by the people of Baltimore. Also included is an expected grant from the Federal Government.

Mr. Russell said that every $1 contributed to the campaign means more than $3 toward the new hospital.
