Fashion Show at Abyssinian

NEWARK

About three hundred persons attended the third annual fashion show of the Senior Usher Board of the Abyssinian Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon.

Given at the Masonic Center, 188 Belmont Avenue, the show consisted of spring and summer hats and dresses presented by both male and female models.

Featured were the full dress and lounge wear of Mrs. Sadie Johnson and Mrs. Lily Berfet, and the hats of Mrs. Roxie Koontz.

Mrs. Eunice Washington was commentator. Mr. Albert Carey played the piano.

Woman Tortured by Agonizing ITCH

"I nearly itched to death 7½ years. Then I found a new wonder creme. Now I'm happy," writes Mrs. P. Ramsay of L. A. Calif. Here's blessed relief from tortures of vaginal itch, rectal itch, chafing, rash and eczema with an amazing new scientific formula called LANACANE. This fast-acting medicated creme kills harmful bacteria germs while it soothes raw, irritated and inflamed tissue. Stops scratching—so speeds healing. Don't suffer! Get LANACANE at druggists.

We use the diaseptic process that assures diaper care clinically safe. Free from harmful bacteria.

I FEEL SO DIFFERENT, SO ALONE, SO AFRAID...

Don't suffer the terrors of Change-of-Life when you can be helped

Don't feel you are alone in fearing what the years of "change" may bring. No woman can possibly anticipate the sudden hot flushes—the equally sudden feelings of clammy cold. Just as, no matter how hard she tries, she frequently cannot control the irritability that overcomes her.

But there is a medicine—to which countless women, undergoing the "change" have turned for welcome, wonderful comforting relief. And that is—the gentle medicine with the gentle name of Lydia Pinkham. Lydia Pinkham Tablets. Take them daily, like vitamins. In doctor's tests three out of four women reported relief from those awful hot flashes, nervous irritability, pressure—and all without expensive shots.

If you are in the "change" years, don't let unnecessary fear worry you sick. Feel once again much more like the happy woman you used to be. Get Lydia E. Pinkham Tablets.

Annual YWCA dinner takes on Eighteenth Century flavor

Members of the official family of the Baltimore YWCA donned attractive eighteenth century hats when the 80th annual dinner meeting was held on Thursday evening at the Central Branch Auditorium.

In addition to the 80-year-old bonnets, they presented an historical prologue which detailed events, habits and activities of the horse and buggy days.

Speaker was Mrs. Durward V. Sandifer of D.C., world-traveler and lecturer, and a moving force behind the Overseas Education Fund, sponsored by the League of Women Voters.

* * *

MRS. SANDIFER told of the history of the organization, created from Carrie Chatman Catt Emergency Fund, and its aim to help newcomers to America understand our custom and practices.

Democracy, she said, is not something which works by itself. It just doesn't happen. It requires constant working and leadership.

She reminded the integrated audience that people everywhere (in Africa, Asia etc.) are beginning to find out that there are better things in the world, and they are determined to get them.

* * *

MRS. NORMAN M. GROSS, president, presided, and gave her annual report, as did Mrs. Henrietta B. Martin, executive director.

Both spoke of the important role of leadership the YW must continue to assume—working with other city agencies to meet the needs of women and girls in Baltimore.

Other reports were by Mrs. Morgan M. Buchner, treasurer; and Mrs. Clyde M. Clapp, auditor. Mrs. Carl W. Wheelock annual meeting chairman, introduced the speaker. Prayers were and Miss Mary A. Adams.

Music was by the Dunbar High School Ensemble directed by Norman Ross.

* * *

OTHER MEMBERS of the 80th birthday dinner committee, in addition to Mrs. Wheelock and Mrs. Campbell, were Mrs. Clyde A. Clapp, Mrs. Henry E. Corner and Mrs. Beatrice H. Hall.

Mrs. John E. Motz gave the nominating committee's report of election of the following:

For nominating committee from the board: Mrs. Albert R. Fischer, Mrs. J. Arnett Frisby. From electors-at-large: Mrs. Harrison J. Bryant, Mrs. J. Douglas Johnson, Mrs. D. Arnett Murphy and Miss Helene M. Schneidereith.

New members elected to the board of directors for terms expiring in 1966 were:

Mrs. William I. Gosnell, Mrs. Joseph M. Beatty, Mrs. Robert C. Goetze, Mrs. Carl W. Wheelock and Mrs. Lillian S. Watty.

Reelected were: Mrs. Norman W. Clemens, Dr. Laila Skinner, Mrs. James A. Griffin Jr., and Mrs. S. Procter Rodgers.

LYSOL... fastest, easiest, most effective way to help protect your home from FUNGUS, MOLD, MILDEW, ODORS

It's so easy to guard your home against mold, mildew and fungi, including the fungus that causes Athlete's Foot.

Just add a little Lysol to your regular cleaning water. Unlike pine oils, Lysol destroys disease germs as well as fungi and odors—at lower cost. Add fresh-smelling Lysol when you clean—bathroom, kitchen, baby's room, all through the house. Safe to use as your detergent. Pine Scent or Regular.

FREEDOM DEMONSTRATORS — High school students cheer and chant to fellow students in the Cambridge jail after nine more were arrested Wednesday night in a sit-in. Previously more than 60 were arrested, ranging from age 13. About 150 persons marched in protest Wednesday night and at one point two policemen pulled pistols on the demonstrators.

Come right in, says the Army

One of the most comprehensive military programs to be seen in this area in recent years is schedule to unfold at Aberdeen Proving Ground for upwards of 30,000 Armed Forces Day visitors on Saturday, May 18.

From 9 a.m. until 4 p.m., the business of the post will be devoted exclusively to presenting a detailed report to the public on how the Armed Forces are building their share of the national defense.

Cooperating in the 14th annual observance are Edgewood Arsenal, Bainbridge Naval Training Center, and units of the Maryland Air National Guard and the Harford County Civil Defense organization.

Presentations on the "Main Front," including aerial and firing demonstrations, start at 9:30 a m and will be repeated at 1:45 p.m.

Open house activities and hundreds of displays and exhibits will be open throughout the day.

Free shuttle buses are being provided on-post for the convenience of visitors and a special bus service will operate between the Pennsylvania Railroad station in Aberdeen and the Proving Ground.

May 26

Miss Delores Cousion and Miss Agnes Austin will be morning and afternoon speakers at Women's Day services at Greater Baptist Church, 1304 Riggs Ave.
