30-day stay granted in Birmingham contempt cases; $11,000 bond up

By CLIFF MACKAY

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. —Top leaders of the Birmingham freedom struggle were saved from jail Thursday morning when cash bonds totaling $11,000 were posted in circuit court.

The bonds were ordered by the Alabama Supreme court Wednesday after the court had granted a 30 - day in five - day criminal contempt sentences meted last month for violating a sweeping state court injunction against segregation protests.

Dr. Martin Luther King, the Revs. Fred Shuttlesworth, Ralph Abernath, Wyatt Tee Walker and others were slated to begin their jail sentences Thursday.

THERE WAS some discussion Wednesday night about serving the sentences to conserve rapidly dwindling bail funds, but this plan was voted down by Mrs. Constance Baker Motley, who represented the ministers.

She pointed out that an appeal would enable lawyers to obtain a higher court ruling on clearly illegal state court injunction such as was issued by Circut Judge W. A. Jenkins here.

His injunction not only prohibited demonstrations picketing and all protests against segregation but forbade boycotting of downtown merchants as well.

MEANWHILE, the Rev. Fred L. Shuttlesworth was sentenced to his third term of 180 days and $100 fine for "Parading without a permit." appeal bond was set at $2,500.

Orzell Billingsley, Attorney, succeeded in persuading circuit Judge Wallace Gibson to reduce the fantastically high bail being set by police court judges for violation of city ordinances where $5 fines are the normal penalty. Some bonds were lowered from as high as $1,000 to $300.

At first glance, Esskay Hot Dogs look much like any other hot dog. But, there is a remarkable difference. Esskay Hot Dogs are noticeably superior in taste . . . in flavor . . . in texture . . . and in nutrition.
Open the package and you get a whiff of real hickory smoke with a hint of delicate spices. When these franks are boiled, broiled, barbecued or grilled, that blend of hickory and spice becomes irresistible!
Cut an Esskay Hot Dog in two and see the vast difference inside. The meat is lean and firm. There's never a trace of gristle or fillers. That's because Esskay uses only the finest pure beef, pure pork, and pure spices. If you served your family prime sirloin steak, the meat proteins would not be a bit more nutritious.
Always buy Esskay Hot Dogs... the franks that are made up to a standard—not down to a price.

HANDS THAT HELPED SAVE A LIFE

The operator answered the signal—did not hear the frightened mumbling of a child.

She and her supervisor listened patiently until they understood that the youngster had burned herself badly. Then, she hung up without giving her name or address.

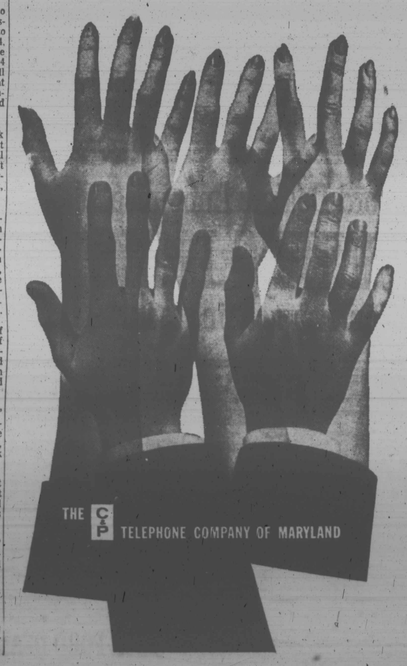

Holding the line open, the operator called the man on the Test Desk. With another man's help, he traced the number through the Dial Office. An ambulance was quickly sent to the address.

Meanwhile another operator stayed on the line, questioning the child when she came back on. Once she had secured a neighbor's name, the operator called and asked her to go to the child's aid.

Within minutes, help was by the side of the eleven-year-old girl.

That morning, she had missed her school bus and returned to her empty home. Her clothes became ablaze when she backed into the fire she had started in the fireplace.
