(Please send news for this column to me at 2411 Montebello Terr. 14)

Our Good Neighbor of the Week is glamorous Mrs. Carol Jean Canaday who resides with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Brock of 1500 N. Collington Ave.

Mrs. Canady is the mother of a daughter, Sonia, age 4 months and both are natives of Baltimore.

Our Good Neighbor attended School 108 and School 161 where she majored in the academic course. She is a member of Christian Memorial Church.

When the Mothers' March for the Polio Drive is held each year, our Mrs. Canaday is one of its most active bell ringers.

Our Neighbor is director of one of Baltimore's newest singing groups, "The Stars Of Hope."

Our Neighbor's favorite colors are red and black. She likes to sing the hymn "Mary Don't You Weep" and recite the verse 'Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled.'

LAST MONDAY evening before a large and appreciative audience the Gospel Chorus of Mt. Calvary Star Baptist Church, located at Milton Ave. and Lanvale St., celebrated their third anniversary.

Presiding at the affair was genial Mrs. Beatrice Whittington.

Some of East Baltimore's well-known choruses sang.

Officers and members of the Mt. Calvary Star Baptist Gospel Chorus are:

Mrs. Clarice Pitts, president; James Wilson, vice president; Mrs. Jean Cohen, secretary; Mrs. Barbara Henry, recording secretary; William Henry, treasurer, and Mrs. Beatrice Whittington, chaplain. The Rev. N. H. Toyer is the pastor.

Gospel Choruses participating were from Mt. Pleasant Baptist, Mt. Olivet Free Will Baptist, Southern Baptist, and Mt. Olivet Baptist, Towson.

Also on the program were the Singing Brothers of Abyssinian Baptist Church and solos were sung by Mrs. Pearlie Mae Freeman of the House of Prayer and William Henderson.

ONE OF OUR newest livewire clubs on the Eastside is the Aquadettes.

Members of the club are all doing things and going places in our community and are known for their many civic activities.

Members include Mrs. Mamie Hoggard, president; Mrs. Lena Felder, vice president; Mrs. Lucy Parker, treasurer; Mrs. Hazel Benford, recording secretary; Mrs. Ollie Dendy, financial secretary; Mrs. Madeline Lasky and Mrs. Marie Smallwood, business managers.

Tell you about their first variety dinner party next week.

PUTTING THE finishing touches on their coming Luncheon are members of the Women's Cooperative Civic League East Baltimore branch.

The affair will be held at 12:30 Saturday (tomorrow) at Christ Methodist Church, located at Chase and Washington Sts.

Highlight of the afternoon will be an address by Joseph Smith of the Urban Renewal Harlem Development. Mrs. Celia Crawford is president. Mrs. Bertsal Ross, chairman, and Mrs. Josephine Maxwell is co-chairman.

INTERESTING project being developed by one of our Eastside grand ladies is the organizing of the Cecilettes Youth Club.

The purpose of the group is to bring together the youth of the Cecil Avenue Area to help with the upkeep and constructive living in this section.

Organizer is lovely Mrs. Susie Rogers, who truly is a dedicated civic and community worker and leader.

Now hear this neighbors in the Cecil Ave area. . . .Mrs. Rogers is asking for your help in this project and would like you to call her at TU-9-8446 if you are interested.

Members of the Cecilettes include: Mrs. Susie Rogers, president; Patricia Allen, Caroline Allen, Patricia Boyd, Juanita Mitchell, Aurelia Stanley, Linda Smith, Linda Mitchell, Beverly Palmer, Vivian Palmer and Denise Moore.

Also, Brenda Evans, Claudia Alexander, Lucille Mitchell, Venes Presbury, Juanita Bragg, Patricia Alexander, Joan Mitchell and Marsha Rogers. . . Kepp an eye on these youngsters, Neighbors.

THE SPACIOUS split level ranch home of Mrs. Evelyn Keene of Winters Ave in Catonsville was the setting for the monthly meeting of the Hannah B. Moore WSG of Christ Methodist Church the past Sunday evening.

After the business meeting, Evelyn, the gracious hostess that she is, served the members a delicious ?

Members attending included Mesdames Henrietta Holliman, president; Gladys, Baird, Josephine Maxwell, Dorothy Mills, Yvonne Payne, Blanche Davis, Eleanore Jones, Frances Chatman, George Rollins, Mesdames Mabel Carver, Clara Small and Louise Green.

Neighbors, remember to send messages of cheer to our sick and shutins: Mrs. Mamie McNeil, 300 Raleigh Rd.; Mrs. Annie Harris Bos, 26 Telegraph Rd., Severn Md.; Mrs. Ardessia Saunders, 2511 Reistertown Rd.

Elect officers at Carver High

Carver Vocational and Technical High School pupils last week elected Student Council officers for the next school year.

Theodore Anderson, was elected president over Herbert Sledge by 127 votes. Mr. Anderson won by 462 votes.

Miss Estelle Holt, who won with 394 to the 343 votes of her opponent John Young, was elected vice-president.

The office of secretary was won by Miss Joyce McNair, who was elected by 389 votes to the 323 votes of Miss Joan Peoples.

Zack Fleming winning over his opponent, Sandra Hawthorne, by 178 votes, was elected treasurer of the council. Miss Hawthorne had 283 votes to Mr. Fleming's 451 votes.

The student body also voted for the organizing of a Student Court, which is to go into effect next semester.

Mrs. Parham

Fellowship House to honor artist

A dedication ceremony will highlight the annual dinner meeting of Baltimore Fellowship, Inc., Wednesday, 6:30 p.m.

The information center of the human relations institute will be dedicated to Mrs. Anne Beadenkopf, noted artist whose artistic contributions to the human righs struggle have been hailed throughout the nation.

Guest speaker at the dinner during which officers for the 1963-'64 term will be installed, will be Edgar Ewing, assistant director of neighborhood rehabilitation for the Baltimore Urban Renewal and Housing Agency.

MRS. BEADENKOPF, who created the membership slogan for the NAACP, has painted portraits of outstanding civil rights leaders, including Federal Judge Thurgood Marshall.

Freedom fighting organizations have raised many much-needed dollars during unveiling and presenting the portraits.

Miss Ruth Fegley, executive director of Fellowship House, said plans for the upcoming fund - raising campaign will be discussed at the meeting.

Fellowship House is located at 3200 N. Hilton St. To make reservations, call LI. 2-2995.

Couple fined $25 in assaults

A man charged his girl friend, Wednesday morning with hitting him with a hammer. She, in turn, charged him with threatening her with a can opener. Both yere fined $25.

Louis Thomas, 39, 1700 block McKean Ave., told Judge I. Sewell Lamdin, in Western Municipal Court, that during an argument his girl friend, Inez Bradley, 30, same address, struck in the head with the hammer.

Miss Bradley said she was defending herself.

Beverage men ound plea for Provident

Frank Reddish and Floyd Bartz, national and local presidents of the National Negro License Beverage Association, respectively, issured a last - minute plea Thursday for unstinting support of the Provident Hospital Benefit concert.

The concert, set for the Civic Center at 5 p.m., Sunday, will star Tony Bennett, Dinah Washington and the popular big band of Quincy Jones.

Proceeds from the benefit will be donated to the Provident Hospital Redevelopment Fund, headed by George L. Russell Jr. and Samuel H. Hecht.

"WE OWE IT to ourselves, the community and Provident to do whatever is necessary to get this desperately needed institution," said Messrs. Reddish and Bartz, whose organization is sponsoring the concert.

"This is a wonderful opportunity for all citizens from all walks of life to help make a major step toward the goal of raising the $2 million that must be raised before the dream of a new Provident can be transformed into reality," they said.

The $2 in public subscriptions will go with funds donated by local, state and federal governments to build the $8 million hospital, to be located on Liberty Heights Ave. near Reisterstown Rd.

"Anything less than a capacity audience to witness one of the best concerts ever staged in this area would be disappointing," the beverage men stated, adding:

"Especially since it is held for such a worthy cause. We know we can depend on the good people of Baltimore not to let us down!"

STARS OF THE Sunday afternoon concert are among the top names in the entertainment world. Tony Bennett, without doubt, is the hottest male vocalist around having won every major award offered the outstanding male singer this year.

Dinah needs no introduction, having been a permanent fixture in the ranks of elete entertainers for many years.

The 19 - piece band of Quincy Jones has already won international recognition and is destined to take its place with other big aggregations that have become legends in band music group.

Messrs. Reddish and Bartz report that social clubs, beverage establishments, agencies and individuals are participating in the affair as a special project to aid the building of a new Provident.

NAACP lists 110 life memberships

The Baltimore Branch NAACP, through its executive secretary, the Rev. Jentry McDonald, reports a total of 110 paidup $500 Life Members in the local branch and 111 partially paid members.

The announcement was made on the eve of the annual NAACP Maryland state convention to be held at Sharp St. Church Saturday.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS of day - long festivities include a Country Store, a genuine relic from the past on display through the courtesy of the Peale Museum.

Also pony rides, ferris wheel, competitive athletic games, goodies and refreshments.

Theodore Meyerhoff, chairman of the event, said a movie, "Toby Tyler," will be shown and door prizes will be given to children holding lucky ticket stubs.

In case of inclement weather, the affair will be moved inside, necessitating the elimination of acts that can not be accommodated inside.

Walbrook-Trinity women ready for annual service

Under the auspices of the United Presbyterian Women's organization, Walbrook-Trinity Presbyterian Church, Walbrook and Ellamont Sts., will observe its fourth annual Women's Day Service, Sunday at 11 a.m.

The theme: "United Presbyterian Women Face the Challenges of Change in the Home, in the Community, and in the Church" will be developed by a symposium composed of Elder Fannie Howard, Mrs. Bernice White and Mrs. Clara Thomas, all members of the church.

There will be special music by the choir and a solo by Mrs. Marie Fraser.

THIS YEAR the women of the Church decided that to expand their activities to a weekend.

A special feature will be a fellowship luncheon on Saturday, May 25, at 1 p.m., at which time the program will focus on the mission study, "The Rim of East Asia."

The young women in the church will give short discussions on four countries, Korea by Miss Carolyn Beasely, a freshman at Morgan State College; Hong Kong, by Miss Celeste Barnes; Taiwan, Miss Beverly Marshall, and Okinawa, Miss Shelia Stagg.

* * *

AN INTRODUCTION to the study will be given by Miss Victoria Mason.

Three other young women, Miss Margaret Koger, Miss Dorothy Koger, and Miss Helen Bishop, will lead in community singing.

The luncheon chairmen are Mrs. Jean Ward and Mrs. Joan Parker.

The program chairmen are Mrs. Mable Perkins and Mrs. Catherine Richardson

The third activity of the weekend is the coffee hour following the Sunday morning service, under the joint chairmanship of Mrs. Lillie Branch and Mrs. Helen Gattis.

Past president of the United Presbyterian Women's Organization and the past chairman of Women's Day will receive citations.

These ladies include Mrs. Mildred A. Williams, Mrs. Elise Hunt and Mrs. Jewel Mosely, all past presidents; and Mrs. Ohrea Mitchell, past Women's Day chairman.

The Rev. Thomas P. Fraser III, is the minister.

Mrs. Mildred A. Williams is president of the United Presbyterian Women's Organization. Mrs. Isabel H. McConnell is Women's Day chairman. Miss Annabel L. Hawkins handles publicity.

Sherlock Grinage, Bourbon de Luxe sales representative, asks
"Know why Bourbon de Luxe is America's fastest growing Kentucky bourbon?"
Hint: it's not the modest price.
Oh, the price helps. But the fact is Bourbon de Luxe is selling fast because it's as mild and mellow as anyone would want a bourbon to be. If it's hard to believe a top-quality Kentucky bourbon costs so little, pretend you're spending more.

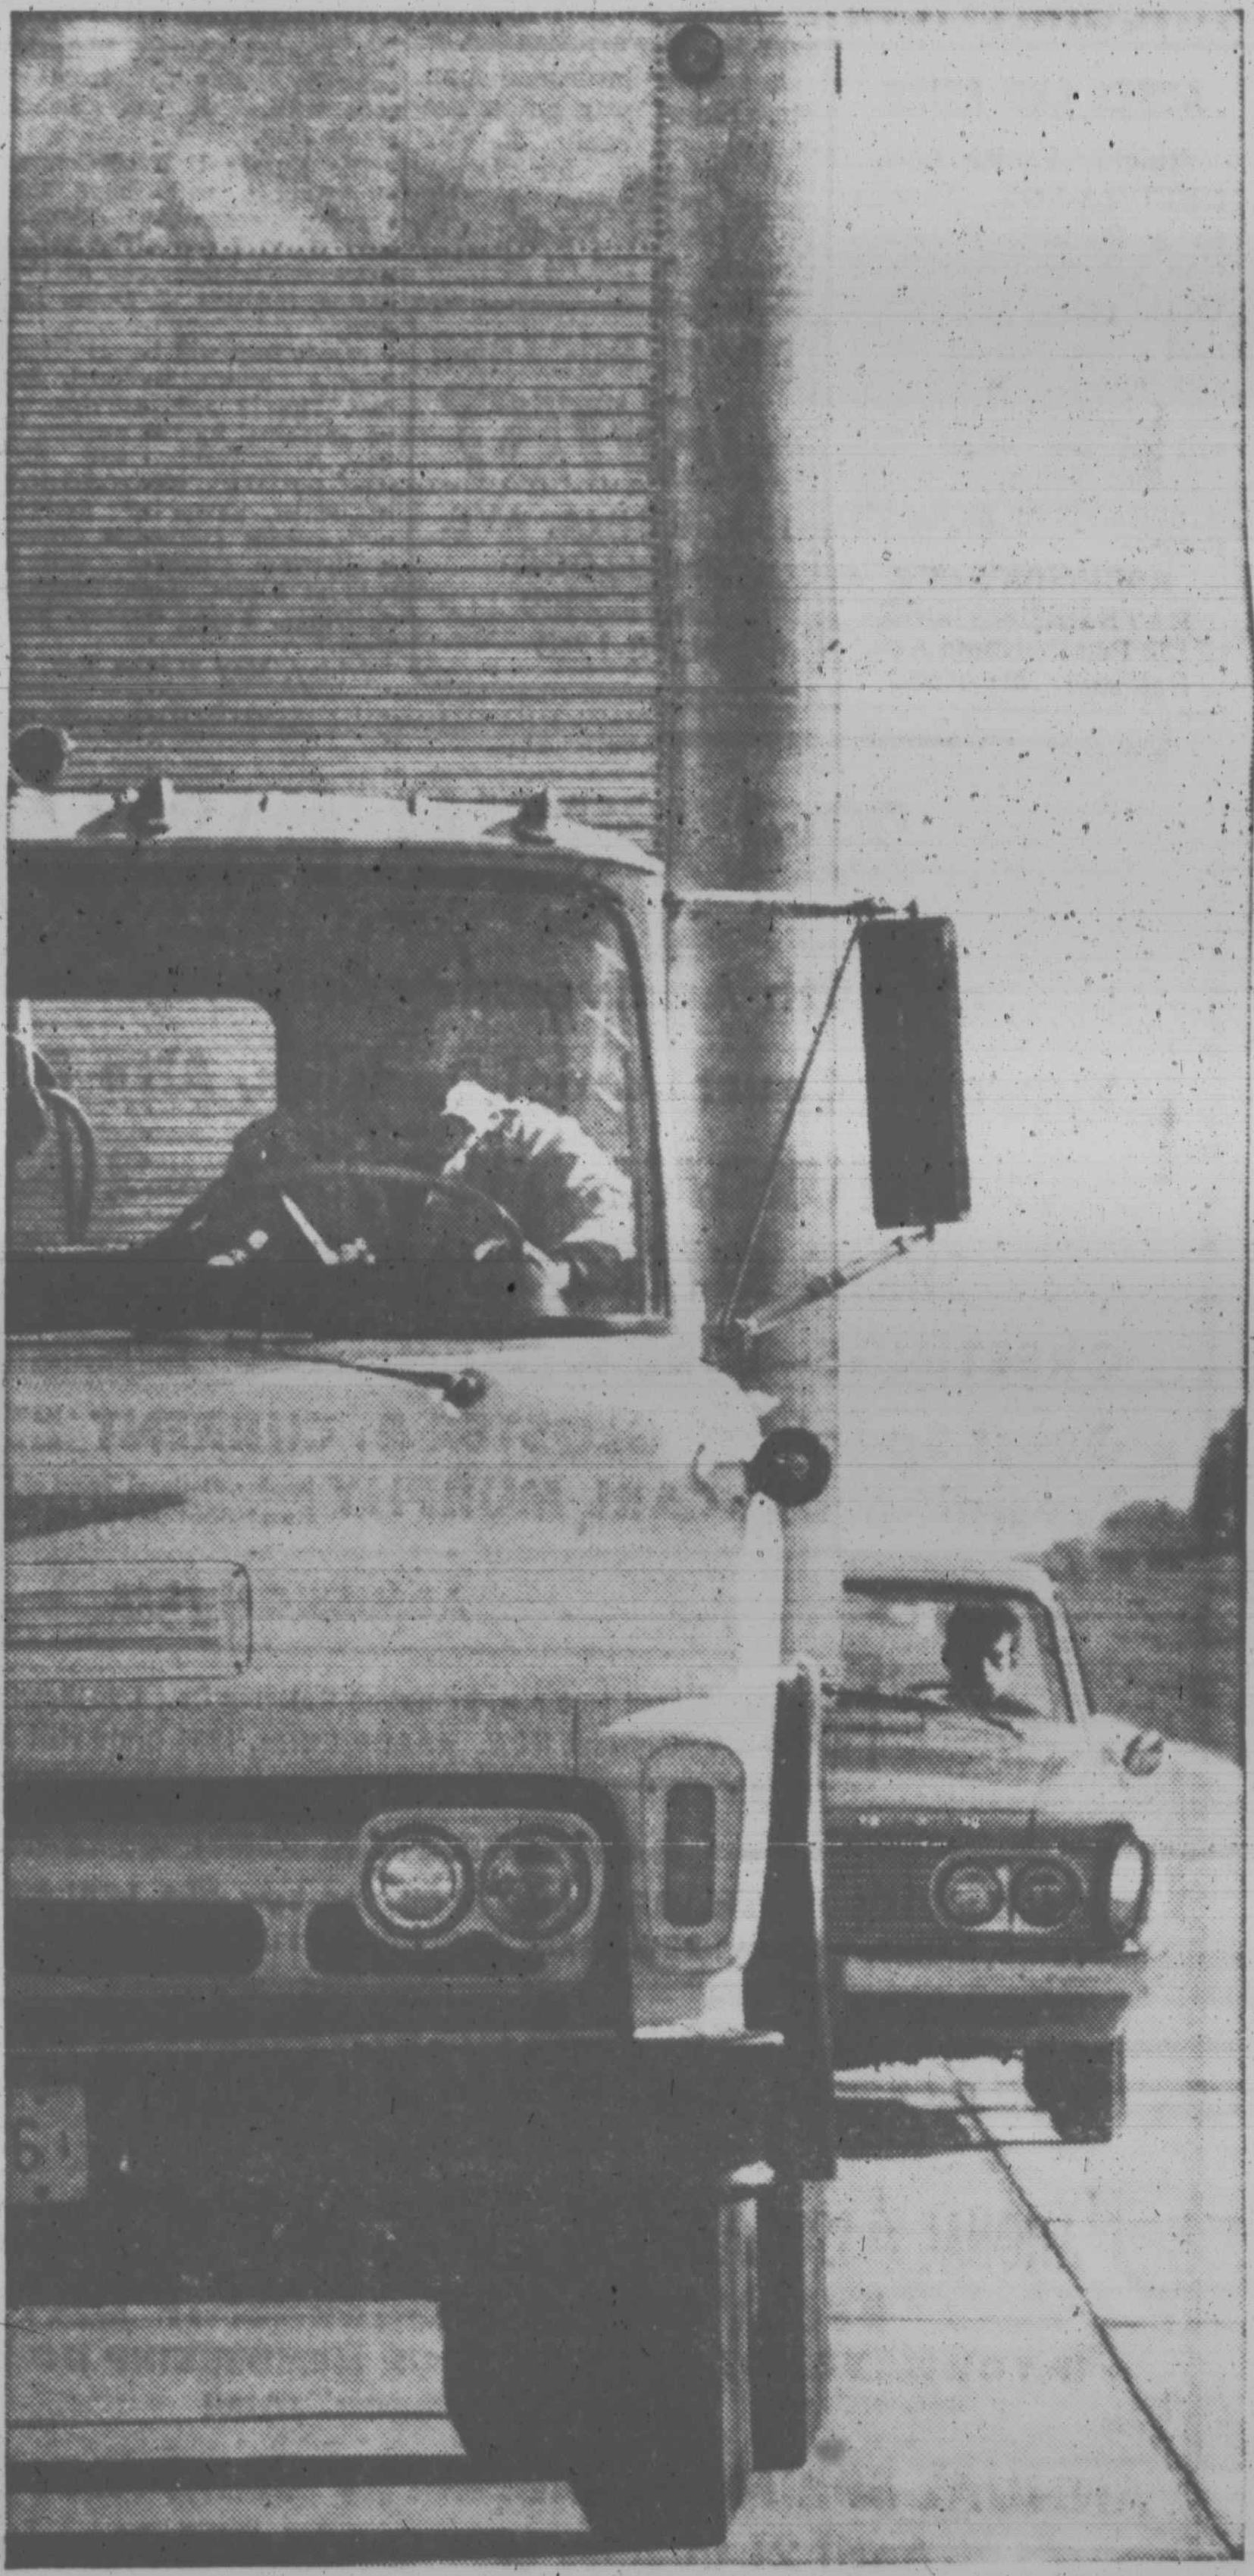
THE BOURBON DE LUXE DISTILLERY CO., LOUISVILLE, KY. • KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY, 86 PROOF



Only two lanes.
You've been itching to pass him—but you don't dare.
Because your car seems short on power lately.
Engine need work? Could be.
But try a tankful of Gulf No-Nox gasoline first. It could solve your problem.
Reason: No-Nox is Gulf's premium gasoline. It has the higher octane your engine may need to do its best. And it neutralizes deposits that can sap engine power.
So fill up with No-Nox at the sign of the Orange Disc.
NO-NOX gasoline helps keep your car out of trouble.
