appointments facing Mayor McKeldin shortly.

COLORED CITIZENS are expecting much fairer representation than in past years.

THEY ARE looking beyond membership on unsalaried boards — to participation on the more vital ones.

It will be interesting to note how Mayor McKeldin reacts.

After all — the colored vote is responsible for him being in office.

-New Mayor

Methodist Church, benediction; and the Rev. J. Timothy Boddie, pastor, Shiloh Baptist Church, who gave the consecration prayer at the City Hall reception.

Thomas D'Alesandro 3rd, City Council president, and other councilmen were sworn in at 2 p.m. yesterday (Thursday.)

In assuming the reins of city government, Mr. McKeldin returned to the point where his political career began in 1943. He served two terms of governor while ompleting the first cycle of his career.

Mrs. G. Mitchell

Mrs. Gladys Mitchell, 65, 1501 Druid Hill Ave., was buried in the Baltimore National Cemetery following funeral services at the Herbert Nutter Funeral Home.

A native of Baltimore, Mrs. Mitchell, died at Johns Hopkins Hospital, after a month's illness. She had been ailing for the past two years.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Williams, and Mrs. Eleanor Randolph.

Wife of the late John B. Mitchell, Mrs. Mitchell is also survived by a son, Carlos Mitchell Sr., a daughter Mrs. Desdemonia Brooks, grandson, Carlos, Jr., and a granddaughter, Carlo Mitchell.

Edward Armes

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Edward Armes, 57, 210 N. Mount St., at the Williams Funeral Home. He is buried in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Mr. Armes, a Baltimorean, died Sunday after a long illness. He had been ailing for the last five years.
