CLEAN BLOCK LADY

"Total war has been declared," said thenew Clean Block director, Mrs. Jeanette Leath, the new Clean Block Lady.

"A mighty crew of AFRO clean blockers is being organized and every available resource is being geared for the campaign against the number one enemy; the litter bug," she said.

Mrs. Leath assumes the post of the late Mrs. M. Francis MacKay, director of the campaign for 10 years, who died in December.

HEADQUARTERS FOR the 14-week drive is located on the second floor of the AFRO-AMERICAN building, 628 N. Eutaw St.

Mrs. Leath has announced that literature and materials are now available for block captains who wish to organize for the campaign.

Last year, nearly 15,000 Clean Blockers representing approximately 400 blocks participated in the drive.

This year marks the 29th annual AFRO Clean Block campaign.
