BOOKER T. WASHINGTON JUNIOR HIGH PUPILS WHO VISITED WASHINGTON

Baltimore junior high class makes Washington study trip

The eighth grade geography class from Baltimore's Booker T. Washington Junior High School recently made a study trip to Washington and Arlington, Va.

Accompanying 37 pupils were their teacher, Mrs. Bernice W. Newsome, Mrs. Joyce A. McNeill, student teacher from Morgan State College, and Paul Newsome.

A high point of the tour was a visit to the State Department building where the Baltimore pupils, along with 60 others from Lutherville, Md., were addressed by Daniel Garcia.

The deputy advisor on Latin America posed for pictures with the group and gave a 40-minute talk on many of his personal experiences in Latin America, leaving ample time for a question and answer period.

THE PUPILS also took pictures of the capitol, Library of Congress, the Shakespearean Library and the Department of Justice Building, in addition to visiting in the vicinity of the House and Senate office buildings.

Other places of interest visited were the Lincoln Memorial, the National Gallery of Art, the Statute of Iwo Jima and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

AS WE before returning to Baltimore, time was allowed for the students to visit a souvenir store.

STUDENTS MAKING the trip were:

Ann Ramsey, Ray Lofton, Albert Johnson, Carroll Kelly, Patricia Forbes, Erie White, Janice Hawkins, Dwight Bynum, Charles Hicks, Roosevelt Taylor Jr., Harold Nixon, Kenton Camper and Michele Mackay. Class 8-1.

Rayn.ond Roman, Laverne Waters, Betty Bradby, Barbara Gaylor and Frederick Jones. Class 8-3 02.

Phillip Wells, Leland C. class 8—103.

Walker, Earlene Barksdale, Theodore Taylor, Lorenzo Brown, Benola Thornton, Claudette Robinson, Audrey Shaw, Georgia Montgomery, Roberta Bowers, Patricia Johnson, Essie Bryant, Madeline Johnson and Rudene Carter. Class 8-2.

Paulette Moore and Dorothy Ragsdale. Class 8-2 08.

and Joyce Howell, Lorna Fuller and Mary Davidson.

Preaches then dies

According to a Eastern District police an unidentified white man, about 60, went into the Church of Love, in the 1700 block Harford Ave., while the minister knelt praying, off Wednesday, began to preach and then dropped dead.

Police said, the pastor of the church, the Rev. Erving Wilson, 613 E. Lanvale St., told them that the man went straight to the pulpit and started preaching.

The minister said that what he was saying made sense so he sat in one of the seats and listened.

The man continued preaching for about 10 minutes then collapsed to the floor unconscious.

Jury frees man arrested for numbers

RICHMOND

After his second jury trial Monday, Fred Hite Johnson, 40, of the 900 block St. John Street was cleared of charges of promoting numbers gambling. His first trial last April 23 ended in a hung jury.

Johnson was arrested on the rainy afternoon of Jan. 18 while conversing on Fourth St. near Clay with William (Dink) Witherspoon, 40, of the 200 block E. Clay St.

ARRESTING officers said that they saw Witherspoon in the process of handing a slip of paper to Johnson. And that they found behind Johnson's left foot a paper bag containing 634 numbers bets totalling $80.96.

On motion of defense attorney Thomas L. Hicks, the prosecuting witnesses were excluded from the courtroom. There was some conflict in testimony as to whether the ground under the paper bag was wet.

WITHERSPOON, who has been convicted in two numbers cases testified against Johnson. He said that for a month previous to their arrest, he had received $3 a week to hand packages of numbers plays to Johnson at various places.

But he said that he had not given Johnson the bag submitted as evidence in this particular case. Police found no numbers paraphernalia on Johnson's person at this time, and he steadfastly denied the charges.

HE TESTIFIED that he was in working clothes at the time, hoping to pick up a job as a handyman. He said that Witherspoon had stopped him on the street only to ask for a cigarette.

His attorney argued that inasmuch as no numbers evidence was actually found in Johnson's possession, he should not be convicted on suspicious circumstances.

Rites Saturday for Solomon Harrell, 32

Funeral services for Solomon R. Harrell Jr., 32, of Latham, Md., will be held tomorrow (Saturday) at the Arlington Phillips Funeral Home.

Employed by the Westinghouse for 10 years he was killed Sunday after his car went into a construction ditch, swerved back onto the road and over-turned.

The accident occurred near Sambilz, Md., on Rt. 3.

According to the State Police he was killed instantly. His wife, Mrs. Edith Harrell, and three children were saved when passer-bys pulled them from the wreckage.

HE HAS BEEN described by friends and relatives as a well-liked and an efficient worker.

His immediate supervisor told the AFRO Wednesday that he knew it would take a long time before he could find a replacement for Mr. Harrell, who was employed as a wireman.

"I don't know what I can say about Sol," said the supervisor, Carson Kenlall. "But if you put all the good things you could think of saying about a person in one story, you would perhaps describe him well."

Continuing he stated, "I could give you hundreds of names of people who knew him, and I'm sure none would have a bad thing to say about Sol."

Mr. Harrell, an active member of the American Legion, enjoyed taking pictures as a amateur photographer.

AN ARMY VETERAN, Mr. Harrell served from 1944 to 1946, and was discharged as a Corporal.

He attended Baltimore City Junior College, and the New York Technical Institute, for study in radio electronics.

Mr. Harrell was also a member of the National Rifle Association and the King David Lodge.

Surviving are, in addition to his wife, three children, Patricia, 11; Sonya, 4, and Gloria, 15. He is also survived by his parents, Mrs. Roxy Wilcox, and Solomon R. Harrell Sr., and a sister Mrs. Mary Catlin.

He will be buried in the Baltimore National Cemetery.

Mrs. Nicholas

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Bessie J. Nicholas, 72, 717 N. Mount St., recently, at Macedonia Baptist Church.

Mrs. Nicholas died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary N. Young. Burial was in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Mrs. Nicholas was born in Charlottesville, Va., the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson.

At Macedonia Church, she was a member of the Missionary Society, Flower Circle, Benevolent Committee and the Filing Committee.

She is survived by her husband, John H. Nicholas, who is a trustee at Macedonia; a daughter, Mrs. Young; a sister, Rosa B. Ford and a brother, Edward Jackson.

Mrs. Fauntleroy

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Geneva Fauntleroy, 3407 Emerson Ave., who died Saturday after a three months illness.

Mrs. Fauntleroy, 56, survived by a daughter, Mrs. Hilda Wyatt, two brothers, Robert and Jennifer Fauntleroy, died at her home. She was buried from the Kelson Funeral Home and is buried in Auburn Cemetery.

She is also survived by several grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Carrie Brown

Mrs. Carrie Brown, 85, wife of the late George Brown, was buried Wednesday following funeral services at the Zion Tabernacle, where she was well-known as one of the "Mother's of the Church."

Elder Leroy Dyson officiated and Mrs. Brown was buried in the Arbutus Memorial Park.

Ailing for several months, Mrs. Brown died Saturday at her home, 930 W. Franklin St.

Born in Fountain, Md., in 1878, Mrs. Brown moved to Baltimore 48 years ago. She had been an active member of the Eastern Star Masonic Order and was said to have had a "... deep love for children."

AT THE TIME of Mrs. Brown's death in March, 1962 the couple had been married for nearly 55 years.

She had been a house wife for most of her life and reared nine children, seven daughters and a son.

They are: Mrs. Rosie E. Smith, Mrs. Georgia Williams, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mrs. Martina Scott, Mrs. Lillie Sutton, Mrs. Elsie Williams, Mrs. Marie Scott and Leo Brown.

Mrs. Brown is also survived by a number of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great - great - grandchildren.
