THE FOR-WIN-ASH Garden Club members made it possible for the lovely table arrangements to aid beauty to the dinner party held at the Hilton Belvedere by the Neighborhood.

Small arrangements of mums and greens decorated the small tables. In some instances roses were placed on the small banquet tables.

A large center arrangement was skillfully placed with stock, gladiolas and roses.

Floating roses made a beautiful decor for the large speakers' banquet tabe.

Members loaned bowls and flower containers to help make this affair one of enchantment and beauty.

Helping do this were Naomi Camper, Marion Banfield, Verna Gosnell, Almay Hendrick, Madeline Harding.

Lending a hand to Fellowship Dinner meeting were Inez Kent, Ada Veney, Madeline Harding.

Gathering what have you from their yards and other club members made Fellowship House a flower garden for this occasion.

THE BALTIMORE chapter of Tots and Teens held its fifth annual One-Day Conference in the Walbrook Branch Library.

Using as a theme "Strengthening Internal Structure," the group closed the meeting to outsiders and sought to redefine and re-evaluate the purposed and program of the organization.

This was accomplished by having the members meet in dusciussion groups during the first half of the meeting after the opening by Strelsa J. Gorham and an opening address by Ruth L. Marshall, president. Mrs. Marshall stressed the fact that the ideal member of the mothers' groups takes part in all layers of group structure.

In one group Edna Russell defined procedures for group leaders. Discussances were Vera R. Lambson and Thea Barry. In a second group "Orientation of Members in Responfibility to the Organization," Agnes Underwood was leader and Louise Turks and Lucille Williams were discussants.

The third group explored the topic "Financial Aspects." Pauline Brooks was leader and Fannie Lawson and Doris Smith, discussants.

After reports of the afternoon group chairmen, the group had luncheon at the Garrison and returned to the Library for a summary of the morning discussion groups and a question and answer period.

THE FOR-WIN-ASH Garden Club met with Rosalie McGuire and Carrie Johnson, sister team of the club, for a meeting at their beautiful Lynchester Road home, last week.

This was a business meeting at which members discussed reports from the recent garden show and offered suggestions for making the next show even more beautiful than this year's project.

Special tribute went to Naomi Camper, president, for the excellent job she has done; and to Wester and Almay Kendricks for the splendid staging of the show. And then there was Myrtle Lee who came in for special thanks. When members arrived at the Coppin Gym where the show was held, as early as 6:30 a.m. Mrs. Lee had set up coffee for them.

As usual, members always enjoy the tastiest food and the most genial hospitality when Rosalie and Carrie entertain. This was evident that evening.

At the meeting were Ada Veney, Nellie Buchanon, Ruth Foster, Jimmy LaForest, Madeline Harding, Naomi Camper, Alamay Kendrick, Mae Campbell, Agnes Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Frisby and Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Hunt.

New Discovery Now Makes It Possible To Shrink And Heal Hemorrhoids Without Surgery

Stops Itch—Relieves Pain In Minutes

New York, N. Y. (Special): A world-famous institute has discovered a new substance which has the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids without surgery. The sufferer first notices almost unbelievable relief in minutes from itching, burning and pain. Then this substance speeds up healing of the injured tissues all while it quickly reduces painful swelling.

Tests conducted under a doctor's observations proved this so—even in cases of 10 to 20 years' standing. The secret is the new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — now offered in both ointment or suppository form called Preparation H®.

In addition to actually shrinking piles—Preparation H lubricates and makes bowel movements less painful. It helps to prevent infection (a principal cause of hemorrhoids).

Only Preparation H contains this magic new substance which quickly helps heal injured cells back to normal and stimulates regrowth of healthy tissue again. Just ask for Preparation H Ointment or Preparation H Suppositories (easier to use away from home). Available at all drug counters.

ANNAPOLIS SORORS—This charming group of women played important roles at the tri-chapter Founders' Day Luncheon of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, which was held at Carvel Hall in Annapolis recently. All are members of the local chapter, Alpha Mu. Seated, left to right are: Mrs. Rachel Brown, program, and Mrs. Ruby Hamlette, basileus. Standing, same order: Mrs. Electa Holland, co-chairman of the planning committee for the luncheon; Mrs. Thelma Sparks, who introduced the guest speaker, and Mrs. Gertrude Corbett, chairman for the luncheon.

Pi Beta Sigma sorors entertain at dance

Pi Beta Sigma sorors reached the Nth in hospitality, when they entertained at their annual spring dance, Friday evening.

They kept a lavishly filled buffet available throughout the dance hours, as well as a central bar open . . . so that guests plied between the two, the dance floor and convenient tables throughout the evening.

* * *

THE HOSTESSES were Sorors Edna D. Johnson, Freddie Heath, Marie Berry, Frances P. Johnson, Mary S. Johnson, Joyce Blanchard, Loretta Stokes, Geraldine Griner, Bernice Hooker, Charlotte McNeil, Joan Stevenson, Lillian Wilson, Sarah Bundy, Louise Lowery, Eugenia Monore and Edna D. Johnson.

And a charming group they were.

Mrs. Johnson, who was celebrating a birthday that day, has a special guest, Ellis Larkins, NYC, famed pianist. She was pretty in red flower chiffon.

* * *

JOAN STEVENSON was also wearing a print, in the pinks and red, but made in a floor-length sheath. And Jean Puryear wore royal blue chiffon to be especially attractive in. Alice Ford chose deep, deep red chiffon, and Charlotte McNeill's chic black sheath was cut low at the back and the entire neckline ringed in tiny white daisies. Delores Kerr's long form-fitting flowered sheath was slit at back. And for that evening. Melinee Yerrell was sheathed in white brocade to the floor, splashed with a huge pink cabbage rose at the front waistline.

STATELY LILLIAN HAWKINS selected a blue brocade, re-embroidered all over with minute pearls. Josie Cruise was in gold-brocade, and rivaling her daughter, Janet Smith, who wore a blue and white sheath. And Mary Johnson accessorized her black sheath with gold and white shoes, gold jewelry and gold gloves.

Then there was Freddie Heath, whose pink eyelet frock was a breath of spring; and Marie Berry, who chose white organdy for a refreshing note.

LORETTA STOKES wore a frock of green organza with flared skirt, and Geraldine Grinner, a pink sheath, one shoulder exposed and the other, adorned with a pink flower. Lillian Wilson was in gold taffeta, and Sarah Bundy pretty in pink net.

LOUISE LOWERY chose rose chiffon and Eugenia Monroe, white faille made with an intriguing surplice skirt.

Sherman Lewis provided the music for the dancers, who included:

Messrs. and Mesdames Andrew Smith, Randolph C. Johnson Sr., Robert Smith, Robert Smith, Jr. Irvin Dett, William Addison.

Miss Eleanor Springs became the bride of Willie Lee Maples in the Freestone Baptist Church, here, Sunday.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Springs of Stonier Road. Mr. Maples is the son of Mrs. Beulah Dawson.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length gown of organza and lace. Her was of illusion and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Miss Joyce Bunn, maid of honor, wore a print and carried a bouquet of orchids. Willie Lindsay was best man.

THE MOTHER of the bride wore a brown and white organdy dress with a corsage of summer flowers. Mrs. Dawson chose a dress of blue brocade, and also wore a corsage of summer flowers.

An informal reception was held in the social hall of the church following the ceremony.
