Big Sweep time at School 143

The Big Sweep had a very special meaning to the pupils and faculty of School No. 143 as pupils were encouraged to write stories, songs, slogans, poems, and make posters about keeping the school and neighborhoods clean.

Awards and badges were presented to the pupils who made the best showing in each of these areas.

The selections as made by the judges, Miss Betty Getz, elementary specialist, Miss Gwendolyn Nichols, music specialist, Mrs. Edythe and Mrs. Lillian Reid, specialist were as follows: (1) best song, James Evans, (2) best story, Willie Young (3) best poems, Geraldine Lowery, (4) best slogan, Margaret Small (5) best posters, Victor Jones and Sarah Perry.

The entire student body assembled on the playground at Hoffman and Caroline Sts. to hear the announcement of the winners. Denise Jones was mistress of ceremonies at this assembly. Vanessa Jackson gave an introduction as to why we were assembled.

Highlight of the program was a dramatization of an original skit, "War on Dirt", by Mrs. Vivian Taylors third grade class. Participants in the skit were Andrew Smith, Victor Jones, Gregory Johnson, Robert Killett, Brenlin Hicks, Emma Harris and Jacqueline Wise.

The ushers wore blue and white shoulder bands made by Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Bowser.

The committee on "Keep Maryland Beautiful" contributed litter bags, posters and pennants to the school.

Many parents came to see the awarding of the badges and certificates to the winners, Miss Louise Sharps and Mrs. Blanche Strong made the awards.

The committee who worked in this campaign included Mrs. Bernice Jordan, Miss Louise Sharps, Mrs. Edythe Smith, Mrs. Blanche Strong, Mrs. Gloria Carter and Mrs. Amie Bowser, who acted as chairman.

Principal is Mrs. Carrie P. Carter.

Appeal asks apartments at 2609 Garrison Blvd.

An appeal requesting permission to construct a two and a half story apartment house for 14 families at 2609 Garrison Blvd. is to be aired Tuesday before the Board of appeals.

Also scheduled to be heard, beginning at 1 p.m. in Room 231 City Hall, are appeals asking:

A first floor restaurant at 1604 W. Lanvale St.; a first floor beauty shop at 428 W. Mosher St.; a private garage at 2626 Cecil Ave., and the erection of an awning over the front porch at 1803 Gwynns Falls Pkwy. where a permit is required because of the type of awning.

The board on the past Tuesday approved the location of a non-resident chiropodist's office at 1206 Druid Hill Ave.; the continued use of the first floor front at 1700 N. Payson St. as a barbershop, and a liquor store in the basement at 4001 Edmondson Ave.

An appeal to house five families at 2001 Madison Ave. was rejected.

Postponed until June 25 was a scheduled hearing on a request to locate a dental laboratory at 519 W. Lafayette Ave.

Theology degrees conferred on six

Dr. O. R. Reuben, president of Morris College, presented bachelor of theology degrees to six students Sunday who successfully completed the four-year course in the Baltimore Extension School of Religion.

The graduates were the Revs. Grover McCrea Sr., Matthew Marcus, George Jackson, Eddie Jacob Taylor, Wingfield Showell, and Lester Hamrick. The Rev. Mr. Hamrick completed the course last years.

Exercises were held at the Little Ark Baptist Church, the Rev. Mr. Marcus, pastor.

Dr. Beuben delivered the commencement address from the subject, "The spirit of the Lord is Upon Me." He was introduced by the director of the extension school, Dr. W. D. Leighton.

MUSIC WAS provided by the choir of the Little Ark Church and the Elizabeth Baptist Church.

The Rev. O. St. Clair Franklin presented the candidates for confirmation of degrees. Leon White was master of ceremonies.

The Baltimore Extension of the South Carolina Institution is accredited by the South Carolina State Board of Education and the Southern Association of Secondary School and Colleges. The school offers a standard curriculum for ministers and religious workers.

Without Nagging Backache

Now! You can get the fast relief you need from nagging backache, headache and muscular aches and pains that often cause restless nights and miserable tired-out feelings. When these discomforts come on with over-exertion or stress and strain —you want relief—want it fast! Another disturbance may be mild bladder irritation following wrong food and drink—often setting up a restless uncomfortable feeling.

Doan's Pills work fast in 3 separate ways: 1. by speedy pain-relieving action to ease torment of nagging backache, headaches, muscular aches and pains. 2. by soothing effect on bladder irritation. 3. by mild diuretic action tending to increase output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

Enjoy a good night's sleep and the same happy relief millions have for over 60 years. For convenience, ask for the large size. Get Doan's Pills today!

Pressman adds Morgan student to department

"When I appeared to speak before the assembly of Morgan State College, I was impressed by the congeniality and personality of Miss Florence Wilkinson, who was on the reception committee.

"After the election, Miss Wilkinson requested summer employment and I was happy to appoint her to the first vacancy in the Comptroller's Department."

Hyman A. Pressman, new city comptroller, issued this statement Tuesday, as he announced the appointment of a now Morgan senior to his departmental staff.

Mr. Pressman called her to his office for the appointment.

As a result, Miss Wilkinson, 19, is now at work as a clerical aide in the cost division, Bureau of Accounts and Disbursements.

• • •

FOUR OTHER persons of her race, two women and two men, are among the 43 employees of this division of the comptroller's office. They are account clerks.

The attractive Miss Wilkinson is an elementary major at Morgan and lives with her parents, Charles and Mrs. Florence Wilkinson, in the 300 block N. Franklintown Rd.

Said Miss Wilkinson:

"I feel I'm a part of this city and this (job) is a true way of demonstrating it.

"Yet, I'm flabbergasted by Mr. Pressman's offer."

Mr. Pressman took the occasion to remind that he was the first attorney of his race to launch a drive with the city Bar Association to admit colored lawyers.

Also, that he was the second such lawyer in the city to add a colored attorney to his office.

JUNE 9-16

Featuring the Drayton Gospel Singers with Rev. Ernest Jackson, revival services will be held at 8 p.m., at the House of God, Gate of Heaven Church, 1045 S. Sharpe St.

The annual recital by music students of Mrs. Adah K. Jenkins will take place Saturday, June 8 in the Pullen Auditorium, Coppin State Teachers College, 2500 W. North Ave.

Part I at 7:30 p.m. will feature the elementary students, with the more advanced pianists performing at 8:40. Clarice Coleman, coloratura soprano, will sing at both sections of the program.

Hansonia Caldwell, a former student with Mrs. Jenkins and a sophomore at Boston University, will be guest pianist.

The certificates and pins will be awarded winners in the annual Piano Guild Auditions. Miss Lauretta Glasper will be the recipient of the Social Music diploma.

Southern gives 250 diplomas
