News from Eastside

By CHARLOTTE DOWNIE

Phone - 426-2294

(Please send news for this column to me at 2411 Montebello Terr. - 14)

Our Good Neighbor of the week is fashionable Mrs. Clarice Pitts, the wife of William A. Pitts an employee of the Eskay Meat Packing Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Pitts reside at 2702 E. Federal Street and are the parents of three lovely children. They are Sandra, 12, William; 9 and Byron, 2.

Our Good Neighbor is a native of Raleigh, N.C., but has made Baltimore her home for several years.

Mrs. Pitts received her schooling at Berry O'Kelly High School in Raleigh and came to our town and entered Douglass Evening High.

In addition she attended Baltimore Junior College, Clay ver Vocational and Millinery School of Design. Our Neighbor also took courses at the Central YWCA. in arts and crafts, dress making and making slip covers.

Mrs. Pitts is fast becoming the Eastside's most popular milliner.

The family belongs to the Mt. Calvery Star Baptist Church, Milton Ave. and Lanvale St.

These ladies are doing a grand job and really making our Eastside proud. Officers and members include: Mrs. Bernice Turner, president; Mrs. Angela Lee, vice president; Mrs. Altoona Vaughan, recording secretary, Mrs. Helen Robinson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Viola Epps, program chairman and Mrs. Carrie Stokes, publicity chairman.

Members are: Mesdames Gloria Farrar, Ruth Monroe, Hilda Tomlinson, Gussella Moody, Betty Brinkley, Ruth Stokes, Johnnie Chisholm, Alice Senie Davis, Mamie Bandridge, Carlene Pulliam and Hattie Jones. Guests seen about were: Rev. and Mrs. N. H. Hoyer, Mesdames Pearl Ellis, B. Cromwell, Thelma Reynolds, Olenda Pinchback, Rosena Carter, Geraldine Patterson, Gladys Henderson, Mattie Wilder, Messers and Mesdame Arnold Jordon, Everett Anderson, Mesdames Clarice Pitts, Charlotte Downie, and Mattie Clay of Arlington Va. Misses Jennifer Cromwell, Rennie Ellis, Frances Underdue, Delores Jones, Denise Patterson, William Pitts; and Herbert Roman.

East Baltimore Day was observed at the Centennial Methodist Church, Monument near Sterling St.

This annual event is a homecoming for all old and new residents of East Baltimore to worship together and renew old acquaintances.

The Rev. B. P. Jordon past, who will be returning to the general conference in June, presided at the service. The music was given by a 125 voice choir under the able direction of William Wright (who also conducts the Town Choir).

Dr. Bernard Harris Jr. introduced the guest speaker, the Rev. Albert Holbrook a member of the National Association Council of Community Churches of America whose subject was "Who Is Satan".

Eastsiders are still talking about the wonderful 37th annual session of the United Baptist Missionary Coven. and Auxiliaries of Maryland held recently.

The convention was held at the Grace Memorial Church, the Rev. Joseph Brown, pastor.

Highlight was when that grand lady and dedicated Christian, a church woman and civic leader, Dr. Bessie Borroer was honored over the entire she held as president of the Woman's Convention - Mrs. Irene Paige another tireless worker for Christian deeds.

Well done Dr. Darrow you can I admire very much for her graciousness and know how).

Officers of the Woman'r Convention who helped make the affair a success, were: Dr. Barrow - president, Mrs. Irene Paige, first vice president; Miss Helen V. Benton, second vice president; Mrs. Hannah Dawson, third vice president: Mrs. Mable Luckett, vice president at large; Mrs. Betty L. Johnson, recording secretary; Mrs. Beulah Barber, assistant recording secretary; Mrs. Mary E. Harrington; corresponding secretary; Mrs. L. Madison Williams, treasurer, Mrs. Ossie D. Keck, historian, Mrs. Hazel Williams, pianist and Mrs. Bettye I. Graves, director of Young People's Department.

Dr. W. H. Thompson is the president of the United Baptist Missionary Convention and Auxiliaries of Maryland and Dr. James, A. Everett is corresponding secretary.

Minister receives honorary degree

Rev. Irving R. Murray, minister of the First Unitarian Church, Charles and Franklin Sts., received the Doctor of Divinity degree by Meadville Theological School, affiliated with the University of Chicago. He was commencement speaker.

Philadelphia NAACP leader to talk on job site protest

An NAACP leader in the Philadelphia project to get colored persons hired on construction projects being handled by union labor will talk here saturday at 1 p.m. to a group of ministers at Douglas Memorial Community Church.

Phil Savage, NAACP regional secretary, a Baltimorean, will come here to give details on the Philadelphia operation, according to Clarence Logan, chairman of the Civic Interest Group.

Meantime, Mr. Logan's group and local leaders and others interested in fair hiring practices will meet on Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the labor hall at 305 Monument St. to try to work out some of the problems in employment here, especially in the trade unions and apprenticeship program.

Mr. Logan said the meeting would include Woodrow F. Strong, president of the Maryland AFL-CIO, and Charles T. Muntain, president of the Baltimore Building and Construction Trades Council.

ALSO, Miss Shirley Kyle, from the Equal Opportunity Commission staff; Melvin Roy, of the Employment Security Department; Isaiah Fletcher of the Baltimore Urban League and the Rev. Marion Bascom and Robert T. Newbold of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance.

Mr. Logan has said that unless discrimination is ended in employment here he and his organization will launch picketing and demonstration at various demonstration sites.

Maryland Congress PTA wins two scholarships

The Maryland Congress of Parent - Teacher Associations captured both of the 1963 Scholarships offered by the National Congress of Colored Parents and Teachers.

As was the $500 Lolita Morris Scholarship offered to a graduating senior through competitive examination; the other a Lay Leader Scholarship of $200 offered to an outstanding PTA Leader.

Fourteen states comprising the membership of the National Congress, were eligible to select a person to compete for the scholarship, based on specific criteria set up the national body.

CALVIN BURLEY of Wiley Bates High School, Annapolis, Md. won the $500 scholarship. The amount will be available him each year for four years, provided he maintains at least a "B" average during his college training.

MRS. CORA L. PINKNEY of Clinton, Md. won the Lay Leader Scholarship.

As pre - arranged, both winners will be presented at the NCCPT Annual Convention which will be held at Texas Southern University, Houston, Texas, June 15 through 18.

The annual scholarships provided by the Maryland Congress of Parent - Teacher Associations were won by Malcolm Frank, graduating Senior at Brooks High School, Prince Frederick, Md. and Calvin Burley of Bates High School, Annapolis.

FIVE MARYLAND County Councils entered two high school seniors, each, in a competitive examination to compete for the Maryland scholarship. Funds for the project come from donations from the County Councils in the State organization.

RECENTLY ELECTED officers of the Maryland Congress of Parent - Teacher Associations are:

PRESIDENT, Jeanetta Chase, Bowie; Vice President, Mrs. Leola Dorsey, Jessup; Executive Secretary, Everett G. Pettigrew, Annapolis; Secretary, I. Victoria Hall, College Park; Treasurer, Mrs. Lucella Warren, Chestertown.

MRS. ELIZA S. McDANIEL is retiring President of the Maryland Congress. Mrs. Thelma S. Morgan, Montgomery, Alabama, is President of the National Congress.

Mt. Winans News

By GERTRUDE M. PARKER

Congratulations to the graduates.

They are: Norman Bethea, Carver Vocational; Patricia Gasque, Edmondson High; Kenneth Hemsley, Dunbar High and Hazel Parks, Morgan State College.

The women of Bethany Baptist Church were successful in their drive for Woman's Day on last Sunday.

Money raised was $1,330.30.

Mrs. Dorothy Wiggins was the chairman. The Rev. Clinton D. Johnson is the pastor.

Girl Scouts of Troop 371 went on a trip to Rochester on last Saturday. The scouts held a cook-out and played games. Mrs. Earnestine King is the leader.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Mt. Winans Methodist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Parker, 2613 Huron St. on Thursday, June 13 at 8:30 p.m.

Methodists in 100th session next week

Morgan State College campus, next week, will be the scene of an historical event the Centennial Session of the Washington Annual Conference of the Methodist Church.

The conference has as its theme, "Emancipation —Aldersgate — Freedom and the Warm Heart," and will convene from June 12 through June 16.

Considered a family occasion, more than 600 ministers laymen, delegates and guests will be attending the conference from Washington, Western Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

The Rt. Rev. Edgar A. Love, resident Bishop of the Baltimore Area will preside over all sessions.

ACTIVITIES are scheduled to begin on June 12, at 2 p.m., with the impressive Holy Communion rites which are open to the public.

Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, Morgan College president, will welcome the session at 7:30 p.m. program.

Highlighting the conference opening will be an Emancipation Address by Dr. Roland McConnell, of the Morgan State College History Department.

On Friday, at 9:15 p.m.; dedication ceremonies will be conducted for the Susie Carr Love Chapel, named for the mother of Bishop Love, the first woman to graduate from Morgan College, and the David and Hattie Hargis Lounge.

At the final session of the conference which is scheduled for Sunday, 2:30 p.m., new ministers will be ordained and pastorial appointments will be read.

ALSO A highlight of the conference will be an Emancipation Exhibit, now in the Soper Library on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The exhibit will feature historical views of Morgan College, which was founded by this conference of the Methodist Church.

Last year the major concern of the conference was the question of integration in the conference itself, and the Methodist Church as a whole. However, the Rev. Daniel L. Rideout, administrative secretary of the Baltimore area, pointed out that since last year two white ministers have been added to the conference in addition to the Rev. Jon Philip Iseminger who was accepted last year.

These two ministers are, the Rev. David Andrews, assistant to Dr. Howard L. Cornish, director, Morgan Christian Center, and well-known integration leader; and the Rev. Emmanuel Gillin, teaching at a Methodist college in Florida.

The Washington Annual Conference was organized in October 1804, at Sharp Street Methodist Episcopal Church and was presided over by Bishop Levi Scott.

This conference since its beginning has grown to be one of the most respected conferences of the Methodist Church.

WHEN YOU FINISH READING YOUR AFRO PASS IT ALONG TO A FRIEND

—Secret FBI agent

through the door shortly afternoon Thursday, the charming beautician smiled:

"Relieved."

They are now looking forward to vacation when "we can get away from it all and just relax," Mr. Rogers declared.

FOLLOWING THE vacation, the civic leader, churchman, and undercover agent said he will end a life of mystery, suspicion, and intrigue and resume an active role in religious, politics, and labor.

"That has been one of the major problems I have been facing in the last 10 years. I have always participated in the life of the church, community, politics and labor.

"But while I was engaged in this mission, I had to neglect many of my duties. You see I didn't want to subject them to any unfair criticism by getting them involved in what I was doing.

"Nor was it easy to conceal the fact that I was an agent. I was lucky enough to manage, however."

"It was a tremendous task. I had to be so careful. At times this meant I had to shun both relatives and friends, but fortunately for me, my wife understood."

"I didn't let it get to that point of worrying," Mrs. Rogers interrupted, "because I never knew his next move.

"I felt that as long as I didn't know too much about it, I would have no reason to worry," she said softly.

Asked if he was aware of the danger involved in counter-spying, the father gently stroked his daughter's head and answered:

"Yes, I knew. But because of the importance of the job, I was willing to accept it."

MR. AND MRS. ROGERS are natives of Florida and he attended Florida A. and M. before they moved to Baltimore 14 years ago, he said.

Married 13 years, the agent and his wife also have a stepson, Nelson Rogers, a sailor, who is stationed in Norfolk, Va.

The disclosure of his secret life left Mr. Rogers' friends and acquaintances in shocked amazement:

"What?" asked Tucker R. Dearing, attorney, who worked with Mr. Rogers in the last political campaign, asked when told of the revelation.

"I knew he was a smart guy, but I didn't have any idea that he was an agent of the FBI"

"I've known him since he worked the election," said Miss Clare Hill, president of the United Democratic Voters League in East Baltimore. "He is a fine gentleman. I never even suspected that he was an undercover agent."

DeHaven Smith, attorney who ran on the same 3rd District ticket with Mr. Rogers, said he has known the steelworker for five years.

"I knew he has always been one who stayed 'out front,' but I didn't know this," he said, adding:

"I'm not surprised at anything, but this even got me," the lawyer smiled.

"HE HAS a nice personality. Everybody in the Neighborhood admires him," said Miss Francine Lewis, a Morgan College coed who lives across the street from the Rogers' home.

"He's involved in most everything in the community He likes to lead." Miss Lewis said.

Troy Bralley, president, Baltimore Chapter of the Negro American Labor Council, on which Mr. Rogers was an executive member, also registered amazement at the disclosure.

"He is my friend, but this is a shock to me. I never had the faintest idea."

In addition to his community and political activities, Mr. Rogers serve on the Layman League of the Zion Baptist Church, Lanvale and Caroline Sts., active in Steel Local 2609, the NALC, NAACP, and other civic and social organizations.

Mrs. Rogers, too, is a civic worker. She's precinct captain for the Provident Hospital Development director of the Cecilettes Youth Club, which keep youngsters occupied during the summer months;

Also member of the Maryland League of Women, Cecil Avenue Beautician Association, etcetian of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority, a women's charity group, and corresponding secretary of the Master's Beautician Association.

Until two years ago, Mrs. Rogers operated a beauty shop which she closed when "Marsha began school." she is also involved in the Heath Department's annual Tuberculosis Mobile X-ray project.

Despite these numerous and varied activities which brought him in contact with hundreds of people, no one had any suspicion that the multi-lifed Mr. Rogers was leading still another life — counterspy for the FBI.

BERMUDA BERMUDA
Everybody's going to BERMUDA so should you
...because Bermuda is so easy to reach. Just 90 minutes by jet . . . 36 hours by luxury liner . . . from New York to Bermuda where the people are so hospitable.
It's so inexpensive to go to. As low as $95 round trip by air or from $135 first class by ship.
It's so kind about hotel bills. Hotel and guest house accommodations as little as $42 weekly (room and breakfast).
And a Bermuda vacation is so easy to arrange . . . through The Bermuda Resort Association, representing ARCHLYN VILLA, CANNVILLE, IMPERIAL HOTEL, THE PLAZA, SUNSET LODGE, SWANSTON. See a travel agent. Call Wisconsin 7-5163. Or mail this coupon.
