—New Board policies

care should be exercised in the human relations aspect of 'transfers' and 'transportation.' We should be constantly aware of and give every possible consideration to the proportion of non-white students in a school prior to transferring or trasporting and students to or from that school.

"No move should be made that might contribute to either continuing or establishing a segregation pattern in any school.

"IT IS, therefore, the continuing responsibility of the Baltimore Board of School Commissioners to once again provide a 'modus operandi,' not only for the Baltimore Public Schools per se, but also for a further assurance that the city of Baltimore develops as a truly cosmopolitan area.

"The elimination of all school districting just accomplished by our Board of School Commissioners is a positive and major step in this direction.

The Board's statement of policy included these main points:

Effective October 31, 1963, all rules of the School Board for establishing and maintaining school districts shall be terminated.

The old rule has said in effect that where a building is overcrowded, specific district lines may be established as required by building capacity and neighborhood population. The rule provides further that no pupil who lives beyond such a line may then enter the districted school.

"All pupils enrolled in any school prior to the establishment of a district line about the school are permitted to remain there. However, any pupil who lives within a district and whose parents desire him to attend a more distant school may be admitted to a non-districted school if the reason for seeking a transfer is considered satisfactory.)

"Transfers because of changes of residence will be routinely authorized by principals provided the new residence is within a reasonable distance of the requested school or the nearest school in which the appropriate educational program is available.

"Transfers for educational or other reasons may be authorized by the appropriate assistant superintendent, or his designated representative, where the class size in an appropriate program or grade of a school is not in excess of 35 pupils or where an existing facility is not being utilized to its maximum capacity as computed according to established state standards.

"All transfer requests are to be made in writing and signed by the child's parent or legal guardian. A report on transfer requests is to be made annually at the close of the school year to the Board of School Commissioners by the Superintendent. Any parent or legal guardian may appeal decisions on transfer requests to the appropriate director, assistant superintendent, or Superintendent.

Statistical information shall be kept as required for reports to the State Department of Education. This information is to be released only in the Annual Reports of the Board of School Commissioners.

...teaffirm that in the assignment, promotion, and transfer of staff members, the present policy of respecting relatives' merit shall be scrupulously observed. It shall be the intent of the Board of School Commissioners to have each employee assigned to that position in which he is likely to render his best educational service to the school and to the community. The presence wherever possible of qualified persons of varied ethnic, cultural, religious, and educational backgrounds on the staff of a given school, bureau, or division is considered desirable.

teers acting on behalf of the bureau, are not permitted to promote, organize or accompany either groups or individuals to Learn-to-Swim classes or for recreational swimming at any of the out-door public pools or at the Chick Webb Pool."

In the second paragraph the bulletin explains that it will continue to pay teachers to conduct the swimming classes but again emphasizes that any child who goes must do so on his own initiative. It reads:

"The Learn-to-Swim classes will be held as announced. However, if children attend, it must be on their own initiative. Bureau swimming teachers will be assigned to the pools as usual and will teach classes as scheduled."

IRONICALLY, THE third paragraph advises recreation staffers it's okay for them to participate with their children in trips to swimming places outside Baltimore. It advises:

"This change in policy does not apply to occasional trips to integrated public beaches such as Fort Smallwood and Sandy Point."

The final paragraph is the one quoted above about safety and cooperation with the police department.

Chief Police Inspector George Murphy said his department was involved in the change to the extent it wanted to discourage "mass" marching from one area to another.

He said "the police department is going to uphold the law."

Dr. Frank Marino, president of the Park Board, said Thursday the bulletin was an administrative move and Harold Callowhill Sr., recreation bureau superintendent, should be contacted about it.

Mr. Callowhill declined to answer any questions concerning the bulletin, explaining that Dr. Marino had requested to comment on it and he "should follow his example."

Mr. Callowhill said the whole issue of Riverside would be taken up at the Park Board's Tuesday meeting.

Earlier this year in two separate memos recreation leaders were reminded that the swimming classes were taught by bureau teachers and urged to prepare children, make announcements and build classes.

They listed the classes as an important activity and told leaders to send children to them at the various parks.

One of them said a recreation leader could accompany groups of 20 or more provided at least one bureau of recreation leader remained on the playground.

MEANWHILE, THE Coordinating Council for Civic Unity has approved Mayor Theodore McKeldin of the fact that it has not been able to get any clear answers from either the Park Bureau of the police department on plans for Riverside Pool this summer.

Miss Ruth Fegley, executive director, told Mayor McKeldin there have been no satisfactory answers to questions on such matters as:

Use of the pool, personnel selection, programs to prepare area residents to accept use by all of the public facility, life guards, instructions to pool employees, and police protection at night to guard against gang fighting with the water and for inside coverage.

its legal aspects.

It was this final report that was the storm cloud which burst over the School Board yesterday.

The board had seen earlier reports but the Thursday report contained much information and recommendations that caught some board members completely off-guard.

The parents' report includes these main charges of segregated practices by the Department of Education with complete statistics and legal precedents to support said charges:

1. There is still extensive separation of the races in the Baltimore public schools, notwithstanding the passage of the eight years since the public schools were officially declared desegregated.

2. This seperation of races deprives colored pupils affected of equality of educational opportunity.

3. The city schools enrollment and transfer policies have contributed to the denial of the equal protection of the laws to colored pupils.

4. Districting of schools has contributed to racial segregation in Baltimore schools. In other school systems districting a school generally means that all students living within the district lines must attend that school.

Such a system may produce all colored schools in all colored neighborhoods but it also tends to keep white students in mixed schools in mixed neighborhoods. As districting is practiced in Baltimore, however, a school is districted when only those living within the district may attend the school, but a student who lives within the district may attend a different school "if it is not districted and if the reason for transfer is considered satisfactory."

A main section of the parents' report described how principals of white schools apply the districiting policy in such a way as to keep such schools white.

The parents' report recommended that the School Board "recognize and rectify the present discriminatory aspects of its enrollment, transfer, distribution, districting, transporting, part-time and school construction program" all of which were alprogram" all of which were alleged to foster continuing segregation.

That it also immediately formulate and adopt methods for balancing part-time instruction so that colored pupils would not bear the brunt of such classroom situations.

Speaking for the parents on Thursday, attorney Melvin Sykes said he felt Dr. Brain, superintendent of schools, was "dogmatic" on the subject of de-segregation.

EDITOR'S NOTE: A full report on the Citizens Committee findings on school segregation will begin in next week's AFRO.

to be local people."

Sgt. Gray said rocks, bottles and bricks were hurled by both sides until they could disperse the mean crowds. A windshield was broken out a police car.

Until last night police said the only demonstration there was last week when a group sought to use a bowling alley but gave up after being refused admittance.

The town, 20 miles southeast of Winston-Salem, was reported calm by police on Friday morning but police were keeping a close watch on things.

SCHOOL BOARD HEARING—AFRO Staff Photographer I. Henry Phillips made this photo Thursday afternoon at unprecedented meeting of Baltimore School Board where group of parents of both races, and NAACP lawyers, appeared to protest continued segregation in public schools. Board members are seated at table. At left, rear, Dr. George Brain, superintendent. Crowd of over one hundred, was largest in recent years to attend meeting of Board. Spectators, who overflowed into anterooms, heard spokesman for groups promise court action, massive demonstrations and picketing unless their demands for further desegregation were met within 90 days.

In Memoriam 3

CROCKETT — In loving memory of our mother, ANNIE, who passed away June 9, 1960.
The memory of our mother, sh, it cometh everywhere;
It shineth in the darkness, and it floateth on the air.
It clings to us, it talks to us, through the livelong day;
It meets us in our daily task, our household work or play;
That blessed, blessed memory, that dear familiar tone,
As her spirit watches still, and communeth with her own.
The FAMILY and CHILDREN.

GAITHER — In loving memory of my dear husband, and our father, JAMES E., who passed away two years ago, June 6, 1961:
On this day, as every day
How we miss him we cannot say.
Though in heaven, he rests in peace
Our love for him will never cease.
Lovingly WIFE and
FLORENCE, and SONS,
LEWIS and WAYNE GAITHER.

GIVENS — In loving memory of my dear wife and mother, ROSE, who passed away June 8, 1961:
Two years have passed since that day
When the one we loved so dearly passed away
God took her home
It was His will
Within our hearts
she liveth still
Lovingly Husband,
GEORGE, GIVENS and
Sister, BEATRICE

HAMILTON — In loving memory of my dear mother, CARRIE, who passed away June 8, 1961:
When a mother breathes her last farewell
The stroke means more than tongue can tell
The world seems quite another place
Without the smile of mother's face.
Loving Daughter,
ELIZABETH

LOGAN — In loving memory of my husband, MACK ALBERT LOGAN, who passed away June 7, 1962:
When the evening shades are falling
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there is a longing
It you only could come home.
Oh, and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away.
Where I laid you, dearest husband
One year ago today
Loving WIFE
And CHILDREN

McCANTS — In loving memory of our grandmother, HATTIE who passed away June 7, 1962
Somewhere above this troubled world
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our grandmother rests in heaven
In peace—
God's home day we'll meet her there.
Grandchildren,
REGINALD, BARBARA and PENNY

McCANTS — In loving memory of our dear mother, HATTIE, who passed away June 8, 1961.
God made lots of beautiful things,
Flowers and trees, and
Birds, and starlight and lovely things,
And after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare,
More loving and more true,
Of all God's gifts, the one most dear
A mother as dear as you.
Daughter, OLA and
Son-in-Law, BUD.

MOAN — In loving memory of my wife and our mother, EMMA, who passed away June 8, 1962:
What one you care for has departed,
And you sit alone and broken-hearted,
There's something in a kindred mind
That always leaves a sense behind
Of true companionship, we know
The pain it was to see you go.
Memory softens everything
The grave its victory — death its sting
We who loved you, sadly miss you
We who held you, were dear,
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often long your presence near.
Though God has taken you away
You live with us every day.
HUSBAND and CHILDREN.

NASH — In memory of my dear husband, SPENCER, who departed this life June 8, 1951:
Loving memories never die,
As years roll on and days go by,
In my heart a memory is kept,
Of the one I loved, and will never forget.
Loving Wife,
ESTELLE.

SCRIBNER — In memory of our beloved sister, MRS. MARIE SAVAGE SCRIBNER, who passed away June 8, 1957:

Our closely knit circle is broken.
Our sense of loss is great.
Our consolation is that our circle is being renwoven in God's Eternal Home.
May their souls through God's mercy and grace, rest in peace
THE FAMILY.

WALTON — In loving memory of my dear husband, ROBERT GILMORE, who passed away June 4, 1962:
There is a sad, but sweet remembrance,
There is a memory fond and true;
There is a token of affection, dear,
And a heartache still for you.
