Five couples conclude marriages in divorces

Mrs. Flora Tarver of 4307 Norfolk Ave. won a divorce from Nathaniel Tarver, Jr., here this week, along with custody of their daughter, Tylene.

Mr. Tarver was ordered by the court to provide $10 per week for the child's support and to pay $5 per week on arrearage of $750 until the amount is paid.

The Tarvers were married on June 18, 1958. She said that he had left her five times before the final desertion in January, 1960.

A DIVORCE also went to Mrs. Theresa Pope of 221 N. Fremont St., who, too charged that she was deserted.

Mrs. Pope testified that Howard C. Pope of 1637 W. North Ave., told her that he was tired of marriage and left.

They were married in 1949 and are parents of five children, ranging from the ages of six to 17.

The father was charged generally with their support.

ARTIE WILLIAMS of 2425 Lakeview Avenue said that he and Mrs. Berdena Williams agreed to end their marriage in 1961.

They were married on August 28, 1956 and have two children who will remain with the mother.

Mr. Williams, a public school employee, will pay to Mrs. Williams $150 per month from September through June of each year; and $300 per month, July and August.

A DIVORCE on grounds of voluntary separation also went to Mrs. Thelma Jones of 2538 W. Lanvale St. from Howard E. Jones of 3541 Liberty Heights Avenue. Their marriage lasted from February 22, 1950 to June 29, 1961.

MRS. ANDREA DIGGS, of 130 Reedbird Avenue, who testified that her husband, Charles Diggs, Jr. had become interested in another woman was granted a divorce from him.

Mr. Diggs, she said, lives at 905 Rosedale St.

They were married on Nov. 26, 1959 and, said she, ended the marriage, with both's consent, on September 6, 1961.

Apartments okayed for 2609 Garrison

An appeal asking the construction of a 14-apartment building at 2609 Garrison Blvd. was approved Tuesday by the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals.

Plans call for the erection of a two and a half story structure.

The board also approved the operation of a first floor restaurant at 1604 W. Lanvale St. and a beauty parlor on the first floor front at 428 W. Mosher St.

Appeals requesting an awning over the front porch at 1803 Gwynns Falls Pkwy. and a private garage at 2626 Cecil Ave. were also approved.

Driver robbed

City police reported Tuesday that two cab - drivers were robbed by passengers, one in the Eastern District and the other the Western District.

The one in the Eastern District occurred about 10:15 a.m. at the corner of Oliver and Register Sts.

Joseph A. Stuehler, 54, 4600 block Marble Hall Rd., the taxi - driver told police he was robbed of $35.

In the second hold - up, Ward Wiley, 62, 5000 block Reisterstown Rd., stated that he was robbed of $22.85 by two men who threatened him with knives.

Prayer of the week

We thank Thee God that Thou hast no chosen people, but that all men, who love their fellows and practice justice and mercy, are subject to Thy special care and keeping.

We thank Thee that in our time those long rejected, through their own development and in the climate created by Thee, sit down, sit in, stand up, speak out, and bravely in response to Thy urge to add their contribution to the world's work.

Length our reach, help us to stand tall, strengthen our will, give us patience and endurance to hold out until the victory is won.

Help us to disregard the traitors, to bolster the weak and undecided, and with truth and justice and freedom in our hearts, move forward.

Forest Park Exercises Ignore Star

Parents of top athlete question school policy

Authorities at Forest Park High School were under severe criticism this week for bypassing the school's two outstanding varsity athletes at commencement exercises Sunday at Civic Center.

The suspicion persisted that the race issue was involved despite denials by the principal and the school's athletic officials.

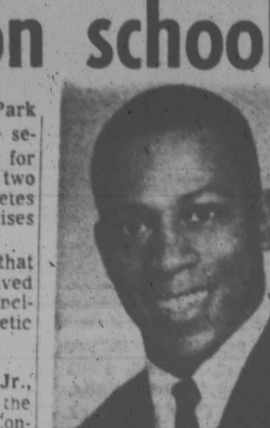
ALEX JEFFERSON Jr., winner of the "Athlete of the Year" award, and Don Conway, recipient of the "Unsung Hero" trophy for 1963, were ignored in the "special commendations" segment of the commencement program, although similar achievements by graduating athletes are acknowledged by other schools in the city and have been at previous Forest Park commencements.



ALEX W. JEFFERSON JR.

Jefferson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex W. Jefferson Sr., of 2911 Elgin Avenue, have written Miss Dorothy Duvall, principal at Forest Park High, to ask whether the bypassing of young Alex and Conaway was due to "discriminatory practices."

THE TWO youngsters were seated on the front row of the graduating class during the Civic Center program. The first row is usually reserved for graduates of special talents.

But whne other awards were made, no mention was made of either Jefferson's accomplishments in football, basketball and track, or of Conaways' basketball and lacrosse achievements.

ACCORDING TO Alex, he had been told by Varsity Club president Elliott Hersh that the trophy voted him as "athlete of the Year" would be presented to him at the commencement exercises. Later, he said, Hersh handed him the award following a graduation rehearsal without further explanation.

Even then, young Jefferson told his parents he felt certain that some cognizance would be taken of the feat sometime during the program.

FRANK LEE, athletic director at the school, told the AFRO Thursday that he could thoroughly understand the disappointment, but that the omission of all athletic honors in commencement programs is in the new order of things at Forest Park.

ee pointed out that athletic awards are now confined to the annual athletic banquets, and that the only citation with any hint of connection with athletics at commencement time is the Rex Simms Scholarship Award.

This is a cash grant which goes annually to the athlete with the best academic record.

MISS DUVALL contended that race had "absolutely nothing" to do with the elimination of athletic awards from the commencement schedule. She said that it is her position that athletes are cited at three banquets a year, and that this is decidedly out of proportion in a curriculum where scholastic performance is not subordinated by sports participation.

Miss Duvall declared that awards for athletic achievement have not been included in the commencement program since she succeeded Wendell Dunn as Forest Park principal two years ago.

Notwithstanding these denials, many Maryland Scholastic Association athletes and fans questioned the explanations, particularly that of Miss Duvall.

Several recalled that colored students who stood at the top of both the June 1962, and February 1963, graduating classes were similarly bypassed with their achievements grossly de-emphasized.

Still others pointed out that City College, with a larger commencement population and a more detailed program, gave special recognition to all its award winners.

JEFFERSON, WHO won eight varsity letters in three sports - football, basketball and track - plan to matriculate at Maryland State College in the fall.

Conaway is considering entering the military service sometime this summer LACY

Sifford slumps in tourney play

GRAND BLAC, Mich. — (ANP) —Because his game has been below par recently, golfer Charlie Sifford of Los Angeles failed to pose a serious challenge in major tournaments.

Sifford, badly hampered by his slump, still managed to keep spending money in his pocket by finishing consistently among the cash winners.

Slightly more than a week ago he netted $310 in the $50,000 Indianapolis Festival tournament won by veteran pro Dow Finsterwald. He carded a four-round total of 278.

Last Sunday, Sifford netted another $150 in the Flint Open tournament here, with a 294 - stroke total behind winner Julius Boros.

Top seed ousts Scott in JAC net tourney

Charles, Scott, promising young 13-year-old racqueter, was eliminated from the Junior Association of Commerce tennis tournament, Wednesday afternoon.

Scott was defeated by David Savitz, the No. 1 seed in the 14-and-under class by scores of 6-3, 4-6, 6-0.

Orioles set 3rd Kids' Day, June 29

Saturday, June 29 will be the third of five scheduled "Kids' Days" to be held at Memorial Stadium during the 1963 season. The Orioles will be hosting the surprising Kansas City Athletics in a single afternoon game.

Any number of youngsters 13 years of age or under will be admitted to this game free of charge provided they are adequately supervised by a sufficient number of adults. The regular general admission price of $1.25 will, however, be asked of each adult.

Any group or organization wishing to attend the "Kids' Day" baseball game that Saturday is advised to call the Orioles' Public Relations office.
