Baltimore man heads Ohio's Migrant Ministry

David A. Harmon, a young Baltimorean, will be heading Ohio's Migrant Ministry this summer.

A second year student at Payne Theological Seminary at Wilberforce, Mr. Harmon graduated from Coppin State Teachers College and taught at Cherry Hill for four years.

His position will call for the supervision of religious activity for some 10,000 migrant workers expected to come to Ohio this year. The Ohio Migrant Ministry is supported by the Ohio United Church Women and by the Home Missions Division of the National Council of Churches.

Mr. Harmon pointed out during a recent interview that his work involves showing the migrant workers "that somebody is concerned about them outside of their immediate circle and that they have friends nearby."

The first task for Mr. Harmon and his staff is to gain "the confidence of both the migrants and the growers."

* * *

FINDING WELFARE aid for these migrant workers is also a task confronting the Migrant Ministry, as is the necessity to brighten the hard life these people are forced to live.

Attempts are made to give them a social existence, to break the daily grind of the hard labor and the meager pay. Men are often paid no more than 70 cents an hour; women and children get less.

Mr. Harmon's wife, the former Bettey Kearney of Sparrow's Point, helps her husband in his work.

Planning okays North Bend apartment project

The city's Planning Commission approved Tuesday plans for the construction of an apartment project on North Bend Rd. and Frederick Ave., property under option by the Rose Murphy Oliver Foundation of the Madison Ave. Presbyter i a n Church.

Philip Darling, director, noted though the submitted plans bore wordage not required as to proposed use of the property, and said this would have to be eliminated from new plans before a building permit would be issued.

This wordage in one instance explained the property had been optioned to the foundation Dec. 24, 1962, and that open occupancy dwellings would be erected on the 2.175-acre site.

On a companion 2.225-acre site were explanations a portion was planned for a small shopping center and the remainder for a gasoline station.

* * *

THE CITY COUNCIL a few weeks ago rejected, however, an ordinance to rezone from residential to commercial this companion property to allow the shopping center and gasoline station.

No rezoning is necessary for the apartment project.

Residents of the area complained at the time rezoning to allow the gasoline station would greatly depreciate surrounding properties, in this Fifth District sector.

However, Walter T. Dixon, a Fourth District city councilman, prompted by the white owner of the property, argued on the Council floor for the rezoning ordinance to allow the gasoline station.

3 youths charged with assaulting teenager

Three youths are being held without bail, charged with beating and criminally assaulting a 14 - year - old girl near Gwynns Falls Park last Saturday.

In the Southwestern Municipal Court Tuesday Judge Joseph L. Broccolino Jr. ordered the youths to be held for action of the grand jury.

Charged are William F. Bannister, 16, 2500 block Boyd St.; Frank Phillips, 15, 100 block N. Gilmor, St., and Albert S. Baldwin, 15, unit block N. Wheeler St.

Judge Broccolino during the preliminary hearing heard statements read, said to have been signed by the three boys.

* * *

PHILLIPS told police in his statement that the girl said she would submit to the three youths. However the girl testified she had passed out soon after she had been caught when the boys hit her in the chest.

The young victim said that while she, with other children, and a girl, 16, were sitting on railroad tracks on the Pennsylvania railroad underpass, they were attacked by the youths.

The others ran but she was caught by the ankle by one of the youths and taken to the wooded area by all three, she said.

She said she was not sure if all three boys had assaulted her.

The girl received medical treatment at St. Agnes Hospital for cuts, bruises and shock, according to police.

A medical report was submitted.
