Heavenly Father, Who has created all men according to Your own image and redeemed us all by the Blood of Your Divine Son, teach us how to live together as brothers in dignity, justice, charity and peace. May we afford to each other now the total measure of human rights guaranteed us by the law of our beloved land. Jackson talks, King walks

CHICAGO — Pickets outside Olivet Baptist Church, the Rev. Joseph L. Jackson, pastor, carried signs, "Jackson Talks, King Walks."

Other placards read, "Get in Step, Rev." and "You Cannot Stop Fredom Rides."

Dr. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention, USA, and his convention board of directors fathered a resolution calling a 60-day moratorium on demonstrations.

• • •

NAHAS ROGERS, spokesman for the student group, said they were against "Uncle Tomism."

The Rev. Mr. Jackson said 2,000 persons crossed the picket lines to hear a sermon on "The Weak Church and the Powerful Christ."

Dr. Dunston hails ruling on prayers

Dr. A. G. Dunston, pastor of Wesley AME Zion Church, praised the US Supreme Court for its decision on the saying of prayers and the reading of the Bible, by compulsion in the schools.

"The court interpreted the law in consideration of the first Amendment of the Constitution. The law is quite clear and it was the thinking of the founding fathers that there should never be compelled religion in these United States," he said.

Cleric hits prayer protest and calls it 'hypocritical'

"Prayer on the steps of public buildings is purely hypocritical," declared the Rev. John F. Monroe, Fairmount Heights pastor, deploring the use of protest demonstrations in the struggle for civil rights.

"Preachers of the gospel should refrain from public demonstrations," added the pastor of Grace Methodist Church.

He made the remarks Monday as member of a panel that included the Revs. G. Dewey Robinson, I. G. Simpson and J. W. Bonner, all of whom spoke up for peaceful protest demonstrations.

But not the Rev. Mr. Monroe, who said that "the public demonstration is an experiment in mental exploration. It could backfire and do more harm than good."

THE REV. MR. BONNER, pastor of Israel CME here and a former leader in the Montgomery Bus Boycott, said non - violent direct action led by ministers discouraged violence as shown in the Montgomery experience.

"A young man put his pistol in his bosom and said he was going to kill a white bus driver who had cussed his sister," the Rev. Mr. Bonner recalled.

Members of the non-violent movment, incuding the young man's sister, stopped him from resorting to violent action, the Rev. Mr. Bonner said.

The discussion was conducted at Asbury Methodist Church by the Rev. Julius S. Carroll, program chairman of the Methodist Ministers Union.

Dixiecrat hits TV for telling about Evers

WASHINGTON

South Carolina's Sen. Strom Thurmond caused a minor tempest in a Commerce subcommittee when he said radio and television networks were "following the NAACP line."

Sen. Thurmond's remarks interrupted the presentation of Frank Staton, CBS president. Committee chairman John O. Pastor of Rhode Island sharply rebuked the Dixiecrat solon for his interruption.

For so doing, he was accused by Sen. Thurmond of "trying to defend" Mr. Stanton and the networks.

The South Carolinian particularly wanted to know why the networks had given so much time to the murder of Medgar Evers and so much "exposure" to Dr. Martin Luther King and so little to those on the other side.

Calif. rules out Muslims' retrial

LOS ANGELES — (ANP) — Four members of the Black Muslin sect will not be retried on charges on which an all-white jury failed to agree on five counts, District Attorney William B. McKesson announced last week.

The four were among 14 sect members against whom the jury returned verdicts at the end of a long Superior Court trial growing out of a riot between police and several members of the organization in front of a Muslim mosque on April 27, 1962.

Ronald Stokes, a Muslim member, and several other sect members and policemen were injured during the rioting. One sect member, who was among the defendants, is confined to a wheelchair as a result of the fighting.

Meanwhile, defense attorney were preparing to appeal the convictions to a higher court. There is an indication that the case may be carried all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court.

The foreman of the jury disclosed that he had been trailed during the lengthy trial that ran from April 8 until it was handed to the jurors on May 22. He also said his house had been cased.

New wage ratefor laundries

New minimum wage rates for women and minors employed in the District in the laundry and fry cleaning occupation will become effective July 6.

The new rates are $42 for a workweek of over 36 through 40 hours, effective July 6, and $46 effective September 3, 1965.

Also $1.10 per hour for working time of 36 hours or less a week, effective in July 1963, and $1.25 per hour effective in September, 1965; $1.12½ per hour for working time in excess of 40 hours per week, effective in July, 1963, and $1.25 per hour effective in September, 1965.

The present minimum wage of $35 a week for women and minors employed in the laundry and dry cleaning occupation was set in '58.

The new minimum wages were recommended to the Minimum Wage and Industrial Safety Board by a conference composed of persons representing employers, employees, and the public.

A public hearing on the recommendations of the conference was held in April.
