Capt. Graham Jr. assigned NJ base

GUNTER AFB, Ala. — Doctor Mayhugh A. Graham Jr. of Washington, D.C., who recently came to active duty in the United States Air Force in the rank of captain, has completed the orientation course for officers of the Medical Service here.

The doctor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mayhugh A. Graham of 1509 Evarts St. NE is being reassigned to the USAF dispensary at McGuire AFB, N. J. He will join the staff there for practice as a dentist.

Doctor Graham attended Howard University.

Outdoor Tips

PIPE CLEANER FLY'S A PIP

Short bits of pipe cleaner woven on to a tiny hook make a snazzy imitation of several kinds of insects trout go for. Can be treated to sink or float.

PUFF, PUFF, UP A HILL

Unless you've found the Fountain of Youth you may be bothered with shortness of breath when your hunting takes you up and down steep banks.

Try this tip to keep puffing to a minimum. Inhale at the end of every two steps; exhale at the end of the next.

Two and inhale: one and exhale. Strike a slow steady pace.

Rapid oxygen intake and exhaust helps handle your body's extra requirement.

SPECIAL NOTE: If you don't get shortness of breath climbing steep things, please send your secret in fast.)

HOT HEAD

Got cold day, light hat, hence cold head?

Cure it by lining the inside of your hat with aluminum foil. Weatherproof too.

HELP YOUR RESCUERS

A sensible precaution when you are fishing or hunting in big country is to leave a note with your name, address, license number and time expected back in your car.

Note can be put in windshield or on front seat.

In case something happens, game wardens and police can locate quickly the right place to start looking.

SPORTSMAN'S NOTEBOOK

To remember all the good tips you get here, why not cut them out and paste in an inexpensive scrap book.

.22 SINKERS

Insert a short piece of wire into an empty 22 shell and fill with lead. Makes a good light sinker.

TOUCHY TROUT

This tip is slated for trout fishermen, but other fish that trout at times get so touchy that the slightest pull of the line will make them drop a natural bait.

Fool 'em this way. Just cut a long rubber band and knot it at both ends.

Then tie your line to one end and the end of your hook leader to the other.

The stretch of rubber will absorb the fishes' pull and at the same time start the ever so light pressure needed to put the hook into position.

BOIL LINE, NOT TEMPER

If you are the excitable type reeling a new monofil line out of its spool and onto your reel is likely to exercise your boiling point. Don't.

Make the onl, boiling thing a pot of water on the stove. Spak the full monfil spool in it before you reel.

Hot line will pay out smoothly.

Floyd says he'll keep on fighting

NEW YORK — Floyd Patterson won't quit.

The former champion is now viewing the field of European heavyweights with a possible mid - November overseas match in mind after definitely deciding to continue boxing.

The former heavyweight champion received a flood of mail from fans urging him to continue his ring career.

ALTHOUGH HE said in Las Vegas after his second straight first - round knockout by Sonny Liston that he planned to continue, the mail response was the determining factor.

Julius November, Patterson's attorney, said that Patterson resumed training at his Highland Mills, N.Y., camp.

Patterson is not tied to any promoter," said November. "We have been contacted by several promoters including Teddy Brenner, Madison Square Garden matchmaker.

Chargers' Ladd out with injury

DENVER, Colo., — Tackle Ernie Ladd of the San Diego Chargers was being treated for injuries here this week and may be lost to the American Football League eleven for several weeks.

The 6 - foot, 9 inch, 312 - pound star from Grambling was hurt during an exhibition game with the Denver Broncos Saturday night.

Word of Ladd's injury didn't become known until Tuesday and Coach Sid Gillman was reluctant to talk about details.

The Denver Post said the injury is believed to be either to the kidney or bladder and quoted Ladd as saying he will undergo further tests.

Helena Hall bride of Ohio accountant

By Lula Jones Garrett

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arnett Frisby of Barrington Road have announced the marriage of their niece, Helena M. Hall, to Alonzo Paul Fairston of Dayton, Ohio.

The marriage took place in July.

Mr. Hairston is the son of the Rev. Robert F. Hairston, minister of Refuge Baptist Church, Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. Hairston. He is a graduate of Tuskegee Institute and a public accountant.

Mrs. Hairston, a graduate of Coppin Teachers College, with masters degrees in education and library services, did her graduate work at New York University and Western Reserve, is a public school librarian, here, and an Alpha Kappa Alpha soror.

MOST FETED visitor on the home heath, this and last week, has been Mrs. Estelle B. Hicks, formerly of Mobile, Ala., and now living in Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. Hicks is the sister of Mrs. M. L. Barksdale. She has just returned from a six-week tour of European cities, having joined a NRTA group in New York on June 10th. They flew over, visited in France, Italy, Germany, Switzerland, Holland and England, and sailed back to the States aboard the Queen Elizabeth.

Mrs. Hicks spent two weeks with her nieces, Mrs. Frank Bryant and Mrs. Mildred Smith upon her return to New York; then, with Mrs. Smith, motored here, where she found a family reunion party awaiting her at the home of another niece, Mrs. Roland Williams, and Mr. Williams.

Guests at this garden party were Mrs. Mildred Smith, Gregory Smith and Charles Williams of New York, Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter and Miss Cora Ann Hunter of Washington, Mrs. Mildred Banks, Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Barksdale, Ronnie Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Barksdale and Robert and Benjamin Barksdale of this city.

Sandwiched between this and the major party given by Dr. and Mrs. Barksdale at their Dorchester Road place on Friday evening, were a score of parties, including:

A "get - acquainted" party given by Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Hunt, a breakfast party by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Barksdale, followed by a family outing in Glencoe Park, Washington; a dinner party by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Williams following a tour to Westminster; a luncheon by Mrs. Louise Dolvey, theatre parties by Roland Williams and Mrs. Evelyn Barksdale, honor guest of Mrs. Frank Saunders, and a barbecue party at the summer home of Dr. and Mrs. William Watts at Arundel - on -

The Barksdales' party, which filled their beautiful home, including the solarium, and spilled out onto the patio, brought a large number of guests to enjoy the buffet and to meet the interesting visitor.

Mrs. Hicks, who ended a career of teaching only to begin one of writing, has been published once and is in the midst of a second book.

At the party were:

Mesdames Marion Smith, Edith Saunders, Beatrice Reesby, Anethia Williams, Lula Patterson, Jimmie LaForest, Walta Young, Mildred Banks, J. Logan Jenkins, Sr., Louise Dolvey, William Parrott, Bernice Robinson, Mary Baskerville, Mary Brooks, Eva Blake, Lillian Watty;

Messrs. and Mesdames Jerome Briscoe, Sr., Luther Rhodes, Leonard Briscoe, Benjamin Barksdale, Winston Hunt, J. W. McAllister; Drs. and Mesdames Richard Montgomery, Raymond Hunt; Misses Gladys Gardner, Maude LaForest, Tiese Young; and Wayne Young.

DONNA ELAINE JOHNSON, celebrated her fourth year entry into the world with a party at the Elegante Room, Saturday at 4 p.m.

Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Johnson (Blanche is Mr. Perkins, Administrator of Provident Hospital, Girl Friday).

Accompanying members of the Junior Smart - Set were: Misses Sylvia James, Lora Lee James, Cecelia Pitts, Jean Austin of White Plains, N.Y., Gurtha M. Durham, Mr and Mrs. Roland Jones, godparents of Donna;

Roscoe Clark Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Macer, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Miles James, Mrs. James Land, Mrs. Leroy Boyd, Mrs. Clifton Macer, Mrs. Leland Rainey, Sr., Mrs. John W. Franklin.

Misses Marilyn Burnett, Phyllis Talley, Jacqueline E. Brooks, and Mrs. Martha Brown.

Special guests at the party were the grandmother and great - grandmother of the Honoree, Mrs. Benjamin F. James, and Mrs. James A. Durham, Sr.

Leroy Durham, great-uncle of the honoree directed games.

THE JESSE FEARS (Evelyn) really rolled out the red carpet when they entertained "The Ten Invited" at their beautiful Lyndhurst Avenue home last Sunday. A huge "Welcome" sign greeted guests. The spacious patio had been transformed to resemble a modern beach resort, complete with colorful umbrellas, lounge chairs, gliders, and hammocks. The bar, stocked to please the most discriminating guest, graced one corner of the lawn. The food laden table which occupied another corner contained delectables to suit every gustatory whim.

And it was a nifty looking bunch of ladies in fancy pants and Bermudas that graced the affair . . . to say nothing of the gentlemen in a glazy of eye - catching sport togs.

As night began to fall, the lawn was illuminated with brilliant lights which had been placed in conspicuous spots in the bushes and trees. It was indeed a day of fun, relaxation, wholesome fellowship.

Enjoying the day with Evelyn and Jesse were Mae and Emile Cornish, Jeanette and Vernon Johnson, Erdie an Atwell Jones, and Lillian and Elroy Wilson.

PEREGRINATORS: Mr. and Mrs... Charles (Fannie) Lawson are back from a delightful trip, via jet, to Los Angeles, then Hawaii, and San Francisco. With them were their daughter, Mary Charlene.

John and Terrie Gilmore pen of the beauties of Plymouth, from that Massachusetts resore, where they are vacationing.

Geneva and Leo C. Wood are guesting with friends in Hastings, on the Hudson (Ne York). Incidentally, their daughter, Patricia, and grandson, have returned to Los Angeles, Calif., after visiting with the family at the Morgan Jark home, here.

For their annual vacation trip, the Gays and Dells jaunted off in a motorcade for four days in Atlantic City. They were ensconsed at the Sahara Motel, while doing the Shore City. Members of the club who had a weekend of fun included Clarence and Danna Brown, George and Hedy Brown, Troy and Beatrice Lewis, John and Cleaver Poag, Frank and Brenda Thorington, Ben and Elaine Welch and Thomas and Iris Wheaden.

And now Henry and Arnett Williams are singing the praises of Martha's Vineyard for relaxing. They talk of tree shaded streets, beautiful beaches, rose - blanketed cottages, picturesque golf courses. They bicycled along the scenic roads, enjoyed the summer movies and theatricals and found time to do some deep sea fishing.

Add to the scarcs who have found Atlantic City and Pleasantville fascinating this summer, Bernice S. Hunley and her cousin, Leonora J. Thomas. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Garrett. Mrs. Garrett is the former Sadie Bevans Watson of Baltimore.

Mrs. Elizabeth D. Randall recently vacationed at the home of her mother, Mrs. Arthur Strong, in Chestertown, Md. They were entertained at a luncheon at home employed as a seamstress at the Bonnett's Department Store of Chestertown. This position made possible through efforts of NAACP and the Bi - Racial Commitie of Chestertown.

Mrs. Arthur C. (Louise) Lamb, sending chatty notes back to club members from the Islands where she and Dr. Lamb are vacationing, is putting ideas in Pierians' wigs with her suggestion of a club cruise to those parts.

The Lambs are having a dream vacation says Louse. After sending a week at the famous Americana Hotel in San Juan, Puerto Rico, they flew to St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands. The staff of the drama department of the University of Puerto Rico at San Juan and Senator Doward of St. Croix, a graduate of Morgan were particulary gracious to the visitors. Senator Doward and a group of Morgan folk (where Dr. Lamb is a faculty member) including Gregory Miller, entertained at dinner at the Carribbean Beach Hotel, with a show and dancing at the Virgin Isle Hilton following.

She also talks of the love for the pride in their new Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Cedric Mills, has already engendered in the Islands.

She tells of shopping (she shouldn't do that . . . those Pierians are buying gals) . . . her particular interests being Tuscon bone china, and of course French perfume. She ran into Hilda Lewis Butler of the Arena Players at the dinner party.

They will be back in the states next week, for a stay at Parham Place, her sister's home in Westchester County, N.Y., and for the wedding of her niece, Norma Parham.

The Eugene Rosses of Wheeler Avenue have returned from a motor trip through Virginia, and North and South Carolina. In Wilmington, N.C., they were guests of her brother-in-law and sister, the Samuel Bowenses, Sr., parents of the popular Oriole outfielder, Sam Bowens. The visitors were entertained at a number of beach parties, cookouts and luncheons. With them was Orangie Epps, who they hoped the trip would cheer up after the recent loss of her husband, Bill.

William Meredith H. Birche, Jr., town musician, has returned from New York, Philadelphia and Atlantic City, having gone up for the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority parties, and the Hall Johnson Seminar for Conductors.

Duran Johnson, dancer and supper club entertainer was guest of Mr. Birche, recently, at his Hillton St. home. Duran, formerly of Baltimore, lives in Philadelphia, where he is on the faculty of the Libby Spencer School of the Dance.

Calvin Scott and Miss Desile Byrd recently visited Chicago, Ill., where they were guests of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayman Scott. During the week-end visit they were guests at two social affairs when Mr. and Mrs. Grady Groves entertained at a cook-out at their South Parkway place, and Mr. and Mrs. William Reed at an informal party in their home in Evanston, Ill. Prior to this, Miss Byrd attended the 20th session of the Womens Quadrennial Missionary Convention in St. Louis, as one of the delegates representing the Conference Branch of the Baltimore Society. Miss Byrd is a professional social worker on the staff of Rosewood State Hospital. Mr. Scott is a Baltimore public school teacher.

MR. AND MRS. HERBERT HINES, SR. celebrated the 56th anniversary of their marriage, in Baltimore, last week. A family party marked the event.

MRS. LOUISE L. TARD and the Rev. Henry R. Smith were married in Baltimore, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Louise Tard, Rev. Smith married

Mrs. Louise Tard, supervisor of Kensay Nursing Home, and the Rev. Harvey H. Smith, pastor of Christian Baptist Church were married in the Mt. Ararat Baptist Church, Saturday afternoon.

The Rev. Samuel B. Redd, pastor of Mt. Ararat Church, performed the ceremony, with the wedding prayer being given by Dr. W. D. Leighton, moderator of the Maryland General Baptist Association. A program of wedding music was provided by Mrs. Anita Collick of Philadelphia; soloist, and Kenneth Low, organist.

* * *

GIVEN IN marriage by the Rev. Henry Stevenson, the bride wore a gown of toast brown lace and satin, made with brief jacket. Her accessories matched the dress. Her headpiece was a flirtation veil, and she carried a white prayer book marked with yellow streamers and topped with yellow and brown roses.

Mrs. Sylvia Thornton was matron of honor. Her dress was of yellow nylon over taffeta. She wore matching accessories. Other attendants were Mrs. Marjorie Livingston, Mrs. Julia Stone and Mrs. Ruby Blue. Their gowns were also nylon over taffeta, in aqua. All carried bouquets of the yellow and brown roses.

THE REV. Hezekiah Williamson was best man for the Rev. Mr. Smith. Ushers were Messrs. T. E. Williams, Carl Washington, J. S.Wise and William Brown. The bridegroom and his attendants wore dark trousers, with summer tuxedos, with white carnation boutonaires.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 200 guests was held at the home of the bride 3055 W. North Avenue. Assisting hostesses were Mesdames Verita Norwood, Ethel Ross and Nora Mill.

OUT-OF- TOWN guests included:

Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Clavin Hines, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cain, Miss Katie Hines, Mrs. Flossie Thomas, Mrs. Charlotte Hill, all of Washington;

Mrs. Sarah Williams, Miss Pamela Williams, Johnny Williams, Jrd., of Albany, N. Y., Mrs. Anita Collick of Philadelphia and James Hines of Danville, Va.

Two hundred and fifty guests paid tribute to the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. William their friends at a reception on their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday afternoon.

The reception was held in the Perkins Square Baptist Church, where the couple and their children received.

BRIGHT IDEAS
... by Penny Power

Wifely wisdom from Denmark: a man who likes sweets makes a good husband!

* * * *

And speaking of sweets, if you have some brown sugar that has become hard and unusable, don't despair. Put it in a freezer wrap and tuck it in your electric freezer or refrigerator freezing unit. Freezing will restore it to its original condition.

Electricity is one servant everyone can afford! Reliable and economical, it makes housework easier, gets it done faster. You feel fresher, look younger because electricity takes on so much of the hard labor. It's the biggest bargain in the family budget.

* * * *

Ironing hints: Hard-to-iron organdy will be a cinch if you sprinkle it thoroughly, then chill it in the refrigerator. Spread unironed flat pieces over the ironing board and press other items over them—two jobs done at once! For fun, sprinkle cologne on the ironing board before you begin. MMMM-nice!

* * * *

Use thin pretzel sticks instead of toothpicks for spearing cheese balls, cheese cubes, meat squares, other party fare. Guests eat everything—no forest of pricks to clean up!

Hunter-Husband? Hang that wild game he brings home for three days in cool place before using or freezing. Before cooking allow it to reach room temperature. Game with white meat should be well-cooked; dark-meated game should come to the table rare.

* * * *

When you think how carefully you plan and budget your family income, doesn't it make you furious to read about the government spending your tax money needlessly? For things like more government electric plants and lines, for instance. When you know that investor-owned electric companies like this one can provide all the electricity a growing America will ever need!
