Visitors, birthdays inspire gay parties

With Lula Jones Garrett

To visitors within our gates go the most charming gestures.

Mrs. Marge Brownbill of St. Louis, Mo., hotsie guest of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Hunt for a past nine days, was a reason for the hosts gathering friends at their Roslyn Avenue home, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Hunt had returned from a two - week visit in New York and Mount Vernon, N.Y.

At her party were: Mesdames Dora Hutchinshaw Higgins, Rebecca Brown, Sarah Rayne, Minnie Davis, Anethia Williams, Louine Perrin, Fannie Howard, Mesdames Sarah Nix, Maud Lee, Marie Fraser, and Albert Smith; Senator Verda Welcome and her sister - in - law, Mrs. Eric Welcome of Honduras. . . .

Week end guests of Dr. and Mrs. Hunt and Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Fraser wefe relatives, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Herriot of St. Louis, Mo. . . . also honorees of the Hunts at a family gathering, Sunday.

THE MOST ELABORATE outlay of gifts went to Eddie Evans 102 of them, Sunday ago, when his Dorothy gave a surprise at that suburban beauty spot, the Casbah.

Friends brought him everything from shirts to champagne, from musical flasks (a cute one being in the shape of a violin) to batches of $62 packets (it being his 62nd natal day). His co-workers of the Rivers Chambers Orchestra provided the strolling musicians for the affair . . . and you know Dorothy and her viands from those special crab cakes . . . to the baked beans specialties of three friends . . . to the scores of homemade cakes that cohorts insisted upon showering up the popular musician.

Guests from hereabouts, from Washington, from New York and from Philadelphia made up the gay gathering . . . and included:

John McGray, Victor Lloyd and Dr. Mun Henderson, of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Mack McIntosh, Lillian Parker, (author of "30 Years In the White House", Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Collins, Dr. and Mrs. Calvin Johnson, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Eston Taylor, Joseph Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Duke Ellington, Mrs. C. George Whackham, Mrs. Marion Wood, Mrs. Alice Butler, Mrs. Alice Lee, Mrs. Josephine Neal, r. and Mrs. Montigne Harris, Josephine Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, all of Washington, and Mrs. Bessie Bell, John Ringo and Burt Hall, of hereabouts.

GLORIA AND RAYMOND CARPENTER held forth at their son, Raymond, recently.

"Twas a gala affair held on the spacious lawn of their Calloway Ave. home to mark the honoree's sixth birthday.

Raymond was delighted to greet about 40 youngsters, many of whom are his classmates at Friends School where he will be a first grader come fall.

The children enjoyed the Jungle Jim, swing slide, etc. as well as the cartoon features of "Quick Draw McGraw and "Woody Woodpecker" and others show later in the basement by Dr. Rirsh Mandelberg, projectionist at the evening.

After the movies the children returned to the lawn where after the usual blowing birthday candles atop a cowboy-decorated white and yellow cake, they were served a party repast.

They returned to the lawn for more free play and were having so much fun, parents who came to claim their youngsters hated to break up the gaiety and instead lingered over cocktails.

After the party finally ended, supper was served on the patio to family and a few friends.

Children attending the party were:

Blazer Catzen, Kathleen Davis, Mark Welch, Deborah and Jo-Ann Ward, Lisa and Cindy Frenkil, Cherly Owens, Bryant Carpenter, Thalia Prentis, Jose and Juan e The guests then greeted the host and hostess in the receiving line, led by May S. Silva and were taken on a guided tour of the middle level by Alice Dodson, the upper level by Marcella Dent and the ground level by Doris Williams.

The tour ended in the dining room where the guests were served a delectable repast, carried out in the orchid color scheme of the house.

Guests marvelled at the interior decorating throughout the home, done exclusively by Mrs. Shelton and the landscaping done by Mr. Shelton.

Guests who lingered, participated in the party that followed the reception.

Other hosts and hostesses who assisted Bettye and Wilfred were Samuel and Phyllis Harcum, Earl Warner and Annette Spellman, Eugenia Hamlette, Audrey Ford, Evelyn Lindsey, Catherine Thomas, Sarah Dodson, Ruby Hamlete, Agnes Gibson, Laura Whitfield, Esthe Morris, Marthann Warner and Carmen Marshall.

The members feted Mrs. Virginia Traynham with gifts, flowers and cards in appreciation for her five year leadership as Warden of the guild.

Anethia proved to be a most gracious hostess to the members and their guests.

The spacious lawn surrounded by flowers and trees gave a beautiful background for the tables laden with the most delectable refreshments.

Orchids for a job well done by Mrs. Trayham and her assistant, Mrs. Bernie Johnson. The new Warden and co-Warden will be Mrs. Sylvia Gibson and Mrs. Mildred Murphy.
