LBJ voices support for 'freedom fast'

WASHINGTON — President Johnson has expressed the hope that "students across the land will give support" to the Thanksgiving Fast for Freedom, a United States National Student Association project to provide food for striking workers and other needy Mississippi colored Americans and to aid newly - formed self - help corporations.

"By foregoing one meal on Nov. 18, American students will give witness to their compassion —and will lend much - needed assistance to families threatened by cold and hunger."

Stephen Arons, director of the four - year - old project has received pledges from over 120 colleges and expects more than 100,000 students across the country to participate in the fast. Last year, more than 80,000 students voluntarily abstained from their evening meal and the $38,083.43 saved by dining facilities went to the Arons hopes to raise $50,000 this year.

500 at Welcome cocktail Sunday

The Valiant Women, Senator Verda Welcome's campaign organization, hosted innumerable guests at their cocktail party Sunday.

Coming and going throughout the evening were more than 500 of the Maryland legislator's supporters from all areas of the city and state.

Among the lively, smartly dressed crowd were James Cooke, C. F. Harris and Bob Morina from Washington. Cocktail committee members were Mesdames Alberta Bowie and Fannie Hamilton, co-chairmen; Anne Green, Nellie Bowie, Christine Anderson, Evelyn White, and Misses Nina and Myrtle Scott.

Mrs. Napoleon Dobson, president, heads the more than 100 women who are noted at being resourceful, successful campaigners and they try everything from swank parties (to attract male voters) to baby contests to beckon to proud mothers.

• • •

THE kick-off event two weeks ago was a combination Most Popular Baby Contest and Tom Thumb Wedding.

The total of 65 cute babies ranged from six months to six years of age. A month before the event, the Valiant

MRS. OVAL E. ASHBY Wishes to thank relatives and friends and well wishers who remembered her with cards, flowers, kind words and good wishes during her speedy recovery. 1314 Druid Hill Ave.

Birthday Tributes

EPPS — In loving memory of my beloved husband, WILLIAM EPPS, Jr. who departed this life Nov. 13, 1955, who passed away June 26, 1933.

God made lots of beautiful things: Sunset and moon, and trees, birds and starlings and [illegible] and [illegible]. And after He made all these, He gave to the earth a gift more rare— A husband as dear as you. —DEVOTED WIFE, ORANGIE

ALSTON — In loving memory of our dear father, WILLIAM ALSTON who passed away on November 13, 1964. It is not given man to see The hand of Providence in all he does, Or know the reason and the why. A dear mother like ours should die. But this we know: Our faith has given A promise, and we call it Heaven! —DEVOTED FAMILY

BRADY — In loving memory of my wife, GENEVA BRADY who passed away November 13, 1964. Today my heart is heavy... My thoughts are all of you. Oh, how I miss you, GENEVA dear. None but God in Heaven can see. Some say time heals an aching heart, But, no it isn't true. For one long year has passed, dear, And my heart still aches for you. —HUSBAND

BROWN — In loving memory of my husband, LEON A. who passed away November 13, 1962: Death has a cheery smile and a wave of the hand He has wandered into an unknown land. And left us dreaming how very much we miss him Sincerely, his needs must be, since he linger here. And you — oh, you, who the wildest years For the old - time sleep and glad returns, Think of him faring on, as dear, In the love of. There, as the love of Here. Think of him still as the same, I say — He's not dead — he is just away! WIFE — RITA BROWN DIXON.

GHEW — In memory of our dear sister, VIRGINIA E. who passed away one year ago, November 12, 1964: To hear her voice, to see her smile, To sit and talk for just a little while. To be with her, the same old way. Would be our fondest wish today. We often sit and think of you, And then sit and sigh and sigh. To think you could not say good-bye. Before you closed your eyes. The hour was near, the shock severe, We never really thought death was near. Your grave we'll attend with tender care, For part of our hearts are buried there. SADLY MISSED BY HER DEVOTED SISTERS and BROTHERS

COLEMAN — In loving memory of my wife, ANNIE COLEMAN who passed away November 13, 1963: There is a memory fond and true; There is a token of affection, dear, A cherished still for you. —HUSBAND — JOHN COLEMAN.

COPELAND — In loving memory of our dear son, DAVID, who passed away November 13, 1963: A gift for God, one vision that visited us here. —Wife — MINNIE COLE.

COPELAND — In loving memory of our loved one, WILLIAM JAMES, who passed away November 13, 1963: We do not forget you, nor do we intend, We think of you often, and will to the end; Gone and forgotten by some you may be, But never to our memory you ever will be. —THE FAMILY.

DIXON — In loving memory of my beloved father and mother, JOHN H. and ANNIE R. who passed away, FATHER, November 24, 1928 and November 12, 1941: Like the wind the years have flown, When all other things decay, My love for each of you will still be green, And fade away. —Devoted Daughter — FLORA.

DODSON — In loving memory of our dear parents, SARAH V. who departed this life May 6, 1954 and HUGO D., who passed December 21, 1959: Treasured thoughts of a dear mother and father so dear, Often bring a silent tear. Thoughts returned to sometimes long time, Speeds on but memories last. —LOVING CHILDREN — ELIZABETH, ALICE, DONALD, BAILEY, ISABEL.

DUPPINS — In loving memory of our dear mother, MARY V. DUPPINS who departed this life thirty - five years ago, November 13, 1930: Our lips cannot tell how we miss her, Our hearts cannot tell what to say, God sees your sons and daughter. In a home that is lonesome today. Only God knows the loneliness, And how long has been the years; Now we try to hide the sadness, And dry the falling tears, In moments of our deepest grief Our Saviour comforts me, He of good cheer and do not weep Someday I'll see you sweet. —BY HER DEVOTED DAUGHTER — MATTIE and SON — PAUL R. DUPPINS.

FISHER — In loving memory of my dear husband, SAMUEL FISHER who passed away November 12, 1960: I speak to you in the soft, dim light, A voice I love the most, And think of him when the sun's last ray Goes down in the far - off West, I make myself at ease and time passes on Then, and on the day of your going, Patience can never close the ache in my heart, And the tears that only love is still Your heart was the truest in all God's world, You love the best to recall, For I am sure there is no darling like your place, You'll still the dearest of all. YOUR LOVING WIFE—BEULAH

FISHER — In loving memory of our father, CHARLES R. FISHER who passed away November 9, 1951: Dear father, you have left us here to grieve, The months have grown into years, And our feet have stumbled and fallen, And our eyes are blinded with tears, God knows how much we miss you, Never shall your memory fade, Sweet memories are treasures that no one can take, To a place where you are laid. —SONS — CHARLES, JR., and SAMUEL R. FLEMING, GENEVA and MARY SMITH.

HARRISON — In loving memory of my dear husband OBIE, who departed this life 11 years ago, November 14, 1954: Sweet memories are kept again In the Heavenly land by God, Where we shall meet and never part. —HENRIETTA.

HENRY — In memory of our dear father and my husband, JOSEPH, who passed away one year, November 16, 1964: A bitter grief, a shock severe, It was to part with one so dear, Gone, but not forgotten, For we always knows best. —LOVING WIFE — ELIZABETH CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN.

SPRIGHTS — In loving memory of our loved one, RAYMOND, who passed away November 13, 1963: We do not forget you, nor do we intend, We think of you often, and will to the end; Gone and forgotten by some you may be, But dear to our memory you ever will be. —ANNIE and CHIL...DREN.

THORNTON — In loving memory of my husband and our father, EDWARD, who passed away November 13, 1963: If we had seen you to the last And held your dying hand, And heard the last sigh from your heart, We would not feel so bad. We did not know the pain you had, We did not see you die, We only know you went far away, And never said good-bye. —DEVOTED WIFE — MARTHA CHILDREN — ROSARIO, JR., BERNICE, RUFUS.

WHITE — A tribute of love to the memory of our dear mother, MARY L. who passed away November 13, 1956: A silent thought, a secret tear, Keeps her memory ever near, Time takes away the edge of grief, But memory turns back every leaf. —DEVOTED CHILDREN

WILLIAMS — In loving memory of my wife, EMMA, who passed away November 13, 1961: Today my heart is heavy, My thoughts are all of thee, Oh, how I miss you, EMMA dear, But God in Heaven can see. Some say time heals an aching heart, But, no it isn't true. For one long year has passed, dear, And my heart still aches for you. —HUSBAND — DOUGLAS WILLIAMS.

WILLIAMS — In loving memory of our sister, EMMA, who passed away November 13, 1961: Remembrance is golden rain, Death's tries to break, but all in vain; To have, to love and then to part Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart. Time's hand may wipe out many things, But this they wipe out never, The memory of those happy days, We were all together, Sincerely, SISTERS and BROTHERS.

WRIGHT — In loving memory of my husband, LEON E. who passed away November 10, 1963: Though now I walk through life alone, The path we once together trod, For I am sure that they whom God has loved nearer you and God. —ANNIE WELLS WRIGHT.
