Punt, Pass, Kick champs due at game

Eighteen Punt, Pass and Kick district champions, each from Baltimore, Charlotte and Atlanta Ford PP and K districts, will compete for area championships in the pre-game period of the Colts - Eagles National Football League game at memorial Stadium Sunday.

The six winners — one each in age groups 8 through 13 —will qualify for a trip to Los Angeles for PP and K semifinals Dec. 18. Results will be announed at halftime.

Representing this PP and K district and their sponsorers are:

Kelley Wroten, Salem, Phillips Ford Company, Cambridge; Michael Steckslager, 217 N. Alliston St., Greencastle, Pa. Hoachlander Ford, Greencastle; Patrick Lohrey, 7003 Wellington Ct., Baltimore, Towson Ford Sales, Inc., Towson; Andrew Silverman, 7015 Concord Rd., Baltimore, Schmidt Bruce Sandler, 7438 Ricksway Rd., Baltimore, Schmidt Ford, Mc., Randall-

Trojans loom as serious threat to unbeaten Bears

The Virginia State College Trojans are in town tonight preparing to don armor for their annual battle with Morgan State College's Bears tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon in Hughes Stadium.

Boasting a 5-3 record, one that is not exactly awe-inspiring in the face of Morgan's 7-0 mark, the Old Line eleven, nevertheless, poses the most serious threat coach Carl Banks and his charges have faced this season.

• • •

IT IS easy to say that all games are vital in an unbeaten football season, but it is undeniable that none can be taken more seriously than the last one —that which maintains or mains a perfect score. Any loss prior to the final outing automatically eliminates the chance for an unblemished record.

In the case of Virginia State and Morgan, the traditional clash is even more productive of concern for the contestants.

History shows that the Trojans are always tough to handle, particularly in a year when the Bears appear destined for the CIAA title. The same is true when the Virginians seem to be on the threshhold of a conference crown.

• • •

AT STAKE this time, in addition to the undisputed championship of the CIAA and the all-winning season, is the strong probability of a post-season bowl invitation.

Morgan, should she get over Virginia State, appears certain to receive a bid to meet Florida A and M in the Orange Blossom Classic two weeks hence at Miami.

This likelihood became even stronger yesterday (Thursday) when the Bears were eliminated from consideration for the Tangerine Bowl Dec. 11. The NCAA small-college committee announced its choice of East Carolina, the 1964 Tangerine champion, to face Maine University in the Orlando, Fla., promotion.

• • •

TOMORROW'S BATTLE could hinge on the two quarterbacks, one a native Baltimorean and the other an import from Houston, Texas. Ironically, the Baltimore youngster — Eddie Golder — will be directing the invaders and the talented Texas — Russell Jolivet — will be at the Baltimore team's throttle.

Golder guided the Trojans to a 13-6 upset of the Bears at Petersburg last November, thus spoiling any hope Morgan followers entertained for a 1964 title — LACY.

Boy ranks fourth in football test

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. — David Moore, 11, son of Dr. and Mrs. Richard V. Moore, won the gold plaque as tops in his district pass, punt and kick competition and went on to Jacksonville to compete with winners from other southern states recently.

David, whose father is president of Bethune - Cookman College, ranked fourth in the Jacksonville competition. Winners in Jacksonville go to Washington to pit their skills against other top - ranking youngsters throughout the country.

David is a sixth - grade student at Volusia Avenue Elementary School.

Wilt 2nd NBA career scorer

CINCINNATI, (UPI) — When Wilt Chamberlain came into the National Basketball Association seven years ago, he stood 7 feet tall. He gets a little bigger each year.

Wednesday night "Wilt the Stilt" popped in 46 points in a losing cause as his Philadelphia 76ers bowed to the Cincinnati Royals, 131 - 115. But those 46 points were enough to move him into second place on the NBA's all - time scoring list.

• • •

CHAMBERLAIN NOW has accumulated 19,363 points to pass his coach, Dolph Schayes, who closed out 16 years in the NBA with 19,249.

Only Bob Pettit, former St. Louis Hawk great stands ahead of Chamberlain. And Pettit's 20,880 points are well within the reach of the high scoring center.

At his present rate, Chamberlain should pass Pettit sometime in February.
