Troy Brailey honored as 'Uusung Hero'

Troy Brailey, labor leader, community worker, and "the best friend that little people ever had," was honored by an estimated 400 persons at an "Unsung Hero' banquet at the Emerson Hotel.

A. Philip Randolph, internationally noted civil rights and labor leader, was guest speaker.

He lauded the progress made thus far in the struggle for human dignity through efforts of persons like Mr. Brailey, but warned against apathy and complacency toward "reactionary forces."

The stately and eloquent "elder statesman" of the war for justice and equality of opportunity identified these forces as the Ku Klux Klan, the John Birch Society, and the White Citizens Councils.

Lest civil rights proponents remain vigilant, he declared, gains scored thus far will be "swept away by the floods of reaction."

Mr. Randolph, who chaired the White House Planning Conference on Civil Rights Wednesday and Thursday, said such forces were responsible for delaying the promises of the Emancipation for a hundred years.

DR. LILLIE M. JACKSON, Baltimore's most illustrious warrior on the battlefield of equality, was given a standing ovation after delivering one of her patent "sermons and heaping praise upon the honoree.

Maryland's junior senator, Joseph D. Tydings, Sen. Verda F. Welcome, City Council president Thomas D'Alesandro, were among state and city officials bringing greetings to Mr. Brailey.

David L. Glenn, administrative assistant to Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin, presented the honoree with a citation from the mayor.

GEORGE W. COLLINS, toastmaster, recounted some of the numerous achievements of Mr. Brailey who has devoted most of his time in recent years to working for an improvement in conditions affecting "little people."

Nathaniel Modlett, of the Maryland Chapter, American Labor Council, of which Mr. Brailey is president and national vice president, presented the honoree a trophy and cash donation.

Stokes recount shows Locher still leading

CLEVELAND, Ohio, (UPI) —A recount of the nearly 327,000 votes cast in the Nov. 2 mayoral election continued at the Cuyahoga County board of elections.

Incumbent Ralph Locher showed an initial gain of 127 votes with 440 of the city's 1,199 precincts recounted.

But State Rep. Carl B. Stokes, making a bid to become the first colored mayor of a major city, said he would continue with the recount for which he called and for which he will foot the bill.

"We won't stop," said Stokes, who was the closer by 1,934 votes in the official returns. "We'll go all the way. I didn't have any prejudgements about it."

A candidate who seeks a recount may stop it at anytime if he is trailing, but must let it be completed if he is ahead. "Our primary motive was to settle to a finality just who got the votes, Stokes explained.

More than 100 election board workers and witnesses for them of the four major candidates found mistakes in 219 of the 421 paper ballot precincts checked Wednesday.

SUPPORTS OF the Democrative representative, who ran as an Independent, raised nearly $12,000 for the recount. If the check of any precinct shows more than 1 per cent error, Stokes will get a $10 refund for that precinct.

It was the second recount in Stokes' political career. Five years ago, he gained a reversal of his defeat in a primary election for State representative, but a recount of the recount put him behind again.

Princess hears spirituals at school for handicapped

United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Princess Margaret heard spirituals sung by crippled children Wednesday during a visit to a school for the handicapped.

The British princess and her husband, Lord Snowdon, applauded after listening to youngsters at the Sharpe School sing such spirituals as "We Are Climbing Jacobs's Ladder" and "This Land Is Your Land."

The princess was taken to the Sharpe School because of her great interest in handicapped and underprivileged children. The youngsters, some deformed from birth, demonstrated how they were learning to use artificial limbs and special devices.

After viewing the training classes, the princess and her husband were escorted to the school auditorium to hear a number of spirituals. The couple applauded vigorously.

A small boy was rolled up to the princess in a high-backed wheelchair. In a carefully prepared speech, he told her: "We shall always remember your visit with us, and trust that you will carry back to England a remembrance of all the goodness we have for you in our hearts today."

From the school, the princess and her party went to a small park in northwest Washington named in honor of James Bryce, British Ambassador here in 1907 - 13. She unveiled a plaque in memory of Bryce.

Johnson jury ideas disappoint Flowers

NEW YORK, (UPI) — Alabama Atty. Gen. Richmond Flowers said Wednesday President Johnson's pledge to seek a federal law striking at all - white juries in the South is an infringement on state's rights.

Flowers, in an interview here, said that the President's announcement came as no surprise but that it "comes as somewhat of a disappointment to us on the firing line attempting to do something about it on the local level."

Asked if he felt the move infringes on state's rights, Flowers replied:

"This naturally is an infringement on state's rights. It is something that should be —and must be —adjusted on the local level. There are errors but it is mainly up to the local associations and local judiciary to clean their own houses so that federal legislation will not be necessary."

FLOWERS SAID he has constantly warned" that such federal legislation would be forthcoming if southern juries failed to return convictions in civil rights trials. But he felt that such legislation would affect only small, isolated areas of Alabama because "the problem is not widespread in the state."

In response to a question, Flowers said he had made no definite plans whether he would run for governor of Alabama next year.

Asked if he would run if drafted, he answered: "I suppose any man who has served as Justice of the peace would like to be governor of his state."

Migrants denied American reception in North—Hays

NEWARK, N. J. (UPI) —Brooks Hays, a former Arkansas congressman, said Tuesday colored persons moving into the North have been received as Americans should.

Hays, addressing the Rutgers Alumni Community Forum, said that though the North is free of legal disfranchisement "let no northern leader feed his pride by thinking that the colored northerner is free."

Hays' remarks were two places the civil rights act had little influence; "in the little towns of the South and the big cities of the North."

* * *

"IT WOULD do the South good to finally admit that it was wrong about segregation and about not giving colored citizens equal opportunity," Southern intransigents, he said, did not speak for the South.

"The white majority might have preferred to go slower in the civil rights movement but it is ready to accept the nation's judgement," he said.

U.S. Supreme Court admits new attorney

WASHINGTON (UPI) —It was father - son day at the Supreme Court Wednesday. Earl Warren Jr., son of the chief justice, was admitted to practice before the high court bar.

Warren 35, who is practicing in Sacramento, Calif., was admitted on motion of Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

The applicant's wife, his mother, and his sister Dorothy, now Mrs. Carmine Clementi, were in the visitors' section for the brief ceremony.

The chief justice always welcomes new members in the same way. He did not change for his son.

"Mr. Warren, I welcome you to the bar of the court. You may proceed to the clerk's desk to take the oath," the chief justice said as the other eight justices looked on with big grins.

Birmingham critically ill, says Miles College head

PRINCETON, N.J. — Birmingham, Ala., is a sick city, according to the Rev. Dr. Lucius Pitts, president of Miles College there.

Civil disobedience "won't work anymore," he says, because officials have learned not to resist it.

Dr. Pitts told a group of Princeton University students last week that conditions in Birmingham have improved very little since the demonstrations of several years ago were put down with fire hoses.

STORE OWNERS now notice the color of the money rather than the color of the hands that holds it, but opportunities for improved income are still severely limited, he said.

Birthday Tributes

BRIGGS — In loving memory of our dear son, brother and uncle, ST. RUPERT BRIGGS who was born Nov. 20, 1941, and passed away February 8, 1965. Loving mother, sisters and brothers.

One who was better God never made,
What would we give to clasp her hand,
Her voice to hear or her smile to see.
Oh! how we miss you, wonderful son,
That mother was you.
DEVOTED DAUGHTER,
BERTHA
GRANDDAUGHTER, VIVELA.

FORBES — In loving memory of our daughter, sister and mother, EVELYN, on her birthday, November 20th and who passed October 31, 1964.

Sad and sudden was the call,
Death has taken one so dear,
One we dearly loved by all;
Left a vacant chair to fill.
Oh one so dearly
loved by all;
Bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with
one so dear,
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how
you died,
To think you would not say goodbye.
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best.
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
MOTHER, SISTERS, BROTHERS,
DAUGHTERS, and GRANDSON.

JOHNSON — A birthday tribute in memory of our loved one, LAURA, who passed away May 4, 1960.

What is home without a mother?
All things mix world so sad.
But when I lost my darling mother,
I lost my dearest friend.
TILE FAMILY.

STOKES — A birthday tribute in memory of my husband and our father, EDWARD on his birthday, November 21st and who passed July 26, 1960.

We do not need a special day
To bring you to our mind;
The days we do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were ours to give,
We'd give it yes, and more.
To see the face of our dear one,
On this, his birthday morn.
WIFE and CHILDREN.

YOUNG — A birthday tribute to my wife and our mother, NEVA J., on her birthday November 19th and who passed away August 17, 1962.

Birthdays were gay when you were here—
A treasured gift, a kiss sincere,
Now you're gone, we miss you so.
HUSBAND,
DAUGHTERS and SON.

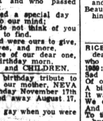
A TRIBUTE OF LOVE
TO THE MEMORY OF
OUR DEAR HUSBAND
AND FATHER

DR. JAMES TIMOTHY BODDIE

who passed away November 23, 1962.



It stayeth low in every heart,
We bear it, each and all
A load of sorrow and sadness not,
However we may call;
Yet through it all the love of our dear heart
Is with us still.
We long to see him as of yore
The kind, the brave, the true, the loving,
The works with us we more.
We long to hear his cheerful voice,
Once he had left it down,
To clasp his hand in the fellowship
Of true and honest men.
Though he is here no more!
WIFE, CHILDREN, EMERY
Children, MARCIA, VASSETT,
TIMOTHY and WILLIAM.

BODDIE — A tribute to the late DR. JAMES TIMOTHY BODDIE:

The death of Dr. James Timothy Boddie, the genial leader of the New Shiloh Baptist Church, was one of those sudden and unexpected events on November 23, 1962. Dr. Boddie was a man of many gifts: a great preacher, theologian, educator, administrator, builder, financier, and a leader of men. He was a loving husband, daughter, brother, uncle and friend. He was a man of God, a man of integrity, a man of prayer, a man who was filled with the Holy Spirit. He was a man who took first place as the honored guest with the greatest of ease. Dr. Boddie was a splendid host, a delightful companion in the truth without fear or favor. He was a lover of courage and always stood by his convictions. Above all, Dr. Boddie was a good man. To him goodness was a virtue. He was a standard of excellence, but also a moral quality of God.

He was a "faith - filled" man who ventured much for God. Dr. Boddie was one of the strongest leaders that has graced the trees of our day. The only thing that could separate him from his own high moral standard.
WIFE, CHILDREN,
ALICE, SPEEK,
SIDNEY JOHNSON

DENNIS — In memory of GEORGIA MACON, who departed this life in New York City, May 31, 1961.

Six months have passed since they came to rest,
She is not here — she has gone the best,
Six months since God's great grandson,
Took her home to Heaven above.
Now we must wait a while sweet mother,
Before we can tell you words of love.
I try to remember — she is just sleeping.
LOVING DAUGHTER — MARY (WILLIE) EDWIN, Grandson.

GODDEN — In loving memory of our son and brother, LOUIS C., who departed this life December 20, 1962.

Sweet memory in our thoughts we cherish
No matter where you may be,
Dear son, you're always in our hearts, dear son,
Because you're part of me.
LOVING MOTHER,
SISTERS and BROTHERS.

JOHNSON — In loving memory of my dear mother, BETTIE H. JOHNSON, who departed November 21, 1961:

Do not forget you, nor do I intend,
To think of you often, and will to the end.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to my memory you ever will be.
Son — CLARENCE A. JOHNSON.

JOHNSON — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, MARION NEWTON, who passed away November 24, 1963.

Until God called you away,
Oh MARION, dear, we loved you
And our hearts ache for you still;
Forgotten by some silently,
Lost in the thoughts of many,
But to us you'll always be remembered.
WIFE, CHILDREN, SISTERS, BROTHERS.

MOTHER, SISTERS and BROTHERS.

LOMAX — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, CLARENCE LOMAX, who departed this life November 19, 1962.

You fought a hard battle,
And won the victory,
Sweet memories are left behind,
To comfort you and me.
Sleep on dear husband and father,
Sleep on and take your rest,
God called you home because He loved you best.
WIFE — ALMA LEE LOMAX
and TWO DAUGHTERS.

MILLER — In loving memory of my mother, NANNIE, who passed away November 16, 1961.

Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days,
Sincere and true, in her heart was found,
Beautiful memories she left behind.
DAUGHTER, GRANDSON,
DAUGHTER and GRANDDAUGHTER.

RICE — In loving memory of our dear son, INEZ REMUS RICE, who passed away November 21, 1962.

Sad and sudden was the call
Death has taken one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.

HUSBAND and SONS, MOTHER and FATHER, SISTERS and BROTHERS.

SHEFFEY — In loving memory of our dear mother, MARIANNA E., who passed away November 16, 1960.

Two dear, bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no guile.
Deep trust in God that all was right,
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick or sufferer she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of "the other."
I know He said; "Well done, dear mother."
LOVING CHILDREN — POWELL, MARIANNA, MILDRED, HILDA, FRANCES, GEORGIE, DOROTHY, VERNON.

BOWDEN — In memory of our dear friend, JUSTINE, who departed this life January 16, 1961.

Some day we hope to meet her,
To clasp her hand in that fair land,
Never to part again.
Devoted Friends;
MRS. MARY E. COOKE and
MRS. MARIE MORGAN.

TAYLOR — In loving memory of my husband and our father, WILLIAM, who passed away November 16, 1960.

Sleep on dear one, this troubled world
Is not for you,
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our father rests in Heavenly peace,
God grant some day we'll meet him there.
WIFE and DAUGHTERS.

TRENT — In loving memory of my husband, OLLIE, who passed away November 22, 1962:

Death is a time to rest and soft, dim light,
As I face I love the best,
And think of him when the sun's gone down,
Goes down in the far-off West.
Thus I pray you no less at the time passes
Than I do on the day of your going,
For absence can never close the door of my heart
And the lamp of my love is still glowing.
Your heart was the truest in all the wide world,
You loved me the best to recall
For no one on earth can take your place,
You left only the dearest of all.
WIFE, DAUGHTER, Pinkney, and son, Sidney.

WATSON — In memory of our dear mother, ELIZABETH, who passed away November 19, 1961; and our father, JAMES, who passed away November 21, 1962.

Sleep on and take your rest,
And smiling face,
Dear mother, we recall,
Sweet is a kindly word for each,
Sweet is a deed
observed
Somebody we hope
to meet,
Somebody we know
to greet,
To clasp her hand in the better land,
Never to part again.
LOVING CHILDREN —
LORRAINE and MICHAEL.

WILLIAMS — In loving memory of my dear husband, GEORGE WILLIAMS, who passed away November 16, 1961.

Today my heart is heavy,
Today my tears are full of love,
For how I miss you, GEORGE DEAR.
None but God in Heaven can see,
The pain I feel in my broken heart;
But it isn't true,
For one day we'll be passed,
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our father rests in Heavenly peace,
God grant some day we'll meet him there.
