MEMORIAL SERVICES HELD

Dr. Boddie was leading minister of his time

REV. J. TIMOTHY BODDIE

Memorial services held Sunday at New Shiloh Baptist Church honored the longtime pastor, Dr. J. Timothy Boddie, who died Nov. 22, 1963.

An enduring memorial to Dr. Boddie was unveiled by the present pastor, the Rev. Harold A. Carter.

Highlighting the impressive rites were tributes that told of the outstanding accomplishments of the dynamic minister who was civic, church and community leader in the city and state. Dr. Boddie was also an important figure nation-wide in the Baptist church.

Deacons Leonard Coleman and Bernard Jones recalled Dr. Boddie as one of the great ministers of his time and a noted administrator. Sisters Mary Frazier and Violet Scales recounted his career as an educator and missionary of note.

Dr. M. C. Allen, president of Virginia Seminary and College at Lynchburg, Va. and close friend of Dr. Boddie many years, delivered the Memorial Sermon on the theme, "The Living Works of the Late Dr. J. Timothy Boddie."

A special salute was given his wife, Mrs. Emery M. Boddie, and children, Marcia, Vashti, Timothy Jr. and William. Mrs. Boddie and her husband worked together as a team to make New Shiloh a leading church in the city during Dr. Boddie's 21 years pastorage.

Noteworthy among the many significant programs Dr. Boddie instituted was the system of finance that allowed vast improvements on the church yet kept the congregation free from debt.

Deacon Willie Simms gave invocation and led the responsive reading and chant. Prayer was by Deacon Noah Jordan and benediction by the Rev. Mr. Carter. Music was by Miss Frances Watkins, organist; the Rev. Mr. Carter, soloist and the combined voices of the choirs and congregation.

ANNAPOLIS, — Mu Rho chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., international fraternity, participated in the fraternity's Achievement Week Observance on Sunday when the chapter conducted ceremonies in the presentation of the Omega Man of the Year and Citizens of the Year.

James Webb Jr., coach at Bates High School, was honored as the chapter's Omega Man of the Year "for his fine contributions in the interest of the fraternity," and Dr. J. Alexander Wiseman was declared Citizen of the Year.

A member of the faculty of Bowie State College, he was cited "for outstanding leadership in the community." Both men received plaques.

Their wives, Mrs. Marjorie Webb and Mrs. Rose Wiseman, were gifted with orchids by the Alpha Wives, auxiliary to the chapter. The awards were presented by Brother Emerson Brown, basileus and Mrs. Laura Burns pinned the orchids on the wives of the honorees.

Speaker for the occasion was Dr. Robert Gill, professor of History at Morgan State College, who is also a member of the fraternity. Mrs. Rose Adams, an Omega wife and mezzo soprano, rendered two selections.

University coeds tap Bill Hayes as "Mr. Montgomery"

By ELOISE RICHARDSON

ANNAPOLIS, Md. — Coeds at the University of Maryland, who live in Montgomery Hall, gave second place honor in popularity to William Wallace Hayes, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gibbs of Arundel - on - the - Bay, when they conducted their "Mr. Montgomery Contest" recently.

Seven other males vied for the coveted title which was won by Rick Pillsbury of Allegheny County.

Hayes, who is in his junior year at the university, and lives on the campus in Harford Hall, is majoring in criminology with a minor in psychology. He is a member of the school band and the symphonic band of the university.

The contest is a tradition which started when boys occupied Montgomery Hall and chose an annual "Miss Montgomery." When girls occupied the dormitory several years ago, they continued the event by selecting a "Mr. Montgomery."
