NO FOOD-FOR-PEACE

Ghana-U.S. relations seen worsened by Nkrumah's book

WASHINGTON, (UPI)— The United States has protested "completely unwarranted charges" in a new book by Ghana President Kwam Nkrumah and has rejected Ghana's request for $100 million in Food - For - Pace aid during the next seven years, the State Department said this week.

Departmet spokesman Robert J. McCloskey had "no comment" when newsmen asked whether the aid request was turnd down becaure of the book, "Neocolonialism: The Last Stage of Imperialism."

Other sources indicated there was a connection. But regardless of political consideration, Food-For-Peace official said Ghana's request was "unrealistic in terms of the needs of the country."

In the book, Nkrumah fakes sweeping criticisms of the Peace Corps, the U. S. Information Agency, the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), American Missionaries, Moral Re-Armament (MRA), Hollywood, the World Bank and the "Tentacles of the Wall Street octopus."

• • •

U.S. OFFICIALS appeared particularly annoyed by Nkrumah's remarks about the Peace Corps, which first went to work on Ghanaian soil. Its director, Sargent Shriver, has said Nkrumah was instrumental in encouraging the Corps' development abroad.

Nkrumah charged that Peace Corps members had been exposed and expelled from many African, Middle Eastern and Asian countries "for acts of subversion or prejudice."

He added: "Shriver's record makes a mockery of President (John F.) Kennedy alleged instruction to Shriver to keep the CIA out of the Peace Corps."

• • •

McCLOSKEY said G. Mennen Williams, Assistant secretary of State for African Affairs, summoned Ambassador M. A. Ribeiro of Ghana last Thursday and "most forcefully protested" Nkrumah's book, which he said "contained a number of completely unwarranted charges against the United States."

Two days later, the United States informed Ghana it no longer would consider its request for aid under the U.S. program of providing surplus foodstuffs in return for foreign currencies used largely to finance oveseas development projects.

Sources said discussions had been under way in Accra, although no formal Ghanaian request had been made to Washington. Oliver L. Troxel, U.S. Charge D'Affaires in Accra, was said to have informed the Ghanaian Foreign Office of the action.

As a further indication of U.S. displeasure, it was reported that Williams had declined an invitation to attend the opening of a Ghanaian cultural and industrial exhibit Friday in New York City.

Nabrit says U.S. sees Rhodesia as no threat

PHILADELPHIA — "We do not believe that Southern Rnodesia is now — and we hope it will not become — a and security," the Deputy U.S. Representative to the United Nations said here Saturday.

Dr. James M. Nabrit, Jr., filling in for the ailing Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg at an American Jewish Committee dinner here, added that the United States did not believe that the solution to the problem of Southern Rhodesia "lies in the use of force, or that the United Nations should undertake the use of force in any situation except as a last resort."

• • •

MORRIS B. ABRAM, American Jewish Committee president, who came to the meeting directly from the two - day White House Conference on Civil Rights, of which he was co-chairman, said "two problems had clearly emerged from the Conference, which was attended by 200 civil rights leaders from across the nation: the economic dependence of the American colored man, and racism."

Jacob Blaustein, honorary president of the American Jewish Committee and a former U.S. delegate to the U.N. presented the American Jewish Committee's American Liberties Medallion to Dr. Nabrit fcr Ambassador Goldberg.

In past years the award was given to Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Adlai Stevenson, the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, New York Governor Herbert Lehman, Solicitor General Thurgood Mar- of the Union. Theological Seminary, and Father John LaFarge, founder of the La-Farge, founder of the Catholic Interracial Council.

U.S. agency announces investment loans

WASHINGTON — (NNPA) — The U.S. Agency for International Development announced that the equivalent of $158,828,000 in local currencies is now available for loans to U.S. businessmen interested in making investments in 19 less developed countries.

Two countries in Latin America, two in the Far East, seven in the Near East and South Asia, and eight in Africa are included in the program.

Of the African countries, those having the largest amount of their currencies available under the so - called Cooley loan program are the Sudan, $2,530,000; Tunisia, $2,316,000, and Guinea, $2,516,000.

Name royal pair at mixed school

CYNTHIANA, Ky. — Two colored students were named Homecoming King and Queen recently at Harrison County High School, a consolidated school which numbers about 450 white and 50 colored students.

The king and queen, crowned on homecoming day after a parade through this town of some 6,000 persons, were Teddy Taylor and Gwen Martin.

Taylor, known as "Ted the Toe" to his fellow students, is a senior tackle on the football team and has been chosen all-state for three straight years. In September, he was chosen as one of the top 20 football players in the state.

Miss Martin writes for the school paper.

Cynthiana is located about 30 miles northeast of Lexington, Ky.

CHEESE CRANBERRY BREAD — Crunch nutmeats tart sweet cranberries and yellow Cheddar cheese blend in happy harmony to make this Cheese Cranberry Bread. Here is how to make it:—

- 2 cups fresh cranberries
- 2 cups sifted regular all - purpose flour
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1 cup sugar
- ½ cup coarsely chopped pecans or walnuts
- 1 cup milk
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- Grated rind of 1 orange
- ¼ cup (½ stick) butter, melted
- 1½ cups (6 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese

Halve cranberries; set aside. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add cranberries and nuts to dry ingredients, coating well. Combine milk, egg, orange rind and melted butter; add to dry ingredients along with shredded Cheddar cheese. Stir only to moisten ingredients. Pour into 9 x 5 x 3 inch buttered loaf pan and spread evenly, making corners and sides slightly higher than center. Bake in preheated 350 degree oven 1 hour or until done. Cool bread for 10 minutes then turn out of pan to cool. Note: Bread slices more easily if stored overnight.

Weekend's best buys

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Weekend shoppers will find fall harvest supplies holiday ready. Poultry, meats, fruits and vegetables are all laid out, ready for the picking. Choose well — good buys are to be found.

Meat supplies are adequate, but poultry remains the best main dish choice.

Turkey is in abundant supply for post - Thanksgiving eating, too.

* * *

IN THE vegetable bin, brussels sprouts, broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower, celery, endive, escarole, egg plant, greens, and lettuce are plentiful.

Also check for specials on onions, potatoes, radishes, squash, and sweet potatoes.

Apples and bananas lead the plentifuls in fruits. Cranberries, grapes, and oranges are in season — fresh and ready to eat.

Fish sticks and portions are in good supply nationally.

NOW FOR plentifuls for the Baltimore - D.C. area — Poultry will be featured at most northeast markets this Thanksgiving Day weekend, with turkeys of all sizes being in plentiful supply.

In beef, ribs will be the top buy.

Best vegetable buys will include broccoli, brussels sprouts, cabbage, carrots, cauliflower, miscellaneous greens, eggplant, endive-escarole, green onions, and iceberg and romaine lettuce. Also listed as top values are yellow onions, potatoes, curly parsley, parsnips, radishes, sweet potatoes, rutabagas, and watercress.

In fruit, there'll be plentiful supplies of oranges, grape fruit, apples, and grapes.

Shoppers should look for buys in clams, scallops, shrimps, fillets, halibut, and oysters.

Thoughts After Eating

If you think you'll be bulging
After over-indulging
On goodies on Thanksgiving Day,
You'd best stock a load-a
Bicarb of soda
To counteract midriff dismay.
It's such a great bracer,
When drunk as a chaser,
Following the last bite of dinner,
You'll swear bicarb's fizz
Without a doubt is
What's made you feel very much thinner.

Holiday hints for hostesses

Every hostess likes to dazzle her guests with unique snacks. Convenience foods have made this ultra-easy, ultra - interesting, and left the hostess with plenty of time to enjoy her own parties.

Here are a few ideas for Thanksgiving . . . and ones that will serve well, too, during the December holidays.

HOT V-8 ZIP

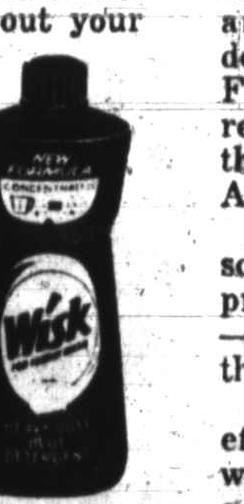
Hints for Homemakers

Well, the entertaining season is upon us again! Time for you housewives to plan the menus for those buffets and dinners, to bring out your fine linen and give your house a reassuring onceover.



It is also time for you to make sure you have a good supply of Lever Brothers' WISK on hand. Believe me, you will need it long before AND after the entertaining is done.

In preparation for your guests, you will want to remove unsightly smudges and finger marks from your walls and to give the floors is a good cleaning. WISK is especially handy for these other uses, as it does a more effective cleaning job.

With the house sparkling and all plans made, you and your guests are ready for hours of enjoyment. But it is only after the party is over that you, like me, begin to think about those food and lipstick stains on your good linen. But there's no need to worry! Simply call on WISK again. Just pour directly on the stained areas, add the remainder of your measured amount into the washing machine and simply WISK them away!

So, to make this season a success, do as I do —use WISK for before and after cleanups.

Want to be a successful hostess? Well, now is the time to take an inventory of yourself. You are already up to date on all the tricks of the trade in table setting and etiquette. You know what to wear for that special occasion. But what about your complexion? Will you look as well as play the part of a successful hostess?

If your complexion is not up to par for that special occasion, then neither are you. Now, this does not mean you will have to cancel that dinner or party. It simply means you have to cancel that unattractive complexion with regular LUX BEAUTY SOAP care. All you have to do is wash your face daily with this beauty soap. It not only acts as a cleanser, but as a lotion, too. It moisturizes your skin without the dry, tight feeling that ordinary soaps can give you.

LUX BEAUTY SOAP's exclusive formula gives you a rich lotion lather that bathes and softens your skin to make it smooth and lovely to look at and touch. And LUX BEAUTY SOAP is available in white, pink, green, yellow and light blue, in the new fluted-shape bars, packaged in a new multi-bar carton that was designed for modern homemakers.

So get LUX BEAUTY SOAP today and be a real "smooth" hostess!

Do you and I have something in common? Just the other day, I discovered that my neighbor and I do. I happened to drop in while she was doing her wash and noticed that she, too, used FINAL TOUCH fabric softener. I had definite reasons for using it, but out of curiosity, I thought I would inquire as to why she used it. And, sure enough, our reasons are similar.

She and I both agreed that FINAL TOUCH softens and whitens better than any other product of this type. It contains Lumo-White —exclusive new whitener—and has a newer-than-new softness, whiteness and ironing use.

My neighbor added that it not only works effectively on white clothes, but also does wonders in brightening colored clothes. She added that it even prevents your clothes from clinging to your body and is so easy to use. All you have to do is follow the directions and pour it in the final rinse water. It really does not matter if you use an automatic or wringer-type washer, or wash by hand; FINAL TOUCH fabric softener works most effectively in all of them.

So why don't you join my neighbor and me today, and give your wash that FINAL TOUCH luxury? You'll be glad you did!

Care to take a friendly tip from a fellow housewife? Use MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S SYRUP! Oh, so you want to know why, huh?

Well my family just did not appreciate my hotcakes or waffles. I thought it was the mix I used; so I changed. Evidently, the mix was not the problem, because they did not respond any more favorably.

Finally, it occurred to me that it just might be the syrup. I tried a few different brands until I discovered MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S. Believe it or not, it was like striking gold! There was a difference even I could really taste. And the very reason I could taste the difference was due to its exclusive patented process and formula.

MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S has a rich mapley taste and contains its own supply of butter. In addition to pancakes and waffles, it also tastes good with French toast, ice cream and hot cereals. You never have to worry about rancidity or separation problems, and it needs no refrigeration.

So pick up the 12- or 24-ounce size of MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S SYRUP from your grocer's shelf today. You'll be adding something a little different—and extra good—to your family's meals.
