NCNW, Inc., convened in D.C. Nov. 10-14

By SALLY COOKE YOUNG

The 30th Anniversary Convention of National Council of Negro Women, Inc., convening at Sheraton - Park Hotel, Washington, D.C., November 10 - 14, 1965, proved richly rewarding to the more than 500 delegates and visitors from all sections of the country, including Puerto Rico.

The delegates were exposed to the thinking and consultation of persons engaged in ... and State government as well as Labor unions.

* * *

ADDING TO the wealth of information received, was the thrill and excitement of election year, and unanimous vote by delegates to exercise an "open door policy" in NCNW memberships.

In keeping with the policy, Mrs. Polly Cowan, New York City, Director of WIMS Wednesday in Mississippi and Mrs. Mary Cannon, Washington, D.C., Women's Bureau Department of Labor were among the elected members - at - large.

Others were Frankie Freeman, St. Louis; Marietta Canty, Hartford, Connecticut; Edith Gamble, Detroit; Minnie Gadsen, Alabama; Farley Johnson, Indiana; Nettie B. Smith, New York; and Emma B. Watson, Pittsburgh.

"...BUT WHAT WILL FLYING TO NEW YORK GET ME?"

("Lots more time in New York!")

Flying time from Friendship to New York is about an hour... and when you land you're approximately 30 minutes from the heart of the city. Compare this with other travel time and you've already gained between an hour and an hour-and-a-half in New York. That's important... if time means money to you.

And consider the fast flight back. You enjoy dinner at home instead of grabbing a bite along the way.

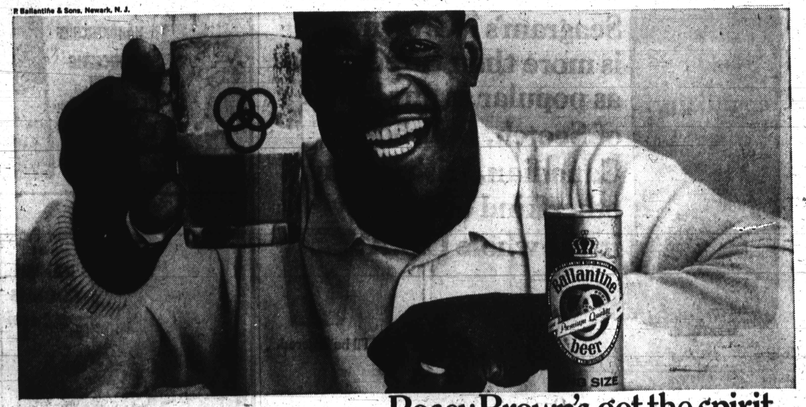

There are 34 flights every weekday between Friendship and New York, so you can make the trip at your convenience.

When you include Friendship's low parking rates, free shuttle bus transportation between parking lot and terminal and the superb service you get from airlines... flying to New York makes sense.

See you at Friendship!

Fly Friendship... your convenient airport serving both Baltimore and Washington.
