Record of shots to appear on tiny doctor's card

An inemunization record form small enough to fit into a wallet or a card case is available from the State Health Department without charge for distribution ot Marylanders through their physicians.

The form provides space for the date of the first successful small pox vaccination, revaccination and the physician's signature. Also included are spaces for each inoculation against diptheria, whooping cough, measels, tetanus and poliomyelitis.

Physicians may request these cards from their local health departments or the State Division of Epidemiology, 301 W. Preston St.

DUBIOUS bird is this Thanksgiving turkey, who knowing well that the day of thanks in the life of humans, generally has more dire meaning to his kith and kin, is torn between succumbing to the charms of Philadelphia Model Esther Benson, whose gentle touch at any other time of the year would be most desirable — or wondering if that well - known lethal-kitchen utensil in her left hand might have a particular destination—his neck. But as it stands, for a few moments anyway, what could a guy ask for during his final moments on earth. The shapely Miss Benson when not handling modeling assignments at local university art schools, is a West Philadelphia drugstore clerk.

Women's talents needed today

"Women are one of our greatest wasted resources," Superintendent Laurence G. Paquin told an assembly of a to a asse A

Paquin told an assembly of girls at Eastern High School

Although the overall tone of the Superintendent's talk was informal, he became very serious when he called for more women lawyers, doctors, scientists, and politicans.

He told the high school girls that women must deepen their interest and increase their participation in public affairs. "We can no longer afford to waste their talents," he said.

Calling his confrontation with an all-girl assembly an awesome experience, Dr. Paquin presented his credentials for offering what he called "masculine prejudices."

He is a father, likes girls, and has spent thirty-four years in public education dealing to some degree with adolescents.

He said,

"I think that girls should and act like girls.

'I think girls should look and act like girls.

"I think girls should take the time and effort to be well groomed.

"I think girls can show signs of intelligence and even of brilliance without risking their social standing.

"I think girls should aim at becoming ladies and not at becoming women which comes automatically with time."

Dr. Paquin was very careful to make sure his audience understoad his remarks as "masculine prejudices" and not as a list of rules from the Superintendent's Office.

In Memoriams

AVENT — In loving memory of my husband, LAWRENCE H., who passed away November 24, 1964:

No one knows how much I miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
I have suffered. Since I lost you,
Life has never been the same.
In my heart your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true,
There is not a day dear husband,
That I do not think of you.

LOVING WIFE-GRACE AVENT.

CONRAD BAILEY
1929 - 1964

Suddenly — the world grew cold and still — and we remember, November 29th, 1964.

THE BAILEYS (of Pimlico)

BENNETT — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, HARRY E., who passed away November 25, 1953:

They say time heals all sorrow and helps one to forget,
But time thus far has only proved How much we miss him yet.
His face is ever before us,
His voice though still we hear,
The memory of his lovely smile,
Lives on from year to year.
God gave us strength to fight it,
Courage to bear the blow,
But what it meant to lose him,
No one will ever know.

DEVOTED WIFE, ANNIE and SON — HARRY, JR.

COSBY — In memory of our loved one, LOUISE M., who passed away November 25, 1963:

No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered. Since we lost you,
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true,
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.

SON, HUSBAND and FAMILY.

CURRY — In loving memory of our husband and father, WILLIAM H., who passed away November 27, 1964:

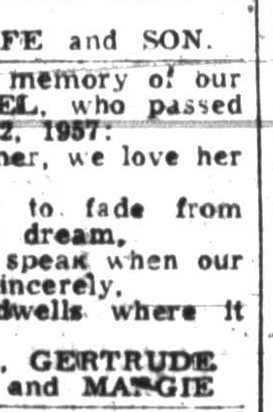
We do not forget him, we love him too dearly
For his memory to fade from our lives like a dream
Our lips need not speak when our hearts mourn sincerely,
For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen.

WIFE and SON.

HAMMOND — In memory of our loved one, ETHEL, who passed away November 22, 1957:

We do not forget her, we love her too dearly,
For her memory to fade from our lives like a dream,
Our lips need not speak when our hearts mourn sincerely,
For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen.

PAUL, GERTRUDE and MARGIE



HAYNES — In loving memory of my husband, ALFRED, who passed away November 24, 1964:

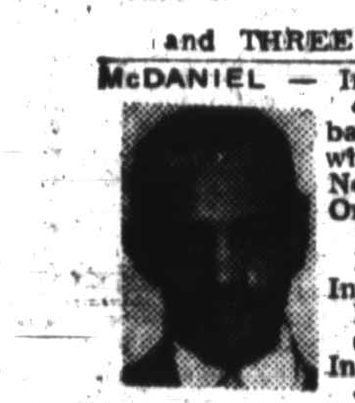
I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own!
And day by day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone.

WIFE and FAMILY.

HAYWARD — In memory of our loved one, SUSAN, who passed away, November 25, 1963:

Oh, Mother dear, when you were here,
We had your tender care;
And none can ever take your place,
Or fill that vacant chair.
Loving and kind in all your ways,
Upright and just to the end of your days,
Religious and true, in your heart and mind,
Beautiful memories you left us behind.

THE FAMILY and THREE DAUGHTERS.



McDANIEL — In loving memory of my dear husband, ROBERT, who passed away November 20, 1955:

Only God knows how much I miss him,
In a home that is lonesome and sad.
In moments of my deepest grief —
My Saviour comforts me.

ANNE McDANIEL.

MOORE — In memory of our loved one, HANNA [illegible] passed away November 29, 1951:

Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days;
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.

THE FAMILY.

SEWELL — In loving memory of our father, LEVI, SR., who passed away November 25, 1947
Somewhere above this troubled world,
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our father rests in Heavenly peace —
God grant someday we'll meet him there.
