Anti-war protestors to talk with White House

WASHINGTON, (UPI)—Spokesmen for some 20,000 persons expected to participate in a "March on Washington for Peace in Viet Nam" plan to meet with White House aides before they stage their demonstration Saturday.

Sanford Gottleib, coordinator of the march, said five of the scheduled speakers and one of the demonstration's sponsors have an appointment at the Executive Mansion to discuss their cause with officials.

The speakers will be Mrs. Martin Luther King Jr.; Rep. George E. Brown, Jr., D-Calif.; Dr. Edwin Dahlberg, Norman Thomas and Pediatrician Benjamin Spock. The sponsor will be Dana McLean Greeley.

During the White House meeting, rally participants will gather on sidewalks around the White House in support of their goal of peace negotiations and a ceasefire in Viet Nam. Two hours later, the crowd will march to the Washington monument grounds for speeches.

All slogans suggested by Gottlieb reflect the official "call" of the march, which urges that the bombing of North Viet Nam and the U.S. military buildup in the area be ended and that the United States make new and stronger efforts to start peace talks.

Marines cleared of brutality

PARIS ISLAND, S. C., (UPI) —A marine drill instructor, accused of cruelty by white recruits from a South Caralina mill town, was acquitted by a board of Marine Corps officers.

Sgt. Ronald A. Stewart, 24, of Parkesburg, Pa., was the second DI (caps) to be cleared on charges instigated by seven young recruits from Great Falls. A third faces similar charges.

"We're not petting these boys," said Capt. Leland Booth, the defense counsel for Stewart who also won the acquittal in last week's court martial.

"We are disciplining them. We are taking a grab bag of civilians and trying to make them marines," he said "There has got to be a certain amount of yelling and of correcting."

• • •

THE YOUNG marines captain told the court martial board in his final arguments that two recurrimg themes were in the prosecution's case.

One, He said, was that all the witnesses aginst the cored DI were from the same home town. The second, he said, was that they all admitted they had been doing something wrong when corrected by Stewart.

Prosecutor Capt. Thomas P. Quinn told the court martial that "it's cowardly to hit a subordinate."

'It's most cowardly for a drill instructor to hit a recruit who cannot strike back," Quin said.

Quinn said small inconsistencies in the testimony of the Great Falls recruits "negates the claim that there was a plot by the Great Falls recruits, because Stewart is colored."

Stewart declined to take the stand in his own defense today. The board deliberated three hours before acquitting him.

One of the Great Falls recruits who testified, Pvt. Ernest Poag Jr., 19, the only colored persons among the mill town boys, said none of the alleged blows, slaps or punches hurt anyone and "were nothing unusual."

$2 minimum hourly wage for all urged by King

DETROIT — (UPI) — The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Thursday night called for a minimum wage of $2 an hour to cover "all the workers of the country."

Dr. King, who outlined what he called society's three greatest problems to a large crowd attending a testimonial dinner here, said, "What this nation needs is not a glorified welfare program," but higher wages.

He said the struggle for "this type of guaranteed income is the real war on poverty."

DR. KING said the three greatest problems in this world are "social injustice, poverty and war."

"These are the evils we must grapple with," he told some 3,000 persons honoring Rep. Charles C. Diggs Jr., D-Mich. "I have not lost faith in the future. I have not lost faith in mankind."

100 Southern students stage housing protest

BATON ROUGE, La. — Some 100 Southern University students staged a two-day quiet demonstration this week demanding attention of the local citizenry, Southern University and the State of Louisiana to come to grips with the serious campus problems of housing a larger health center and more dining facilities to prevent long waits and lines.

Civil Rights group promises to widen desegregation

MOBILE, Ala. — In an announced "Face the Issues" program, the Alabama Conference for Social Justice, the Non - Partisan Voters League and the Citizens' Committee promised this week in a joint statement to widen the scope of hospital and school desegregatin surveys under Title VI of the 1964 Civil Rights Act to cover at least 20 Alabama counties.

The three civil rights movements, working as a unit, also said that investigations of public accommodations available for use by colored people will be extended to all of these counties in an effort to determine the extent of such violations under Title II of the new civil rights law.

J. L. LeFLORE, director of case work for the three organizations, said the program extension was decided on in a special meeting this week by a joint executive board representing the trio.

He also said that under his direction hospital and school desegregation surveys are presently being made in five South Alabama counties and that complaints have been filed with the Department of Health, Education and Welfare against nine hospitals and two county school systems.

The case work director further stated that they have made more than 200 "test-ins" at restaurants, drive-ins, cafes and lunch counters and hotels and motels since the 1964 Civil Rights Act has been in effect and are ready to go to court of the Non - Partisan Voters in 15 cases where colored citizens have allegedly been refused service.

Raymond Scott is president of the Non - Partisan Voters League and Henry C. Williams, chairman of the executive board. O. B. Purifoy is chairman of the Alabama Conference for Social Justice.

End anonymous spiels, Illinois Bell unit asks

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Illinois Bell Telephone Co., in response to complaints by the National Congress of Parents and Teachers and other groups, proposed last week an end to anonymous, recorded public announcements over phone lines.

Illinois Bell filed a tariff with the Illinois Commerce Commis ion which would require sponsors of such announcements to identify themselves in the texts of their messages.

On Sept. 23, PTA National President, Mrs. Jennele Moorhead, Eugene, Ore., protested that a recorded message constituted "scurrilous and outrageous attacks on the PTA by the radical rightist voice that calls itself 'Let Freedom Ring.'"

• • •

IN A letter to Frederick Kappel, chairman of the Board of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., Mrs. Moorhead said the message referred callers to phone and mail box numbers at Sarasota Fla.

"Both the box and telephone numbers proved anonymous," she told Kapnel.

Reached in Kansas City, Mo., where she was speaking to a PTA group, Mrs. Moorhead said: "I am most gratified to have the anonymity stripped away from the dial-of-hate promoters who have attacked the PTA and other organizations."

A spokesman for Illinois Bell acknowledged that the new proposal was in response to complaints by the PTA, the B'nai B'rith and others attacked in such messages.
