Rev. and Mrs. Wilson's twin daughters to bow at cotillion

With Lula Jones Garrett

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER
(Substituting for Mrs. Garrett who is on vacation)

When the Baltimore Chapter of the Girl Friends present the 31 debutantes of the 1965 season at their Christmas Ball, Dec. 30, the occasion will be even more delightful with the presence of the Wilson twins.

Taking their bow in turn will be Misses Jean Elizabeth and Jean Elaine Wilson, twin daughters of the Rev. and Mrs. John P. Wilson. The Rev. Mr. Wilson is pastor of Oak Street AME Church here.

Sponsors of the attractive young women (both Morgan State College students) are the members of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority.

The formal presentation, a highlight of many yuletide affairs, will see the Civic Center auditorium turned into a ballroom and hundreds of persons present from all areas of the Eastern Seaboard.

The out - of - town debutantes are Miss Diane Elaine Townes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Howard E. Townes of Philadelphia and Miss Patricia Ann Wilmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Winter of Centreville, Md. Miss Townes is a student at Bennett College. Miss Wilmer enters Morgan in September, 1966.
