Eastside News

By CHARLOTTE W. MASON

Our Good Neighbor of the Week is stunning Mrs. Alyce C. Gibbs, a city employee with the Bureau of Purchasing.

Our Neighbor is the wife of Sylvester Gibbs, and employee of Fisher Body Auto Company. They are the proud parents of three active children: Sylvester Jr., age 16, a student at City College; Carolyn, age 14, a 9th grader at Hempstead Junior High School and Michael, age 9, who attends Collington Elementary School.

Mrs. Gibbs has been a resident of our Eastside since moving to Baltimore in 1952.

In addition to her busy family life she is at present an evening student at Morgan State College where she is a sociology major.

The Gibbs family are members of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church. Our Good Neighbor is pianist for Senior Choir No. II. The Rev. I. Williams is the pastor.

Her hobbies include playing the piano (which she does very well), cooking, riding the bike and part-time modeling. Mrs. Gibbs also likes working with the PTA. On our eastside she is well known as a stylish pacesetter.

Her favorite dish is southern fried chicken and she likes to eat her own homemade ice cream.

Big doings are in store for members of the Communters Club (that well known group of smart matrons on our eastside who have been organized for many years).

WITH THE holiday season drawing near the group are busy as bees making plans for their usual Big Charity Project.

Officers and members include: Mrs. Ada Spencer, president; Mrs. Elizabeth Oglesby, vice president; Mrs. Mildred Thornton, recording secretary; Mrs. Rebecca Gregory, financial secretary; Mrs. Myrtle Stamper, chaplain; Mrs. Katie Henderson, treasurer; Mrs. Irene Thompson, business manager; Mrs. Alverta Lightner, sgt. - at - arms; Mrs. Rowena Norfleet, Mrs. Maggie Logan, editor, and Miss Addie Keys.

Helping Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd (Mary) Rone of Guilford Ave. celebrate Thanksgiving were members of their family . . . enjoying a grand time were Mesdames Mary Scott, Ada Spencer, Arthur Rone and Harry Beard.

The 41st annual Women's Day was celebrated at the Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church recently.

Theme was, "The Role of the Christian Woman in Our Community and Society." Chairman of the Day was Mrs. Hazel Turner who has been the organist for Mt. Lebanon for over 18 years (congratulations).

Guest speaker for the morning service was the Rev. Aileen Harris Tyler of Washington, D.C. The Rev. Mr. Tyler is a product of the public schools of Philadelphia and a graduate of Temple University.

A dynamic speaker, the Rev. Mr. Tyler spoke to the women of Mt. Lebanon last year and they were so inspired with her message they invited her again this year.

Speaker for the afternoon service was Baltimore's own, Mrs. Anethia B. Williams, a member of St. James PE Church.

Highlight of the day was the crowning of the Woman of the Year. Honor for this award went to personable Mrs. Lillian Gee (so richly deserved . . . congrats to a friend) . . . Pleasant Mrs. Annie Palmer raised the highest amount for Women's Day.

ALONG WITH Mrs. Turner, chairman, other cabinet members included Mesdames Costella Carter, Minnie Graham, Lillian Gee, Regina Smith, Josephine Brockman, Pearl Barnett and Lucinda Rucker. Also Mesdames Bessie McKnight, Maggie Brown, Anna Coleman and Pearl Williams.

Mrs. Glayds Davis, program chairman; Mrs. Ethel Jones, decorations; Mrs. Hazel Turner, music; Mesdames Anna Coleman, chairman, finance; Mrs. Mary Clark, secretary - treasurer; Mrs. Lydia Brown, Mrs. Pearl Barnett, food; Mrs. Lucinda Rucker, chairman senior ushers; Miss Bessie McKnight, chairman, junior ushers, courtesy ushers; Publicity Senior Choir No. 2. The Rev. Olin P. Moyd is pastor and Miss Theresa Newkirk is church clerk . . . Well Done Neighbors.

Neighbors, remember our sick and shut ins . . . Mrs. John Lewis at 428 Pittman Pl.

Also a very good neighbor, Mrs. Helen Frazier. Many will remember her as that long time active and faithful member of Pennsylvania Zion AME Church. Mrs. Frazier was for nearly 20 years president of Daughters of Conference.

Her excellent cooking always made her fund raising project a grand success . . . Remember when she served under the late Rev. Edwards. Drop her a note of cheer at the Carver Nursing Home.

Memory verse, "Every wise woman buildeth her house; but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands. . .Pro. 13 - 1. Neighbor you may send your Eastside news to me at 2411 Montbello Terr. 21214.

1,600 Witnesses to meet at Coliseum Dec. 24-26

Jehovah's Witnesses will hold a three-day circuit assembly in Baltimore, Dec. 24-26, it was officially announced by their governing body, the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York.

The Coliseum is to be used for the occasion, and upwards of 1,600 delegates from Baltimore and its suburbs are expected to attend the sessions.

Robert G. Holmes, circuit supervisor of the local congregations, said the assembly is not a revival, but is held to advance Christian Bible education.

The three-day program includes a variety of talks on Bible subjects. Groups of ministers will discuss ministerial problems and demonstrations will teach Christians how to conduct Bible studies. Sessions will be conducted morning, afternoon and evening with a baptism of new ministers on Saturday afternoon.

The convention's theme is "Increasing our Praise to Jehovah."

THE FEATURED speaker on the program appearing daily will be L. E. Reusch, from the Witnesses world headquarters in Brooklyn, N.Y. Reusch, a minister for 29 years, now representing the world headquarters staff as district overseer for congregations in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey.

Mr. Reusch will deliver the principal address of the assembly on Sunday, Dec. 26, on "What Does the Resurrection of the Dead Mean for You and Yours?"

All sessions of the assembly are free to the public.
