Miss Hairston wed to Thurmond Oliver

MARTINSVILLE, Va. — Miss Micabelle Christine Hairston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Hairston, was married to Seaman Thurmond T. Oliver, here, Saturday evening.

The wedding took place in the home of the bride's parents, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. C. Anderson.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie, made with a bateau neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The basque bodice and A-line worn over the dress were adorned with lace re-embroidered with seed pearls.

Her veil of illusion was held by a cluster of peau d'ange lace over a crown of sequins and seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with an elongated arrangement of fleur d' amour and white orchids, and showered with stephanovtis.

MRS. THURMOND OLIVER

THE MATRON of honor, sister of the bride, Mrs. James W. Massie of Fieldale, wore a floor-length gown of strawberry pink fashioned with a fitted bodice, quarter-length bell shaped sleeves and A-line skirt.

The Empire waist was accented with lace, and the back was accented by a Watteau panel edged with matching lace. Her circular veil was held by a crown of strawberry pink velvet flowers, centered with pearls. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of pink portrait carnations, white pompons, and pink mums.

PETTY OFFICER, U.S. Navy, Myrus Alfred Oliver, Washington, D.C., was his brother's best man.

The mother of the bride wore an A-line street-length dress of beige with rounded neck-line and lace sleeves adorned with pearls. She wore matching accessories, and the flowers were white orchids.

The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece white wool suit and matching accessories, including white orchids.

Mrs. Oliver attended the Virginia State College, Norfolk. Seamon Oliver graduated from the George Washington Carver High School, Fieldale.

• • •

AFTER THE ceremony the couple, relatives, and guests motored to the New Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church, Fayette Street, where a reception was given.

Mrs. Mary Dudley presided at the punch bowl. The co-hostesses were Mrs. Betty Ruth Hairston, Mrs. Elsie Hairston, Mrs. Sally Pearl Hairston, Mrs. Bessie Oliver, and Miss Constance Reynolds.

For her wedding trip navy-blue knit suit, fashioned with an oval neck-line trimmed in red; long sleeves, and wide self belt. She wore a corsage of white orchids lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Among the out-of-town guests was the uncle of the bridegroom, Harold Wright of Washington, D.C.

Albany State Honor Society

ALBANY, Ga. — Albany (Ga.) State College has been approved for a chapter of Philadelphia Theta National Honor Society in history

Announcement of the college's approval was made here by Dr. Jacob U. Gordon, chairman of the department of history and government.

Five faculty members and four students will be installed officially as members of this national honor society at a later date, Dr. Gordon said.

ACCEPTED for Phi Alpha Theta membership were Dr. Thomas Miller Jenkins, ASC president Robert H. Simmons, dean of instruction; Julian T. Houston, assistant professor of history; and Dr. Eugene G. Sherman, chairman of the department of sociology.

Students who will be inducted as Phi Alpha Theta members are Mrs. Marva Bradwell Simpson, Albany, Ga.; Laura Williams, Cataula, Ga.; Barbara Ferrell, Albany, Ga.; and Pearlie Mae Cox of Bainbridge, Ga.

IN ORDER to be eligible for membership, candidates must have at least a 3.0 average grade in history courses and in 2/3 of the remainder of all completed academic work.

Miss Williams, a senior and a member of Alpha Kappa Mu and Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges, will be installed as president of the Albany State chapter. Miss Ferrell, also a senior, will be vice-president.

Dr. Gordon, instrumental in establishing the Phi Alpha Theta chapter at Albany State, was inducted as a member while a student at Howard University.
