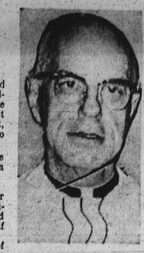
MOURN DEATH OF MORTICIAN JOHNNY JOHNSON, from left are Mrs. Margie Corpreve, Mrs. Florence R. Johnson, wife, Llyod Estep and second row, John Johnson Jr., son.

Mrs. Hudgins, golfer, was native of Md.



NEW YORK — Mrs. William R. Hudgins, an ardent amateur golfer and wife of the fromer president of the Freedom National Bank, died last Saturday apparently from a heart attack. She had had a similar seizure last April.

Mrs. Hudgins, the former Myrtle Patterson of Baltimore, Md., was playing a round of golf with her husband at Knob Hill Golf, Freehold, N.J., at the time of the incident. She was sixty-two years old.

Funeral services were at St. James Presbyterian Church, 141st and St. Nicholas Avenue. Burial is in Woodlawn Cemetery. The Blake Funeral Home is handling the body.

Myrtle Evangeline Hudgins was born January 17, 1910, at St. Dannis, Md., one of five daughters and three sons of George and Esther Patterson.

She finished at the Burroughs Finishing School of Washington, D.C., and attended Morgan College in Baltimore. She and her sisters came to New York in 1929.

Mrs. Hudgins achieved prominence as an outstanding golfer. She won the championship of the first PepsiCola golf tournament, held in Puerto Rico in x962.

She was the winner of the same tournament in 1963 in Nassau.

In1964, she was a runner up in the Citywide competition, and twice 1962 and 1965 in the United Golf Association nationals.

She was the holder of many other trophies won during her twenty one years of play.

Mrs. Hudgins held membership in the Harlem Y Golf Club, the NAACP, Urband League of New York, Jack and Jill Club, and 100 Black Women.

She and her husband, William, had one child, Jan, whose marriage to Nathan Nichols, son of Bishop Roy Nichols of the United Methodist Church, was solemnized at a brilliant ceremony this past June 24th at Salem Church. Mrs. Hudginsi s survived by her husband; her daughter, four sisters and two brothers.

drive brings CAA membership in 900 members

The staff of Community Action Agency Center 11A launched a membership drive to recruit 400 new members from the area for the Southeast Baltimore Federal Credit Union, 1500 E. Baltimore St.

From June 1-Aug. 31, the staff signed up 505 new members!

This brings the total for that Center to over 900 rollees.

Mrs. Lillian Miller won the staff competition by recruiting 285 members in three months.

Mrs. Estelle Baker placed second with 154 new members.

James R. Larson is Center Director.

SLAIN — William Trent Johns, 42, former commissioner of the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association and an employee of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, was found shot to death Sunday. The body was found by a groundskeeper at the Md. National Memorial Park on Route 1, between Beltsville and Laurel, Md. Police are still looking for his assailant.

Pack Dorsey

Mrs. Myra Pack Dorsey, 28, 1600 block Bruce Ct., was released from Johns Hopkins Hospital Thursday Sept. 22.

She was rushed to the Anne Arundel General Hospital and was transfered to Hopkins unconsciously Sept. 9, after she was found beaten on a lonely country road near Friendship Airport.

Her half-naked body was found on an old stone-run road off Camp Meade bleeding profusely.

Police quoted her as telling them she waf responsible for her condition.
