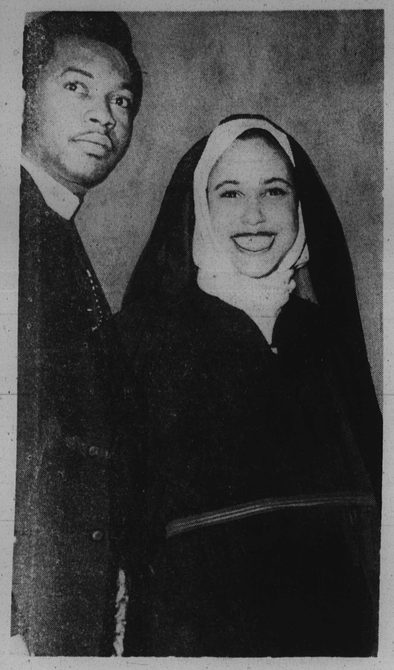
AFRO Goes to Omega Psi Phi Mardi Gras



Mel de Rutledge, Jr. and Miss Diana Lipscomb
Won prize as nun and priest.

Ramon E. Leach and Miss Kitty Wright
Southern belle and beau.

MRS. HELEN SMITH
Birthday cake with lighted candles

Ronald Pen and Miss Lynn Anderson
Came as clown and goddess.

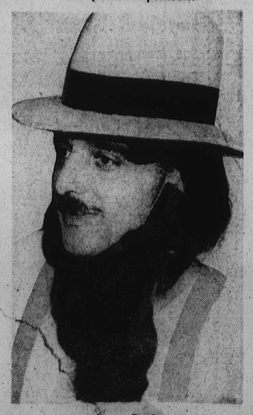
Hiram Ammons, left, Mrs. Peggy Ammons and Dr. James Priest
Hunchback of Notre Dame won grand prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Cox
Won prizes as peacocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cassidy
Won prize as mummy and goddess.

Baltimore Omega Psi Phi Fraternity's annual benefit Mardi Gras on Friday attracted 1,300 guests, many of whom wore unique costumes and vied for prizes. Some of them are shown in these photos by John Dorman. For more about the Omega affair see—RSVP by Marie in this edition.

Raymond Hatcher, Tyronne Smith, Charman Lunlig, Barbara Pompey, Anton Sawyer, Pete Pompey, Rob Hagelton, Raul Shuford, Margaretta Milburn, Arthur Milburn and Willington H. Sawyer.
Grid team won prize for best group



Robert R. Lee
In "Super Fly" costume.