well as the blacks.

"He has equally reduced the backlog of cases that has been the trademark of his predecessors.

"Under Mr. Allen, there has been speedier trials and the prejudical publicity through deliberate leaking of information has been cleaned out under his administration."

Among those involved in the drive are Sen. Clarence Blount, Sen Verda Welcome, Congressman Parren Mitchell, Rev. Marion Bascom, Councilman Robert Douglass, Grand Master Daniels, and "members of the clergy, the doctors, the lawyers, the churchmen and the laymen."

The committee states, "The issue in this write-in drive is not Mr. Allen as an individual, rather it is his excellent performance.

"For protection of our liberty, we need Mr. Allen in the State's Attorney's office to guarantee our freedom and equal interpretation and equal treatment before the law."

DEL. LEE WARNS OF TRAITORS

MEANTIME, Del. Lena K. Lee, who joins tthe supporters, warns against other candidates who have said they are also waging a write-in campaign. She notes that they are delegates who lost in the Primary.

Claiming that they never before thought of a write-in, she states that they have been ordered to "shoot Milton Allen down" by white political bosses.

Del. Lee asserts when State's Attorney Allen made known his write-in intentions the bosses "got hold of the stooges" who were instructed to confuse the Allen write-in effort.

Terming the persons who lost the Primary, "not worth a hil of beans" she says they have "used" their own race and now threaten to sell the race out to the white bosses.

PRAISES ALLEN

Praising Mr. Allen, Del. Lee says:

"The shock caused by the loss of State's Attorney Milton B. Allen was our own creation due to our disregard for the power of the ballot in every and all elections.

"Then there was that "hidden agenda" crowd that gave Swisher a black vote!

"Then there was a lack of information as to the effect of losing Milton Allen.

"The truth is that Maryland is nearing the police state status, and, I do mean Hitler's police state.

"The State's Attorney is chargid with protecting the rights of all citizens.

"Milton Allen performed his duties. He ran the best office in the whole United States.

"He had been examined and rated the best! Baltimore cannot lose him! A write-in campaign can elect Milton Allen."

President Ford's Tuesday order gave immediate 5.52 per cent pay raise for 3.5 million federal government workers and military personnel.

Ford had sought to postpone the increase until Jan. 1 on grounds it would contribute to inflation, but the Senate refused to give its approval.

Ford did turn down proposals by representatives of government workers for an 8.4 per cent increase and by an advisory committee on federal pay suggesting an increase of 7.22 per cent.

The 5.52 per cent pay hike had been recommended by the Office of Management and Budget and the Civil Service Commission to bring federal salaries into line with those for workers in non-government jobs.

Ford, in a statement issued by the White House, said the raise will go into effect as of the start of the next pay period.

He stated however, "It is clear th t one of the best clear that one of the best the taxpayer as well as the federal worker is to keep the federal budget within bounds to help alleviate current economic problems."

As another anti-inflation nary step, Ford told Congress he would cut the federal payroll by 40,000 through attrition in the current fiscal year to save another $300 million — UPI

Nixon his pension.

Mitchell said Nixon deserves only the retirement funds he got as a member of Congress and as vice-president, but none as a president who resigned under objectionable circumstances.

The House that was ready to impeach Richard Nixon has decided that his resignation does not entitle him to $850,000 in public funds for the transition to private life.

It voted 317 to 72 Wednesday for a supplemental appropriations bill which would give Nixon only $200,000 and insisted that no taxpayer money be used to transport the White House tapes to California.

The House Appropriations Committee proposed giving Nixon $398,000, but by a 343-47 vote, the full chamber subtracted $145,000 of the $245,000 request for the first six months out of office and by a 321-62 margin, removed $53,000 from the $153,000 earmarked for his second six months.

WHY WAIT FOR YOUR INTEREST?

Many Maryland banks have a 90 day 5½% Passbook Savings Plan. But—unlike them—Maryland National Bank lets you start earning 5½% THE DAY YOU DEPOSIT YOUR MONEY. Others make you wait for their quarter to start (10? 20? 80? days) before you start earning your 5½%. Not Maryland National.

Opening an account is easy. Just deposit $1000 or more for 90 days. You earn 5½% from day of deposit to day of withdrawal. Interest is compounded daily, and gives you an effective annual yield of 5.73%.

After 90 days, you can withdraw principal—and interest, or do nothing and your account will be renewed automatically.

Federal law requires a substantial interest penalty for early withdrawal.

No bail reduction for Little Melvin

Attired in all black Melvin (Little Melvin) Williams, 33, appeared in Federal Court Thursday for his bail reduction. Magistrate Clarence Goetz denied it.

He was returned to City Jail by the Federal Marshals with a bail of $400,000.

In order to be released on bail, Williams would have to pay a bail bondsman $11,320.

He was arrested Sept. 24, by the Federal Drug Enforcement from his Guys and Gals Poolroom at 2116 Edmondson Ave.

Magistrate Goetz told the court, "The black community has been most victimized by heroin. Mr. Williams has the means and connections to leave. Unless he is under extreme protection, he will not stay in the city."

Williams' attorneys are Howard Cardin and Leroy Carroll. The Assistant U. S. Attorney is Andrew Rading.

Mr. Cardin stated the bail originally set is "ridiculous." With a person facing these charges, I have never seen a bail like this.

LIDDIE JONES

"With the background of Mr. Liddie Jones, it was so horrible a bail set on Mr. Jones was only $100,000!" Mr. Cardin told the court.

Defense attorney Cardin called Mrs. Helen P. Richardson, 600 block Rosedale to the witness stand. Mrs. Richardson testified that she owned property at 2115 Edmondson Ave. and had met Williams while he was renovating his property at 2116 Edmondson Ave.

Mrs. Richardson who stated she was affiliated with Saint Anthony's Spiritual Missionary House of Prayer, described Williams as a "respectable person in the community who treated the little people very nice."

The witness told the court, she was just discussing Williams with Bishop M. D. Norton pastor of New Trinity Baptist Church, 2100 Edmondson Ave.

During cross examination Mr. Radding asked the witness the following questions.

Q. "Do you know about Mr. Williams' previous convictions on narcotics?"

A. "No I don't."

Q. "Do you know how much Mr. Melvin spent on remodeling?"

A. "Honey, that is none of my business."

ARRAIGNMENT TODAY

Williams will appear in court again today (Friday) for arraignment. His attorney stated he will enter a plea of not guilty.

Defense attorney Carroll did not sit at the trial table with the other attorneys. Mr. Carroll was seated with the members of Williams' family.

Williams purchased the poolroom in July 1974. Mr. Radding stated Williams has been charged with seven sales of heroin.

HEROIN SALES

According to Mr. Radding, the government purchased all seven sales of heroin from Williams. Mr. Radding told the court, "I will give Mr. Cardin and Mr. Carroll a preview of the trial.

"The government will prove seven hand to hand sales," said Mr. Radding. The government claims to have taped conversations of Williams negotiating sales to certain individuals.

Mr. Radding stated, "Williams and Eddie Lee Tucker were connected in drugs. Williams was involved with a man named Westcott, James T. Westcott."

Special Agent William Miller of the Drug Enforcement Administration, who arrested Williams on Sept. 24, testified, at the bail hearing.

Among questions Special Agent Miller was asked by Mr. Radding were.

Q. "Did Mr. Westcott jump bail?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Prior to Westcott and Williams going to jail, were Westscott and Williams partners?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did Frank (Pee Wee) Matthews supply Bernard Lee (Big Head Brother) and Eddie Lee Tucker?"

A. "Yes."

Mathews is from New York and faces 15 years on a conspiracy charge. He was being held under five million dollar bail. When a judge in New York reduced his bail, he left New York. Matthews is now a fugitive of the federal government.

Mr. Cardin stated, "Liddie Jones is a famous name in this court house. Today we are not comparing Liddie Jones with Mr. Williams.

"Years ago, Mr. Williams was commended by the National Guard for trying to help stop the riots. I submit to this court, this is a good man."

promotions and equal opportunity employment.

AFRO readers further question, "Who has set up the black firemen?"

HEAT ON

"The pot began to boil last week after some firemen were suspended without pay while authorities investigated 'cheating' on examinations.

Lt. Deroy Green has been arrested on charges which involve the examinations.

The AFRO first heard that 40 firemen were to be fired for 'cheating.'

Strangely, the Thursday afternoon meeting of the Fire Board was held behind locked doors and extended beyond four o'clock.

PRESS BARRED

An AFRO reporter and other newsmen were barred from the meeting.

Capt. John Horrington, aide to the Fire Dept. Chief said, "No statements will be made at this time. No one from the press will be permitted to enter."

The AFRO was unable to reach Fire Chief Howard R. Owen and board member Bishop Wainfield Stowell.

Charles Thomas, president of the Vulcan Blazers, a group of black firemen stated, "I am very much concerned about the damage this may cause in the black community."
