The making of a lady

By Marie P. Cooke
Reflections Editor

The whole charm school concept is not one that this country can take credit for. It probably came out of the Renaissance, during the 14th Century when the arts and literature came into being. Women were gracious and well-bred ladies.

In Europe, charm schools popped up throughout the continent, teaching the social graces to those who could most afford the services — the upper class. Then, nearly all young girls had some type of formal training in proper etiquette.

The concept then made its way to America.

Charm schools are not as nostalgic as one might think. In fact, there are some still around. Black-owned and operated schools, though comparatively small in numbers, are making their marks in the charm-fashion industry. Women not only want to look the part, but act it as well.

One of the black-owned charm studios in this area is Pinnie's Charm Studio, located in the home of Pinnie L. Ross in Columbia. For the past three years she has been enstilling in the minds of her young female students, whose ages range from five to eight, a sense of "complete self-confidence." The nine-week course is strictly for self-improvement.

"Surely, there was a time when charm studios were only for the upper class (whites). Blacks weren't up on them because they were too busy out there making a living," says Mrs. Ross, a professional model who was trained at the Academy of Models here in Baltimore seven years ago. "Now more blacks can afford to send their children to charm schools and they are."

"Surely, there was a time when charm schools were only for the upper class (whites). Blacks weren't up on them because they were too busy out there making a living. Now more blacks can afford to send their children to charm schools and they are."

Pinnie L. Ross,
Owner-directress,
Pinnie's Charm Studio

But why?

From her own viewpoint, Mrs. Ross says that parents don't place enough emphasis on charm, probably due to the more relaxed lifestyles. However, "social graces don't change," she says.

"Parents either don't know how to teach their children the proper way to stand, walk or speak, or either they do not have the time to do these things." Mrs. Ross attributes the new "freedoms" and maybe even women's liberation to the problem.

For example, she says, "I have gone into the schools and seen children slouching all over the desks. What they need is someone to tell them to 'sit up!.' I think there should be a course in charm, or self-improvement, in the schools."

But why not teach these things, the socials graces, at home? Isn't that the parent's responsibility?

"I've found that most children learn quicker and better when they are taught by someone else outside the home.

"When a parent comes into my home for orientation, that's before the actual registration, the first thing I ask is: 'What do you hope to accomplish from this course?' Nearly 90 per cent say they want their daughters to gain character, poise, confidence, proper manners, and good grooming techniques. Many say their little daughters are entirely too shy or are lacking social graces," she adds.

Once enrolled, the instructress takes her students, who she calls her "little princesses" through nine weeks of training. Classes never exceed seven pupils, that way, Mrs. Ross says, she can work with them on an individual basis.

For one hour on Saturdays, the little girls learn graces in motion ... how to walk, stand, turn and sit. Also, proper table manners, manicuring and pedicuring.

At the end of the course, the girls get dressed up and go out to a local restaurant where they can demonstrate what they have learned.

And then comes the big day, graduation, where the little princesses, along with Mrs. Ross' modeling students (Pinnie Ross Models) receive their certificates at the annual luncheon-fashion show. Her students were graduated this past Sunday afternoon at the American City Building in Columbia.

Mrs. Ross, wife of William A. Ross, land acquisitioner for Ryland Homes in Columbia, and mother of three, says she becomes so attached to the little girls during the nine weeks that when graduation day does come, she goes off into a corner and cries.

"I'm sorry to lose those children. I treat them as if they were my daughters. I always tell them, at the ceremony, 'You're going to leave me now, but remember to practice!'"

And so the little princesses leave Mrs. Ross and go on to become big princesses ... that's the making of a lady!

Bowie State hosts Fine Arts Festival

BOWIE — Bowie State College will host its second annual Festival of Arts, Friday, May 2 through Wednesday, May 9. Admission to all events is free to the public.

Following is a schedule of activities:

Friday, May 2, 11 a.m. — Opening Convocation — MLK Center, Honorable Sterling Tucker, Chairperson, City Council, District of Columbia, keynote speaker. Dramatic Productions of Langston Hughes' Tambourines to Glory, MLK Center, 8 p.m.

Saturday, May 3, 8 p.m., Dramatic Production of Tambourines to Glory, MLK Center.

Sunday, May 4, 2 p.m., Social Hour, Fullen Library; Cornerstone Laying Ceremony for New Library, 3 p.m.; Festival Address by the Honorable Louis L. Goldstein, Comptroller of the Treasury, State of Maryland, MLK Center, 4 p.m. Bowie State College Chorale and Orchestra in "ORFF-CATULLI CARMINA," MLK Center, 4:30 p.m. A Parent's Banquet will be hosted in the dining hall at 5:30 p.m.

Monday, May 5, 10 a.m., Art Lecture, MLK Center, James E. Lewis, Professor of Art and Director of the Galleries, Morgan State College; 11 a.m., Opening of Art Exhibitions of faculty and senior students, MLK Center; Student Demonstrations, Art Studios, 3 p.m.

Tuesday, May 6, 11 a.m. — Presentations of Foreign Languages Students, MLK Center; Trinidad and Tobago Baltimore Steel Orchestra and Limbo Dancers, MLK Center, 3 p.m.

Wednesday, May 7, 9 a.m. — Poetry Contest, MLK Center and Readings by Dean Carolynn R. Wallace; Exhibits, MLK Center, 10:30 a.m.; Alumni Convocation, MLK Center, Eugene L. King Sr., speaker, 11 a.m.; Festival Address, MLK Center, Colston A. Lewis, commissioner, Federal E.E.O.C., 3 p.m.; Elizabethan Fair, essay contest, honors presentation by Mrs. Samuel L. Myers, MLK Center.

Thursday, May 8, 9 a.m. — Lecture, MLK Center, Professor Kojo Baiden, speaker; 11:45 a.m., Lecture, James PE Complex; Badminton Demonstration, Gymnastics, Awards Presentations Exhibitions, Swimming Match. Intramural Track and Field, 12:30 p.m.

Friday, May 9, 8 p.m., Dinner - Dance - Glendale Country Club, Dean, Ada Elam, coordinator. For further information call: 262-3350 or 732-0646; ext. 227, 231, or 277.

Monica Boone, left, 15, was among those students who were graduated from Pinnie Ross's modeling workshop on Sunday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boone of Columbia. CENTER: One of the little princesses, Allyson Harris, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harris, Columbia. RIGHT: Andrea Smith, a '74 graduate, daughter of Mrs. Linda Smith, Columbia. To her left is Allyson.
(Reflections photos by Benjamin M. Phillips)

Community calendar

APRIL 25

Baltimore Alumnae Chapter, Delta Sigma Theata Sorority, Inc., "A Night in Monte Carlo"; New Hilton Inn, Pikesville, Md., 10 p.m.-2 a.m.

Lawyers' Wives, Miss Teenage Justice Pageant, Coppin State College auditorium, 2500 W. North Ave., 8-10 p.m.

District No. 8 Pageant, Robert Marshall Recreation Center, Pennsylvania and Dolphin St., 7 p.m.

APRIL 25, 26, 27

National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Gamma Chapter, Eastern Regional Conference; Holiday Inn, downtown.

APRIL 25

Drawing and super sponsored by Thompson-Miller Auxiliary, 9527 Veterans of Foreign Wars; 1335 W. Mosher St., noon-midnight.

APRIL 26

Black Women's Consciousness Raising Association of Md., Ms. Delores Williams, lecturer; Enoch Pratt Library; Garrison Blvd., 1:30 p.m.

April 26

St. Martha's Guild of St. James Episcopal Church holds annual card party; Student Union Building, Coppin State College, 1 p.m.

APRIL 27

Fashion Extravaganza, Carver Vocational-Technical High School, Presstman and Bentalou St., 4-6 p.m.

Meeting of La Leeche League, topic for discussion, "Breast-feeding Mothers", 1517 Appleton St., 3 p.m.

Designer Fashion Show and Luncheon by Willa Bland's Flair Studio; Baltimore Hilton, 1:30-5:30 p.m.

APRIL 28

Fourth District Democratic Organization to sponsor public forum, "Baltimore's Mass Transit Plan;" 1324 W. North Ave., 7:30 p.m. Speakers: Mr. Larry Reich; Mr. Harry Hughes.

MAY 1

Conference on Non-Traditional Careers for Women; College of Notre Dame, 9:15 a.m.-5 p.m.

Free Lecture, "Some American Writers on male and Female Courage" UMBC Fine Arts Building Rm. 3 col., 3:30 p.m.

MAY 2

Maryland Institute College, Annual Fashion Show, Mt. Royal Station, 1400 Cathedral St., 8 p.m.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., May Formal Dance, 6817 Dogwood Rd., 9 p.m.-2 a.m.

MAY 3

May Balg, Baltimore Chapter of Las Amigas, Inc.; McKeldin College Center, Morgan State College, 10 p.m.-2 a.m.

Wedding of Miss Sandra Landis and Patterson Bowley; 4007 Woodridge Ave., 6 p.m.

Lawyers' Wives Dinner, Meushaws Hilltop Inn, Security Blvd., 12 p.m.

MAY 3

Druid Park West Child Study Group, African "Spring Rites" dinner dance; 6817 Dogwood Rd., benefit Student Scholarship Fund, 10 p.m.-2 a.m.

MAY 4

King's Landing Women benefit cocktail party, Club Venus, 3-7 p.m.

MAY 5

UMBC Maryland Commission of the Status of Women, conference; UMBC dining hall, 8:30 a.m.-3 p.m.

MAY 5

Urban Services G, community development meeting; Forehouse Auditorium, 203 N. Fremont, 7:30 p.m.

MAY 8

"Female and Male: A Biologist's Approach to Sex Differences," free lecture; UMBC, Room 301, Fine Arts Building, 3:30 p.m.

MAY 9-11

National Convention of Girl Friends, Inc., Baltimore Hilton Inn, downtown.

MAY 10

Masonic School of Instruction, Most Worshipful Hiram Grand Lodge, May Ball; Baltimore Civic Center, Howard Room, 9 p.m.-1 a.m.

MAY 16

Eastern High School Class of 1960, 15th Year Reunion, Martin's Eudowood, Towson, 9 p.m.-1 a.m.

MAY 17

Delta May Ball, Baltimore Alumnae Chapter, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Ramada Inn, Belmont Ave., 10 p.m.-2 a.m.

MAY 24

Maryland Association of Ministers' Wives, Annual Meeting; Zion Baptist Church, 1700 N. Caroline St., featuring 'The Minister's Wife of-the-Year', 1 p.m.

Send us community notices

You can have your notices included in the AFRO's Community Calendar. Send us the dates of meetings, civic and social events, weddings, parties ... anything of community interest to: Community Calendar, P.O. Box 1857, Baltimore, Md., 21203. There is no charge.

Local club notes

Girl Friends, Inc.

The Baltimore Chapter of Girl Friends, Inc. will host its 40th Annual Conclave at the downtown, Hilton Hotel, May 9-11.

The Baltimore group, the third chapter to be initiated into the grand chapter, will be host for the third time to more than 500 members and their counterparts.

Highlighting the luncheon program during the three-day conclave will be the presentation of a check for $3,100 to the national president, Jacqueline J. Robinson of the Washington, D.C. chapter to aid in their national project, the United Negro College Fund.

The Baltimore Chapter will also present a $500 check to Provident Hospital's Sickle Cell Anemia department.

President of the Baltimore Chapter is Anita S. Wheatley who also serves as national vice president. Conclave co-chairpersons are Irma Roy and Agnes Patterson.

Lawyers' Wives

On Saturday, May 3, members will honor their husbands at a luncheon at the Meushaw's Hilltop Inn, Security Blvd. Dorothy Riddick is president.

Child Study Association

The Druid Park West Child Study Group will hold its fifth annual dinner dance, "African Spring Rites," 6817 Dogwood Rd. on Saturday, May 3, 10 p.m.-2 a.m.

The affair will benefit the Student Scholarship Fund and entertainment will be by the Sherman Lewis Band.

The group is a membership organization whose purpose is to promote healthy development of children from birth through adulthood.

Attention all organizations

Send for your FREE copy of "So You've Been Elected Publicity Chairman," an easy-to-read booklet, published by the AFRO-AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS. It tells how to write and submit news releases to the mass media. Write: Booklet, P.O. Box 1857, Baltimore, Md. 21203.

Reflections salutes mothers: 'Mom has been the bridge, ... she carried us across'

(By Doris E. Hill)

"All for one, one for all" "In unity there is strength"

Just two of the many sayings our Mother taught us. By us, I mean 10 children. Our father was a waiter making $6. per week, 55 years ago with eight children and a wife to support, yet Mom and Dad adopted two children of a deceased sister, making 10 to support.

What has happened in these 55 years of marriage which will be honored June 22, 1975 at the Immaculate Conception Church?

One daughter, with her husband has operated a retail shoe store in Baltimore City for over 37 years. She also received the AFRO's Unsung Heroine Award.

One son, is now Chief Pharmacist at Crownsville State Hospital;

Three children work for the federal government: Post Office, Internal Revenue and Social Security;

One son, one of the first black fire fighters in Baltimore City;

One son, art teacher in the public school system;

One son, owner along with another brother of a liquor store;

One daughter, cashier at one of the leading food chains;

One daughter works for the C&P Telephone Co.

That would be enough for the average mother, but for our Mother, Mrs. Sylvia Cooper, even though she has been paralyzed for over 15 years, her influence continues to flow into the next generation. There is no gap between her and her 32 grandchildren.

One grandson, is a graduate of Harvard School of Law and has his own law firm in New York City;

One grandson, graduate of Amherst College and now on the Dallas Cowboys Football Team;

One grandson, graduate of Lincoln University, majoring in Business Administration and Economics;

One grandson, graduate of Gettysburg College;

Three grandchildren now in college;

Two grandchildren working for Social Security Administration;

She still has 23 grandchildren to help lead and influence.

Another of her mottos, "Do not forget the bridge that carried you across." We won't, for Mom has been the BRIDGE in many situations. Not only has she carried us across, but she STILL is.

AFRO readers are sending in reflections of their mothers for the special Mothers Day Salute. This section, Reflections, will print the words you've written about your mother or some woman who has greatly influenced your life.

In 100 words or less, in prose, poetry or composition style, tell us about your mama.

A special gift will be presented to the mother if she is living. If she is deceased, there will be a memorial given in her honor. In addition, a gift will be given to the person with the winning essay.

Address all letters to: Salute to Mothers, k-o AFRO-AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS, P.O. Box 1857, Baltimore, Md., 21203.

Note: All letters must be either printed or typewritten.

Remember: Mother's Day is May 11.

To Mothers Everywhere
(By Gwendolyn Crowder)

Oh how great are you mothers,
Oh how great are you mothers,
To do what you have done,
To mold out the adults,
From your wee little ones.

To lead, guide and teach,
What out of life you have learned,
Is one of the greatest honors,
You can ever earn.

So mothers be proud,
You have accomplished so much,
And you will always be remembered,
By your motherly touch.

Mother
(By Charles Burton)

To one who bears the sweetest name,
And adds a luster to the same.
Who shares my joys, who cheers when sad,
The greatest friend I ever had.
Long life to her, for there's no other,
Could take the place, of my dear Mother.

M-O-T-H-E-R
M — is for maturity which has helped her always,
O — is for orchids which she deserves daily,
T — is for thankfulness we give her,
H — is for the happy times she brings us,
E — is for the everlasting love which she displays,
R — is for the rules which bring
All of the letters together to say;
What a wonderful person mother is.

A Christian Lady
(By Mary Hill)

My mother, Mrs Janie Worrell, died April 29, 1964. But I don't think I do her justice if I don't tell how sweet and humble she was. She was loved by all and was a Christian Lady.

Because of her and God I am what I am today also a Christian lady, trying to serve God and help somebody as I go along the way.

Even whenever I became sick, you both
Were there to help get me well, and that's
Just one of my reasons, why
I think you
Both are so very swell ...

I guess ... you both wondered why I never Questioned you about what you thought of
Each other, well that was because I
Am determined to treat you both as
My true and devoted mothers.
...

I also know I have disappointed you both
In many things that I've done, but Never once have I heard anyone of you
Say that you disown me as your son ...

"I Thank God ... For You Both

By Marcell Robinson

I've often asked myself, which one
Of you do I love the most?
And you
Know I never could answer that, because
You both are extremely fine folks ...

Inside Reflections:

R.S.V.P. with Marie
Columbia Capers
By Pinnie L. Ross

Woodlawn Highlights
By Marjorie Green

Seafood Series Part II

AFRO Model of the Week

Week's food economies

Baltimore Retail Food Price Report

Coming to Reflections:

"Rappin' with Barbara Ruffin"
By Marie P. Cooke

"Jeanne, Sing Your Song"
By Cynthia K. Grandison

"Home Gardening and Canning", a consumer series
By Michele L. McRae

R.S.V.P. With Marie

By Marie P. COOKE
Reflections Editor

"Making Education Relevant, Realistic and Rewarding" is the theme of the Eastern Regional Conference of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa. Some 300 sorors and their counterparts are the guests of Baltimore's Gamma Chapter this weekend.

Headquarters for the three-day meet is the Holiday Inn, downtown.

The group has planned many exciting activities for the guests. Reflections will be covering the conference and will bring you the news next week.

The 200 or more persons who were at Emerald Gardens last Saturday afternoon probably still hold fond memories from that day. What was it all about?

Kappa Chapter of Iota Phi Lambda culminated its week-long Annual Business Week activities with a luncheon and Miss Iota Pageant. Chairpersons, Josephine R. Williams and Blanche A. Williams, compiled a fine program. It consisted of items which made the afternoon an enjoyable one.

For example, the Morgan State Singers performed; I especially liked the gospel numbers. Nathan Carter, the director, received a standing ovation at the end.

Iota Phi Lambda is known throughout the country for its involvement in the community and with young women seeking higher education. Annually, it recognizes a business woman and cites her at the luncheon. This year the recipient was none other than Elizabeth Murphy Moss, publisher, AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers.

Mrs. Moss was the keynote speaker for the luncheon. Her address brought back memories to those who "remember when" ... school desegregation, the big names in entertainment, former presidents, and so on. She told where we as black women have been, where we are and where we're going.

Veteran soror, Isabel McConnell received the annual Soror of the Year Award. Local president, Blanche Pettiford made that presentation.

Kappa Chapter of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, Inc. culminated its week-long Annual Business Week activities with a luncheon on Saturday. Two women were honored and the Miss Iota Pageant was held. Pictured from L to R: Blanche Pettiford, president; Elizabeth Murphy Moss, AFRO vice-president-publisher, who received Businesswoman of the Year award and was the luncheon speaker; Fannie B. Poulson, Eastern Regional Director, and Isabel McConnell, Soror of the Year recipient.
(Reflection phohot by Benjamin M. Phillips IV)

A day at races!

The Alpha Wives and friends spent Saturday afternoon at the races ... Pimlico, of course. Sarah Elias, left, president, and Ethel Hunter appear as if they chose a winner!
(Reflections photo by Benjamin M. Phillips)

But the program didn't end there.

Another soror, Margie Garner sang, "Somebody Bigger Than You and I" and then there was the Miss Iota Pageant.

Over a period of the best couple of months, seven young women have been selling chances for the sorority's scholarship fund. And the person selling the highest amount is the winner.

Well, the girls didn't know who had won until the announcement was made on Saturday. Certainly, it was a tense moment for them, their parents and supporters.

Patricia Williams, a Booker T. Washington Junior High School student walked away as Miss Iota. Sponsored by soror Geraldine Hooper, she sold 2,000 chances.

The other participants were: Yvonne Cooper, Edmondson High, sponsored by Blanche Pettiford, 1,500; Desiree Humphries, Roland Park Junior High, sponsored by Fannie B. Poulson, 1,252; Lynette Snell, Eastern High, sponsored by June Brown, 610; Freida Thomas, Calverton Hunior High, sponsored by Catherine C. Blackmon, 1,310; Gamma Beat, Cortez Peters Business School, sponsored by Evelyn D. Wilkey, 200, and Adeline Sturdivant, Cortez Peters, sponsored by Evelyn D. Wilkey, 700.

Soror Sylvia C. Martin commentated the pageant. The '74 winner, Alisa M. Dennis crowned the new queen.

Mark your calendars for the Iota Phi Lambda convention to be held Aug. 8-13 at the Hunt Valley Inn.

Members of the Alpha Wives spent the afternoon at Pimlico last Saturday, club president, Sarah Elias said it was a fun day for the 43 persons who attended. Everybody really enjoyed the filet mignon luncheon and the special Alpha Wives race.

Members who came out were: Pearl Corely, Susan King, Marguerite Brown, Joe Kimbers, Frances Pennington, Catherine Adams, Doris Reese, Eleanor Anderson, Otyce Fros and Ada Veney.

The Stan McKenzies (Vasthi) have had week-long guests from Portland Ore. at the Reedy Brook Home in Columbia. They are Mr. and Mrs. John Fenson (Earline) who are the godparents of their first-born, Jon-Mikael. They plan to return home on Monday.

The sorors of the graduate chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc. will hold its annual May Formal dance, Friday, May 3, 10 p.m.-2 a.m. at 6817 Dogwood Rd.

The annual event serves as the largest chapter fund-raiser to aid the organization's national and local projects.

The Miss Teenage Justice Pageant will be held on Friday, April 25, 8-10 p.m. by the Lawyers' Wives.

The affair will be held in the auditorium of Coppin State College, 2500 W. North Ave.

The Baltimore Club of the National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. will hold its Founder's Day luncheon at Bluecrest North on Saturday, May 3rd at 1 p.m. Dr. Beryl W. Williams of Morgan State College and one of the group's members will be guest speaker.

Dr. Williams will also be cited as Woman of the Year by the group for her involvement in both international and local affairs. Sharing honors with her will be Miss Maria Broom of WJZ who will receive The Young Career Woman Award; Mrs. Nell Sheridan, the Business Award; Mrs. Helen McCray, the Community Service Award; Miss Hattie Tyler, the Club Founder and Mrs. Dora Braddy will be presented Appreciation Awards. Mrs. Mary S. Johnson is club president.

Miss District No. 8 pageant tonight

District No. 8 of the Baltimore City Bureau of Recreation, under the supervision of James E. Grant will hold its first annual "Miss District No. 8 Beauty Pageant" tonight, Friday, at 7 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Furman L. Templeton Elementary School, 1201 Pennsylvania Ave.

Some 16 young women, 14-18 years of age, representing seven of the 11 recreation centers in the district will participate in the program. The girls will compete in the following categories: Beachwear; eveningwear; personality; poise, grace; diction; and talent.

The prizes will be awarded to the winner and three runner-ups.

The chairperson of this affair is Mrs. Jacqueline Fuqua. Other members of the committee are: Mrs. Lossie Richardson. Miss Kay Savage; and Mrs. Mildred Thomas.

The participants are: Carroll Park Recreation Center: Sharon Molock, Janie Scitio and Juanita Marshall.

Fannie Barbour: Betty Wilson, Roslyn Crampton.

James McHenry: Shirlynn Carter and Wendy Sutton.

Lexington Terrace: Tina Johnson and Lisette Johnson.

Lions Club: Roslyn Watkins and Stenettia Kimble.

Robert C. Marshall: Lorraine Nelson, Valerie Nelson, Debra Wright and Sharon Scales.

Sharp Street: Monica Douglas.

IF YOU'RE LOOKING FOR AFRICAN ROOTS
MAYBE WE CAN HELP

The BLACK BOOK
BOOK FOR BLACK PEOPLE
Posters
Jewelry Full Line of Children's Books
2607 W. North Ave.
669-9648

ALKEBU LAN VIBES
360° OF BLACK MUSIC
Handcrafted Jewelry
Books - Incense
2022 Edmondson Ave.
Jazz our Specialty
233-5259

Your Friendly
HOME MUTUAL Agent
Is Eager To Serve You With
LOW COST INSURANCE
1740 East Joppa Road—21234
Telephone 665-2741
HOME MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
Baltimore, Maryland 21201

ARBUTUS MEMORIAL PARK
BALTIMORE'S FINEST CEMETERY
Choice Crypts For Above Ground Burial Or Lots For Conventional Ground Burial
$125 and up
ALL CEMETERY CHARGES ARE AVAILABLE TO ANYONE UPON REQUEST
SPACES AVAILABLE FOR THE NEXT 100 YEARS
CALL 242-2700

ORCHID SHOPPE
Wadsworth Robinson FUNERAL DESIGNS OUR SPECIALTY
1304 E. MONUMENT
276-6274

BRESSLER CLEANERS Inc
1935-1975 OUR 41ST YEAR
SPECIALISTS IN THE CRAFT OF FINE DRY CLEANING INCLUDING
FUR · KNITS
LEATHER · SPREADS
SUEDE · BLANKETS
PLASTIC · DRAPERIES
4002 W. BELVEDERE AVE

J. J. CUMMINGS & SONS
"Flowers For All Occasions"
REASONABLY PRICED EXPERTLY ARRANGED
MEMBER FLORIST TELEGRAPH DELIVERY ASSN.
1123-25 W. BALTIMORE ST.
Phone: PL 2-1374 1375, 1376
No Branch Stores

Bridal Register

AFRO photographer, Benjamin M. Phillips IV snapped this photo back in November just after Clarissa Johnson and Samuel Johnson repeated wedding vows. The ceremony took place at the St. Francis Xavier Church.

Mrs. Mildred W. Harriday has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Anita B. Harris to Samuel R. Williams, son of Mrs. Mildred P. Williams and the late Charles H. Williams.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Western High School and Morgan State College. She received her master's degree from Johns Hopkins University and made her debut at the Me-De-So Cotillion in 1969. A member of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, she is presently teaching in Baltimore County.

She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson of White Haven, Md. and the late Rev. and Mrs. Littleton M. Harriday Sr. of Daisy, Md.

The prospective bridegroom is former president of the student body of Forest Park High School. He was graduated as an honor student. He is also a graduate of Johns Hopkins University.

Presently, Mr. Williams is continuing his studies in the School of Medicine at the University of Maryland.

His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hiram J. Weedon of Frederick and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams.

MISS ANITA B. HARRIDAY engagement announced

APRIL 30

The Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland is holding its 177th Annual Meeting on April 30, May 1 and 2 at the Hunt Valley Inn, Hunt Valley, Md. All Maryland physicians as well as allied medical personnel including nurses, residents, interns, and students are invited to attend.

ASSISTANT FOR ADMINISTRATIVE OPERATIONS

We are a major non-profit organization with budgets exceeding $100,000,000 located in the Suburban Washington, D.C. Area. We seek an assistant for a vice presidential level position. The individual will have:

- Six or more years of progressively responsible experience in a large organization with exposure to budgeting, personnel, billing and collections, purchasing and related administrative functions, with indepth experience in one or more of these areas.
- Line management experience with demonstrated leadership capabilities.
- The ability to deal with unstructured problems in an ever changing environment.

Evidence of professional recognition and/or an advanced degree would be a plus; salary is dependent upon qualifications and experience, but will be at least $25,000 per annum. We are an equal opportunity employer and encourage responses from minority and female candidates. Submit a brief resume including salary history and the names and addresses of three references to (Box 118) c/o AFRO-AMERICAN NEWSPAPER, 628 ... Baltimore Balto. Md. 21201

Brager Gutman
For quality no matter how Little it costs!

HERE THEY ARE...
Baltimore's hottest selling Fashion "JEANS"...You name them...
•SKYSCRAPERS!
•DOUBLE ZIPS!
•FLYERS!

YOUNG MEN
FOR BOYS
FOR GIRLS

BOYS & GIRLS
value priced 5.99
Assorted fashion colors in sizes 8 to 18 regulars and 8 to 16 slims.
Boys' Dept.-3rd Floor-Downtown and All Branches

YOUNG MEN
value priced 9.99
Colorfast, machine washable, no iron fabric in sizes 27 thru 36.
Men's Dept.-1st Floor-Downtown and Westview