Many white Baltimoreans are searching for inner-city town houses just like your rowhouse. They are buying them for $1.00.

In some small streets, rowhouses are being sold for $50,000 just because owners already there have made each block a showplace.

You can make your neighborhood a showplace too with inexpensive touches. Paint-up, fix-up, sweep, polish and clean everyday, spring, summer, winter, fall.

Don't be gaudy and clutter up with things you have to buy. You don't need tires for an AFRO Clean Block. Get rid of the tires if you can't keep them painted and planted.

You don't need artificial flowers to win a prize in the AFRO Clean Block. Simplicity is beauty. Freshen up what you have in your own unique way.

"Elbow grease" costs nothing. A spotless street in the oldest section is ready-made beauty. Clean the weeds from around your trees . . . plant flower seeds now and protect them with bricks or chicken wire.

Get busy and elect a captain, co-captain and advisor in your block. Consult your Clean Block Advisor in securing brooms, and sweep each morning and evening. Get rid of all glass, cans, bottles and paper that litter the street.

Eastern Terrace

Mrs. Queenie Robinson Community Advisor, Eastern Terrace Community Council, Urban Services reports the organization of her third Clean Block, 1500 Holbrook St. Others are 200 E. Lanvale and 400 E. Biddle.

On April 30 at 10 a.m. the Barclay Community Planning Committee will meet at Guilford Avenue Elementary School, 1634 Guildford to announce the winners in the Clean Block Poster Contest.

Nat Parks, HCD City Planner will talk on houses to be demolished and play areas being planned.

City Garden Contest

The first annual inner city summer garden contest is being sponsored by the Beautiful Baltimore, Inc. committee to stimulate and promote interest in vegetable and flower gardening in the inner city area.

The contest is a continuing effort of the committee to beautify the city and reward those who have outstanding entries, according to Mrs. Barr Harris, president of Beautiful Baltimore, Inc.

The contest may be entered by individuals or community groups. The one major requirement of the contest is that the garden MUST BE VISIBLE TO THE PUBLIC FROM THE STREET. First prize in each class will be a $25 Savings Bond; second prize in each class will be $15; third prize in each class will be $10. Each winner will also receive an Award Certificate.

Entries will be judged on such matters as overall appearance, choice of material, arrangement, maintenance, variety and general effectiveness in relation to home and community. Those that enter the contest need not be home when the gardens are judged since they have to be seen from the street.

Enter the First Annual Garden Contest of Beautiful Baltimore, Inc. by writing 303 Oakdale Road, Balto., Md. 21210.

March Funeral Home, 928 East North Avenue on Monday, at 7 p.m. Interment will be private.

WATKINS — On April 22, 1975, DOROTHY M. (CHEW), of 1707 Chilton Street, devoted mother of Mrs. Lena E. Satterwhite, Miss Mary L. Watkins, Mrs. Charlotte I. Waters, Mrs. Jeanette Johnson, Mr. William E. Watkins, Mr. Jerry J. Watkins and Mr. Thomas J. Johnson Jr. She is also survived by sixteen grandchildren, mother, five sisters, five brothers and other relatives. Friends may call at the William C. March Funeral Home, 928 E. North Avenue, on Thursday after 6 p.m. Remains will lie in state at St. Francis Catholic Church, Caroline at Oliver Street on Friday at 5 p.m. Christian wake services at 8 p.m. Mass of the Resurrection on Sat., at 10 a.m. Interment in New Cathedral Cemetery.

In Memoriam

MURPHY — In Blessed memory of a beloved aunt, FRANCES L. MURPHY, who died April 29, 1958, at the age of 84. I shall always remember her as a loving teacher, mentor and advisor to her community, through the AFRO Clean Block Campaign which she initiated, as well as to those who were privileged to call her "Aunt Frank."
They never quite leave us, our friends who have passed
Through the shadows of death to the sunlight above;
A thousand sweet memories are holding them fast
To the places they blessed with their presence and love.
The work which they left and the books which they read
Speak mutely, though still with an eloquence rare,
And the songs that they sang, the words that they said,
Yet linger and sigh on the desolate air.
Her Niece—
ELIZABETH MURPHY MOSS

MINTER — In loving memory of our dear mother, GOLDIE A. MINTER, who passed away April 22, 1971: God made lots of beautiful things:
Sunset and roses and trees,
Brids and starlight and loyal friends
And, after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare,
More loving and more true,
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare . . .
A Mother as dear as you.
YOUR DEVOTED CHILDREN

McNEILL — In memory of my beloved husband, LACEY McNEILL, who passed away April 25, 1974:
"GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN".
Your Loving Wife,
MARY ALICE McNEILL.

In Memoriam

HUNDLEY — In loving memory of my husband and our father, BENJAMIN CARRINGTON HUNDLEY, who passed away April 30, 1973:
Your gentle face and patient smile
With sadness we recall.
You had a kind word for each,
And died beloved by all.
The voice is mute and stilled - The heart
That loved us well and true,
Ah, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you.
Loving Wife—
MRS. FANNY HUNDLEY
Loving Stepchildren—
DOROTHY ANDERSON,
CAROLINE JOHNSON,
JOHNNIE, JIMMY,
JAMES KESLER.

PETERS — In memory of our dear brother, WILLIAM W. PETERS, who passed away April 23, 1973:
"GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN."
SISTERS and BROTHERS.

PRICE — In memory of my husband and our father, CHARLES DEWITT PRICE, who passed away April 26, 1968:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best,
Oh, God grant you eternal rest.
THE FAMILY.

RAWLINGS — In loving memory of our loved one JOSEPH EDWARD RAWLINGS, WHO passed away April 23, 1974:
A broken circle, a vacant chair,
We seem to miss you everywhere.
But in our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of you are very near.
Sister—
ELIZABETH DAVIS—
NIECES—NEPHEW—
and GREAT-NEPHEWS.

KITCHEN — In loving memory of my husband and our father, MELVIN M., who departed this life one year ago, April 26, 1974:
'Twas a long time ago you came into my life.
'Twas a long time ago you made me your wife.
And we had our days, good and bad.
Sometimes we were happy, sometimes sad,
But now I miss you so much,
We can't converse anymore,
can't keep in touch.
Someday, I'm sure we shall meet again.
I will remember you.
I hope you'll remember me.
Loving Wife—RUTH,
Children—EVELYN,
MICHAEL, RODNEY
& GRANDCHILDREN.

GHOLSTON — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, WILLIAM GHOLSTON, who passed away April 29, 1973:
We seem to see in the soft dim light
A face we love the best . . .
And think of him when . . . the sun's last ray
Goes down in the far . . . off West.
We miss you no less as the time passes on
Than we did on the day of your going.
For absence can never close the door of our hearts
And the lamp of our love is still glowing.
Your heart was the truest in all the wide world
Your love the best to recall.
For no one on earth can take your place,
You are still the dearest of all.
Loving Wife—
HELEN
Children—
AUNDREA and CALVIN.

In Memoriam

COOKE — In Loving memory of my dear husband and father, REV. CARLTON O. COOKE, who passed away April 24, 1974:
No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered. Since we lost you
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true.
There is not a day, dear loved one
That we do not think of you.
Devoted Wife,
VERA
Loving daughter,
SYBIL

COOKE — In loving memory of our beloved pastor, REV. CARLTON O. COOKE, who passed away April 24, 1974:
Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days
Sincere and true in his heart and mind,
Beautiful memories he left behind.
Oftentimes we can not understand,
Nor can we see the Master's hand,
That calls to realms of Heaven above,
The soul of one we dearly loved.
UNION BAPTIST CHURCH.

BLAKE — In loving memory of my dear father, CHARLES BLAKE, who departed this life April 28, 1963:
"GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN."
Daughter—
THELMA GREEN.

..BROOKS — A Tribute of love to the memory of our dear mother, MARY C. Brooks, who passed away April 22, 1947:
What is home without a mother?
All things this world may send,
But when we lost our darling mother
We lost our dearest friend.
Devoted Children—
MARY YANCY,
HELEN HOLLOWAY,
ALICE BOWEN,
HARRY LEE BROOKS.

BUTLER — In loving memory of our dear mother, ROSA L. BUTLER, who passed away April 24, 1961:
Somewhere above this troubled world
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our mother rests in heavenly peace.
God grant some day we'll meet her there.
Loving Children—
WILLIAM FOWLER and
ROSA F. BRIGHT.

CHICHESTER - MOODY — A tribute to the memory of my dear husband, JOSEPH H. CHICHESTER, who passed April 21, 1970; and my mother, ALICE J. MOODY, who passed May 16, 1954:
God saw you getting weaker
And He whispered, "Come and rest."
His garden must be beautiful,
For He only picks the best.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of me went with you,
The day God called you both home.

In Memoriam

HARVIN — In loving memory of our beloved one, FRANK HARVIN, who passed away April 25, 1959:
We often sit and think of you when we are all alone.
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own;
Like ivy on the withered oak,
When all other things decay,
Our love for you will still keep green,
And never fade away.
Loving Wife—
EDNA & CHILDREN.

HILL — In loving memory of our dear mother, KATE HILL, who passed away April 24, 1947:
Our mother has breathed her last breath;
Passed into what we call, but miscall death.
Death it is not, but one step more of life.
Eternal where there is no pain, no strife.
And we shall see her on that Other Shore,
Never to part again, forever more.

Thanks to my many friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness shown during my recent bereavement in the passing of my husband, May God bless you.
Wife, MRS. DOROTHY MAE JOHNSON.

PERCY LANE SR.
THANK YOU
Perhaps you sang a lovely song,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,
If so, we saw them there;
Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all
Just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food,
Or maybe furnished a car;
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,
Near at hand or from afar,
Whatever you did to console the heart,
We thank you so much — whatever the part.
The Family of the Late
MR. PERCY LANE SR. &
Sister—
MRS. FLORENCE MITCHELL.

PETERS — The Family of the late Robert K. Peters, wishes to express its gratitude to the many friends and neighbors, the Rev. W. P. Mitchell and Rev. Birthday Tribute

TAYLOR — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my dear wife, ISABEL E. TAYLOR, on her birthday, April 28th, who passed away March 10, 1974:
The roads were getting very rough
Her hills were hard to climb,
God gently closed her loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
Husband—
JAMES H. TAYLOR.

HICKS — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our loved one, MRS. BERTHA HICKS, on her birthday, April 25, who passed away December 26, 1974:
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true.
There is not a day, dear,
That we do not think of you.
God gave us a gift more true
A wonderful person most fair,
A mother dear as you.
Though you are no longer with us,
Precious memories still linger,
No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain,
We have suffered, since we lost you,
Life has never been the same here.

SMITH — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of MICHAEL JEROME SMITH JR., on his birthday, April 26, who passed away September 24, 1972:
When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears;
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start bravely with a gallant smile,
And for my sake and in my name;
Never be afraid to die;
For I am waiting for you in the sky.
Loving—FATHER,
MOTHER, SISTER,
GRANDMOTHER,
GREAT-GRANDMOTHER,
and UNCLE.

ANDERSON — A Birthday Tribute in the memory of ETHEL ANDERSON, on her birthday, April 29, who passed away April 21, 1967:
We do not need a special day,
To bring you to our minds;
The days we do not think of -
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were ours to give.
We'd give it, yes and more,
To see the face of our dear loved one
On this, her Birthday Morn,
