Hopkins campaign bags $2 million

(UPI) — The annual fund-raising program at the Johns Hopkins University has exceeded $2 million for the fourth consecutive year, School officials said Wednesday.

A final figure of $2.1 million was announced by the campaign Chairman Robert W. Thon Jr., chairman of the board of the Savings Bank of Baltimore.

University President Steven Muller said the success of the fund drive was "truly remarkable."

"Not only do these results signify the depth of loyalty that exists among our alumni and friends, but they signify that we will be able in the coming years to continue to provide the highest quality eeucation as well as meet rising costs of operation and adequately fund student financial aid programs," Muller said.

Hopkins officials said 14,662 alumni and friends contributed to the 1975-1976 campaign. Compared with 13,168 donors and $2.05 million contributed the previous year.

Among alumni donors, the top class in dollar amounts was the class of 1925 whose members contributed $105,762 in the school of medicine, the class of 1954 ranked first with $33,764.

The first law limiting the working hours of women to 10 hours a day was passed in Ohio in 1832, according to "Important Events in American Labor History," published by the U.S. Department of Labor.

liams, Charles and Louis Matthews. There is a picture of Earline's great-uncle, Remus Adams, hanging in the historical room at the Catonsville library.

Mr. Adams was a blacksmith here and owned the land on which Catonsville Elementary School now stands Good luck, Earline with your project. I bet there are other families who can trace their family to generations back in Catonsville.

Congratulations to Brenda Craddock, Edmondson High School senior and to Yvonne Trogdon, Fundstown Senior High School junior who were selected to serve on the "Teen-Age" Board at Hochschild Kohn. There are eight on the board and Brenda and Yvonne are the only blacks — youth.

Recent visitors to Baltimore to attend the funeral of William Harry Newton were: Mrs. Gladys W Pinderhughes of Washington, D.C. and her son, Dr. Charles Pinderhughes (Elaine) who is a psychiatrist in Boston, Mass.

Many remembered Charles when he attended school, in Baltimore. All of us enjoyed the story of Mrs. Pinderhughes in the August issue of Ebony when she visited Africa with her grandson. The Pinderhughes' are Laura Newton and Ethel Hucles (Howard) cousins. Many old friends visited the Pinderhughes while they were guests at Laura's.

Other old friends who visited with Laura Newton were Lillian Black, Griffin Tilghman and her husband, W. Richard Tilghman.

"Lil" served in the Baltimore City school system for 28 years and served as principal in South Baltimore prior to her leaving to live in Kansas City, Mo.

She and her husband have both retired from the Kansas City School System, he as an administrator and she from special educational projects, where she served for 19 years. She is the only black person to serve on the Presbyterial Council and is usually the only one present in the meetings that she attends all over the country. She is looking "good."

The Baltimore Chapter of the NAACP will hold its membership dinner, Sunday, Sept. 26 at the Lord Baltimore. Try to come out and support this worthy cause. The tickets are $15 person and includes cocktails and dinner. Make this a must on your calendar.

There will be a joint installation of officers of the American Legion Post No. 263 and its auxiliary on Sunday, Oct. 3, 4 to 7 p.m., in the Banneker Center Auditorium. All are welcomed — Thomas Randall is commander.

I promised you more about Venciedore Kane, president of the Senior Usher Board, at Morning Star Baptist Church.

She was born in tht Baltimore area but grew up in Catonsville. Her early childhood education was received here in Catonsville, and she graduated from Douglase High School. She furthered her education at Morgan University where she earned an A.B. degree and a master's degree in elementary education.

Venciedora joined Morning Star after her marriage into a family of long standing in the church, Louis (Fuzzy) Kane, an assistant principal at Edmondson High School and is the mother of Robin, who is a college student.

I know what a great person this "gal" is because we worked together for several years, more than she may want to remember. She has always been a dedicated person. Her students are blessed to have her as a teacher.

We will use Venciedora's motto for Christian living: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

Have a good weekend and also a good week!
