William Jordan, and Chandler and Oberlin Perry. Friends who went along for the fun were Agnes and Herman Clayton, Ruth and George Ricks, Donnie Johnson and Ratie Parker.

The group met many nice people, made some new friends and it was the comment of one of the travellers: "The trips are getting bigger and better."

The GFT Enterprises hosted a gala pre-Labor Day disco on Friday, August 24 from 9 p.m. until 1:30 a.m. FGJ Enterprise is owned by Irving L. Green, Jr., James Fitzpatrick and Warren Jordan.

This fun filled affair was held at Kahler Hall in Columbia Maryland. Inspite of a torrential downpour prior to the evenings festivities, many guests braved the storm to come out and avail themselves of the evenings entertainment. Hostesses for the gala were the company owners wives, Mesdames Dorothy Green, Helen Fitzpatrick and Emma Jordan.

Disco disc jockey Wild Bill, of Baltimore's Federal Lounge, was in his usual rare form, spinning the latest in pop music, and guests boogied down and enjoyed cocktails and munchies all evening.

Many lovely prizes were won by guests who held the lucky ticket stubs.

GFJ Enterprises is a company which has recently organized to provide a unique car service to the Baltimore Metro and surrounding areas. You will be hearing more from them, not only about their auto service plan, but other benefit and pleasure affairs they will be hosting.

Among the guests attending the disco were: Messeurs and Mesdames Walthall Berry, Joseph Press, Jasper Clay, Ron Anthony, Nesbitt Brown, Carl Hood, Alfred Bracey, Rochell Brown, Frank Evans, P.C. Bullock, Ellwood Hill and William Jerkins.

Also: Dr. and Mrs. Earl Embry, Mr. Gloria Gary, M s. Jackie Williams, Ms. Anita Lawson, Ms. Gloria McNaulty, Ms. Althea Bates, Ms. Joyce Jordan and also; Charles Faison, Ernest Moy, Harry Scribner, Lee Hackett, Debbie Green, Charls Jackson, Tony Jordan, Kenneth Green and Kevin Fitzpatrick.

Martin Hales, a senior teacher with the Baltimore City Public Schools, recently returned from a highly fun-filled and excitingly stimulating European vacation.

During the month of August Mr. Hales visited Vienna Austria. Here he took a cruise on the Blue Danube and enjoyed a relaxed time, with a delicious new drink called fruit vodka (made from vrdka and chopped fruit) spicing up the jaunt.

He also visited the University of Vienna, the Spanish Court Riding School, the Parliament of Viennma, the State Opera House of Vienna and The Big Wheelsen the Prater.

From Vienna, Mr. Hales moved onto Budapest, Hungary. Here he visited the historic St. Michael's Cathedral, scenic Lake Balaton and the interesting National Museum of Budapest.

Also on his agenda of enjoyment was the informative Parliament of Budapest and an entertaining Gypsy Dinner and show.

Since he had a long layover in Amsterdam, Holland, Mr. Hales also visited the city and enjoyed the sights.

What a way to end the summer.

Superman, The Incredible Hulk and Star Wars Darth Vader were at the Electric Eye, 6307 Reisterstown Rd., on Sat. Sept. 1, for a kiddie disco.

The four hour disco was sponsored by the Electric Eye. The youngest seen on the floor doing the rock was a 15 month old girl dancing with a 4-year-old.

Winners of the contest were Comalita Hayshert, 8 and Reno Silver, 10; 1 who won a dozen crabs from Mr. K's crab house; cash, an electric eye tee shirt, disco belts and records;

Second and third place winners were Tasha Coleman, 7; Edward Jackson, 8; and Sesan Thomas, 13;

Adults who attended the kiddie disco were parents of the participating youngsters. They were fascinated by the versatility of the children's dancing and learned many new steps from them.

DISCO KID — Little Miss Comalita Hayshert does a mean disco at the Kiddie disco party sponsored by the Electric Eye on Reisterstown Rd., Saturday, Sept 1.

DOING THE DOG — Little eight - year - old Edward Jackson III, son of Juanita and Edward Jackson of this city has a ball at the kiddie disco sponsored by the Electric Eye on Reisterstown Rd. on Saturday, Sept. 1.

Tattle Tales

Dirty Doings this Primary have victims kicking and screaming and on - lookers bent double with laughter.

Sneaky is the word for some of the big guns in the war for votes.

You take one candidate's plan to reduce his bosom-enemy candidate's chances to a no - vote status. It was wicked, real wicked.

On a knock - on - every - door mission, this devilish candidate noted a whole block of lawn signs inscribed with a foreign - type name.

Quickly calling for some of the neighbors to come outside, this bad, bad candidate asked, "

Yawl rooting for a Korean to get a seat in City Council? Shame!"

Taking another look the neighbors fell victim to the power of suggestion and snatched down the signs replying, "Lord, no. We don't want them people that's over here taking our jobs, to get elected."

"All's fair in love and war and this primary ain't love by an means.

A husband - wife team was on duty hepling an after dark dirty tricks gang ruin some gas tanks of cars designated for a rival political caravan the next day.

The generous housewife was pouring sugar into various car tanks when the husband noticed the 5 - pound bag was getting low.

He hoolered," Damit, sweet heart. Hall a cup is enough for one car.

We've still got a lot of cars to go and you know damn well sugar is expensive, don't you?"

Changing horses in the middle of the stream is an old political trick and plenty candidates fail to come up with the cash for parties and printing of ballots at the last minute.

This past week one political club all set to give a big breakdown for the mayor and ready to print his name on their election day slate, had a screaming, kicking and foaming - at - the - mouth fit when his aides claimed there was no more money in the kitty.

Mad as Satan at the North Pole, the club members had to call off then order for watermelons, turkey salad, macaroni and shrimp, wine and cheese, little paper plates and napkins.

Two other guys invited to kick in some cash to get in on the party and their names printed on the slate, also bowed out pleading very well poor - as - church - mice and broke - as - bread. Another said he could get hold of some food stamps," if that'll help.
