otherwise) and just wanted to celebrate. Everyone seemed glad for Norm and celebrate they did.

Between their feasting on a variety of dips, munchies and cheeses and sipping of cocktails of every variety, with a background of pleasant music flowing throughout the house, a few reactions to the Reeves win were garnered.

From one guest: "I feel ecstatic! It's a great feeling." From another: "I think it's marvelous and long overdue."

Ray Harcum, C.C.B. instructor, when quizzed on the presence of many whites at the party, which made for a well-integrated group, had this to say: "I feel that he (Norm) represents all of the people. He has a definite purpose and a base. What he wants is what we all want. He's intelligent and he speaks out for what is right."

Clearly, everyone there felt that, for his purpose, Norm is the man of the hour. Represented were folks from all walks of life. Hostesses Colyn Harrington and Beth Boyd were kept busy replenishing the party table.

Some of the guests on hand for this night of celebration and thanks were: Walter Orlinsky, president of the City Council., Delegate John Douglass, 45th D., Howard (Pete) Rawlings, Del. 40th D., Atty. A. Dwight Pettit, Jeannette Braverman, of the NDC 5, Mrs. Elva Edwards, Associate Director of Urban Services, Judge and Mrs. Milton Allen, and Ms. Jeannette Wade, a close family friend from Washington, D.C.

About Faces

About Faces 21 Ltd. held its festive "Fall Disco" on Sat., Nov. 10 at the Carriage Hill Clubhouse in Randallstown.

This B.Y.O.B. affair was attended by over 150 people.

The club had provided delicious party trays and the music by disco d.j.'s "George and Tweedy" was out of sight. Guests sipped, snacked and danced from 9 p.m. until 1:30 a.m. and everyone had a ball.

Special highlight of the evening was a dance contest, during which many guests tried to outdo each other with the latest jazzy disco steps.

Winning couples, who each got a bottle of spirits, were Andre Smith and Jarrette Christian and Hezzie T. Sessomes III and Sawn Bell.

The atmosphere at this affair was so warm and friendly that when the lights came on signaling the end of the affair, no one seemed to want to leave. Guests lingered, chatting and joking for at least a half hour longer.

Officers and members of About Faces 21 Ltd., which is a civic-social-charitable club are: Mrs. Wilma Janey, acting president, Mrs. Yvonne Mason, secretary, Ms. Teresa Scott, assistant secretary, Mrs. Barbara Lee, treasurer, Mrs. Stella Richardson, sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Arbia Baker, chairman of the board;

Also other board members Ms. Joyce JUJordan, Miss Gertha Smoots and Mrs. Priscilla Mangum.

Others members are: Ms. Vivian Young, Ms. Hermia Graham, Ms. Shella Evans, Ms. Shella Christian, Ms. Violet Miles, Ms. Dorothy Harvin, Ms. Marilyn Bailey, and Mrs. Cora Townes. Mrs. Townes chaired the committee which coordinated the affair.

Anniversary Party

A surprise anniversary party was given by Mesdames "Jackie" Ambush, Brenda Clayburn and Misses Elaine Fenwick and Cynthia Johnson, of the Baltimore Police Dept., for Mrs. Frances T. Evans, who celebrated 20 years of service at the Western Police Station recently.

This gala affair was held at the fashionable home of Mrs. Clayburn of Druid Park Drive, on Nov. 2.

Celebrating with Mrs. Evans were her family, friends and host of co-workers.

The Gals

The Gals, a social club of Charm City held their second skating party of the year at Disco Skate on Pulaski Highway on Nov. 12, from 7:30 until 10:30 p.m. Chairperson of the affair was Audrey Harden.

The Gals' purpose for giving this kind of affair is to provide another avenue for adults over 21 to relax, meet old acquaintances and make new friends, and for pure skating enjoyment.

The party was well attended and The Gals wish to thank those who came out to join the fun.

Round-up Party

Sixty Virginia State University alumni and their friends gathered for a "Round Up Party" on Saturday Evening November 9, 1979 at ChiAnele.

The fun-filled evening was planned as an initial attempt to re-activate A. V.S.U. Alumni Chapter in the Maryland area.

Lester Riddick served as "M.C." for the evening activities.

Lester Riddick served as "M.C." for the evening activities.

Verdell Adair, who served faithfully as president of the active group, brought greetings and an explation for its inactivity during the past two years.

He also explained that due to pressures and personal commitments while studying for his doctoral degree, makes it imperative that his role, at this time, become supportive rather than one of leadership.

After the singing of the V.S.U. "Evening Song, the group continued its activities by dining and dancing to music furnished by Les "The Rubber Man" Hearns, class of '69.

The next meeting has been scheduled as organizational meeting and will be held on Friday, December 7, 1979, 8 p.m. at ChicAnele, 3302 Park Circle Drive.

Members of the interim planning committee were Janice Cromwell, Lester Riddick, Mattie Riddick and Joe Press.

Family Reunion

The Jhnson family of Prospect, Va. recently held its family reunion at The Black Art Museum on Carswell St. in Baltimore.

All family members are descended from Jacob and Martha Johnson.

Five generations were represented and relatives attended from Pennsylvania, New York, Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

During the formal program, there were solos done by family members; the welcome by Mrs. Catherine Milton, grandaughter of the matriach and patriach; the occasion by Charlotte Wallace, a family cousin; the response by Ms. Ross Stewart, another family cousin; the grace by the Rev. Calvin Hill, still another family cousin.

After a delicious dinnerr, Ernest Dandridge, family member and a retired principal of the Charlestown, W.Va. school system gave the main speech of the occasion.

Following this there was a family discussion, during which it was announced that there would be another family reunion in 1980.

Closing remarks were made by Mrs. Catherine Milton, who was also the chairperson for the 1939 reunion.

AKA goes to Supreme Court

In a unique move, a large national sorority of black women has taken its interest in civil rights to the United States Supreme Court.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., representing more than 70,000 college-educated women, has filed a brief as a "friend of the court" in the case of Fullilove vs. Kreps.

The case, which is expected to result in a landmark decision by the court, raises the issue of constitutionality of the federal government's program to set aside a portion of its contract grants for minority contractors.

The sorority filed the brief on October 9 as a result of a challenge by H. Earl Fullilove to the constitutionality of a 1977 law passed by Congress.

This law provided for 10% of all federal grants to be set aside for minority contractors. Fullilove and other non-minority contractors have alleged that the 10% guarantee represents an unconstitutional preference for minorities.

As a friend of the court, the sorority argued that the court should uphold the constitutionality of the minority business set aside program. It concluded that the program is consistent with prior Supreme Court definitions of standards for such programs.
