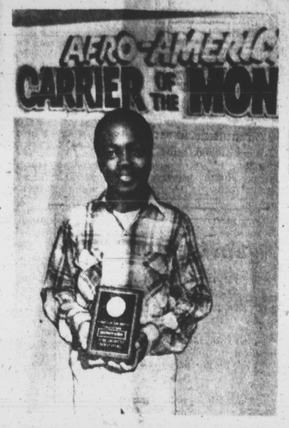
AFRO news carriers of the month



AFRO Carrier of the month for August was Kelvin Palmer, who is now selling 300 papers a week. Kelvin is a nin th grade student at Booker T. Washington Junior High School.

SHAWN T. BOYD, a Harlem Park Junior High School student was named AFRO Carrier of the month for September. Shawn is shown holding his plaque and says his hobbies are singing, baseball and football.

Carrier of the Month for August is Kelvin Palmer, for the second time in three months. When he was at the awards celebration at that time, he was selling 155 AFROs, increasing his volume of newspapers from 5 to 155 in a three month period. At the time of the AFRO ceremony, Kelvin had increased his volume even more the aggressive young man now sells 300 papers a week.

His distributor, Edward Jackson, says that he is impressed with the business-like manner of Kelvin and the professional way he handles his job. According to Jackson, young Palmer is always prompt with his payments and makes sure Jackson knows where to leave his papers when he isn't home by leaving him a note.

Kelvin is a ninth grade student at Booker T. Washington Junior High School. Social studies, math and reading are his three favorite subjects, and he is a member of the drama club. He enjoys football and baseball and says that the Pittsburgh Steelers are his favorite team.

He is a member of Enon Baptist Church.

Shawn T. Boyd was named AFRO "Carrier of the Month" and Mark K. Tutman was runner-up for the month of September.

Boyd has been an AFRO carrier for the past three years. His distributor, Carroll Alexander, says he is a very dependable carrier.

A student at Harlem Park Junior High School, Boyd has received awards for achievements in math and sportsmanship. He is an eighth grade student, and enjoys singing, baseball and football.

Boyd was presented a plaque by the National Circulation manager, Al Tyler, at a ceremony held at the AFRO last week.

Runner-up Mark Tutman was also presented a certificate at the ceremony last week by Mrs. Grace Singletary, circualtion administrative assistant.

Mothers of the two boys, Mrs. Martha Smith and Mrs. Carolyn Tutman, received corsages in appreciation of their support to their sons as AFRO carriers.

The two young men were greeted by the AFRO Chairman of the Board, John H. Murphy III, the president of the company, John J. Oliver, Mrs. Mae Dyson, secretary, and Ronald Jackson, vice-president, circulation.

Others present were Mrs. Estelle Plunkett, grandmother of Shawn T. Boyd, Kendalyn Smith, his sister, Howard Tutman Jr., father of the runn er up, Howard Tutman III, and Jason Tutman, brothers of the runner up. His aunt, Sheila Jessup, also attended.

AFRO employees attending were Mrs. Alice King, payroll comptroller, Robert Rea Sr., copy manager, Charles Baker, zone manager, Kathleen Friday, zone manager and Carroll Alexander, distributor for the Carrier of the Month.

Family of the AFRO "Carrier of the Month" runner-up for September are shown here when they attended the Award ceremonies at the AFRO last week. From (L) are: Jason Tutman, brother Mark Tutman holding certificate) his mother, Mrs. Carolyn Tutman, also AFRO Administrative assistant to the AFRO Chairman of the Board.
