The Alpha Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. celebrated its 61st Founders' Day recently at the Baltimore Convention Center, Pratt and Sharp Sts.

The theme was "Dream Fulfilled; Life Perpetuated" and the several hundred sorors and their guests began the afternoon by browsing Zetas Mini Exhibit outside the banquet room.

Soror Mary E. Fiends presided and gave the call to luncheon. Greetings were extended by Benita Edwards, third anti-basileus, Alpha Zeta Chapter, and by Marvin Cheatham, James Ethridge, and E. S. Greaves, Sigma Brothers.

Following the delicious luncheon Soror E. Fran Johnson chair for the affair, presided.

The Occasion was given by Soror Sandra East, basileus, Alpha Zeta Chapter, who also gave the recognition of founders.

Soror Myrtle T. Faithful, one of the original founders was on hand to be honored and awarded for her role as an original founder of the sorority.

Meritorious awards presented to Sorors of Alpha Zeta Chapter who have exemplified, through the quality of their lives and service to the chapter, the ideals of their founders, and who were selected by their peers, were presented by Mary E. Fields.

Honorees for 1981 are Sorors Sandra E. East, Jane C. Harrison, Carrie D. Jackson, Doris Johnson, Lenora Westry, Bernice S. White and Mamie D. Williams.

Highlights of the first 60 years of the sorority which were dramatically given by Dr. E. Fran Johnson, were interspersed by the inspirational songs done by the Dunbar Chamber Choir, under the direction of Hugh Carey.

Zetas closed their program with the singing of the Zeta National Hymn.

Serving on the Founders Day Committee were Sorors Roberta W. Clark, Althea S. Cormish, Isobine S. Crowner, Audrey Davis, Doris Duncan, Jacqueline Dutton, Mary E. Fields, Alice W. Hall, Jane C. Harrison, E. Fran Johnson, Anne P. Moreland, Mildred Nelson and Jessie H. Peaks.

Fourth Graders honor Dr. King's birthday

IN TRIBUTE TO KING — These youthful dancers are fourth graders from the class of Mrs. Shirley T. Cartwright, Thomas G. Hayes School No. 102. They are doing an interpretive dance to "The Impossible Dream" at a recent program held at the school in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King's birthday.

Recently the pupils in Mrs. Shirley T. Cartwrights fourth grade class at Thomas G. Hayes Elementary School No. 102 presented a program in the schools auditorium commemorating the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Highly informative and appropriately reverent as well as colorful, the program also served as an excellent lead-in to Black History Month.

Tammie Simon and Jonathan White served as very able announcers.

The facts of Dr. Kings life were given by Antonio Livingston, followed by the song "We Shall Overcome", done by the audience.

An especially colorful interpretive dance, to The Impossible Dream expertly done by members of the class, was a big highlight of the program.

Other songs Martin Luther King and We Can Make It Together added zest, as did the acrostic which spelled out characteristics of the great man.

Featured on the program also was the schools violin ensemble, from Miss sucgangs violin class.

Other highlights were a poem It Could be a Wonderful World by Jonathan White, Tammie Simon and Antonio Livingston, a spirited interpretive dance to "Happy Birthday to You and a film, depicting highlights of Dr. Kings life.

A very well put together tribute to a great black American.

New City Pacers observe Founders' Day

By Pinnie L. Ross

Those fashionable ladies of the newly organized social club of the New City Pacers celebrated Founders Day last Sunday at St. John Baptist Church.

The Rev. Herbert Eaton, pastor of the church spoke on "What Makes Life Worth Living."

Following the service the members and their husbands attended a Brunch at Woodward & Lothrops Patuxent Room in the Columbia Mall.

After the luncheon the group sang Happy Birthday to three of the husbands. They were: James Fitzpatrick senior management analyst, Executive Office of the President, Management & Budget, who is the husband of member Helen Fitzpatrick, county school teacher; Donald Hill Dont, chief of the Division of Grievance & Appeals, Social Security Administration, husband of popular member Ethel Hill who was recently appointed to the Howard County Board of Appeals and cheers to Lt. Col. Jessie Kensler, an officer at the Pentagon, Army Discharge Review Board, husband of fashionable Nancy Kensler, county school teacher.

The president and members gave a round of applause when the announcement came of promotions for two members. One was talented Eloise Lee, who was promoted to Chief of Employment, Dept. of Recruitment, State Office, Washington, D.C.

A twenty-six year employee there, Eloise transition teams from Secretary of State all the way down the ranks.

Ther are only two Black Key persons in her Department. She is the wife of William Bill Lee, administrative officer of the Bureau of African Affairs, D.C. Who is the chief person to approve whether one can travel to certain countries or not.

Congratulations were also extended to petite Hazel Ervin. She was promoted to Budget Analyst at the Pentagon, Washington, D.C. She is the wife of Larry Ervin, retired Army Officer.

Unable to celebrate with the club were vice president Lorraine Dorsey, state employee Ossie Clay, county school teacher, and our dear friend Hazel Rayford, Columbia Senior Accountant who was ill with a terrible sore throat. Also Flo Davis, Real Estate executive Richmond, Va. Its a luncheon-date with those fabulous Richmond Des Jours.

Bits and Pieces

In my mail box came a nice note from Wilde Lake High School Reading Specialist, Grace Morton Dixon. She is chairperson and coordinator of the 145th anniversary of First Baptist Church.

The Rev. Dr. Leroy Fitts is the very fine pastor. The theme for the weeks activity is "Go Forward." The churchs historical museum will be open to the public Wednesday, Feb. 18, 1981 from 4 p.m. - 7 p.m. and Sunday, February 22, 1981, from 1:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Dixon said that a church-wide workshop in the Black Church Tradition" will be held Thursday, February 19th from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. At 11:00 a.m. Dr. Fitts will deliver the sermon. The culminating anniversary activities of the First Baptist family and friends will be the banquet at the Forum.

Committee chairpersons are Dr. Delores Morton Spriggs, Mrs. Mildred Seaborne, Mrs. Violet Wright, James Stovall, the Rev. P. M. Smith, Leonard Pitts, Mrs. Mary Griers, Mrs. Elizabeth Umphery, Mrs. Robin Quarles, Mrs. Mary Morton and Mrs. Virginia Gaines.

Saturday morning brought the lovely Business & Professional ladies out to their monthly meeting. This time yours truly was the hostess. Mrs. Celonia Walden presided over the meeting due to the fact that president Ernestine DuBerry wasnt feeling well, but was present at the meeting.

The meeting opened with the beautiful voice of Jackie Banks selection "Honor Honor" negro spiritual, arranged by Hall Johnson. Dr. Vera Wilson gave her report on the revised By-laws, after which new officers were appointed by the president.

They are: Jacqueline Banks, recording secretary; Myrtle Jackson, second vice president; Roberta Briscoe, treasurer and Yolanda Brooks, financial secretary. Other officers remained as elected for 1981. There are Celonia Walden, first vice president; Evelyn McClurcin, corresponding secretary and yours truly, editor.

Guest speaker for the meeting was NAACP President Silas Croft, updating the members on the works of the
