Dr. Jerry Luck is honored

MRS. GERTRUDE LUCK (R) and son Larry Luck are pictured holding the plaque they received for Dr. Jerry Luck who was honored at a testimonial held at La Fontaine Bleu, Glen Burnie on Feb. 1.

La Fontaine Bleu in Glen Burnie, Maryland was the setting Sunday, Feb. 1, for a memorable evening honoring Dr. Jerry C. Luck, the eminent family physician who has served in the Cherry Hill Community since 1946.

Family members traveled from Silver Spring, Md., Washington, D.C., New York City, Danville, Va., Martinsville, Va., and Philadelphia, Pa. to share in the occasion.

Traveling from Philadelphia, Pa. was Dr. Lucks one hundred and six year old aunt, Mrs. Addie Luck Williams, who was accompanied by her family. Other aunts in attendance were Mrs. Etta Luck Jones and family from Washington, D.C. and Mrs. Catherine Luck of Danville, Va.

Approximately 500 other guests joined family members to pay special tribute to Dr. Luck who was depicted as a champion and vanguard in the community.

Former patients, friends, ministers, physicians, dentists, pharmacists and attorneys praised Dr. Luck for the loyalty, zeal, dedication and goodness he has displayed to his fellowman.

Standing ovations were spontaneous from the audience as expressions of Dr. Lucks concern and interest for the people in the community were conveyed.

Accepting citations presented to Dr. Luck from the Cherry Hill Community, Mayors office, Chi Delta Mu Fraternity and the Monumental Medical Society were his wife Mrs. Gertrude Luck and son Mr. Larry Luck. Unfortunately, Dr. Luck was unable to attend because of illness.

Music for the occasion was beautifully rendered by Charles Watson at the Grand Piano and soloists, Mrs. Gladys Talley and Earnest Johnson.

Other participants on the program were Mrs. Gladys Greene who presided, Dr. Edward McDaniels, Dr. Lonnie Green, Alexander Foy, Dr. James F. Cooper, Dr. Joshua R. Mitchell, III, Mrs. Sarah Bundy, the Rev. James H. Wooten, The Rev. William Hunt, Fred Cook, Shepherd Burge, Dr. O. St. Clair Franklin, Mrs. Georgene Petty and Father Carl Fisher.

Chairperson for the testimonial was Mrs. Carolyn Murray. Co-Chairperson was Mrs. Classie Robinson.

Steering Committee members were Mrs. Doris C. Jones and Mrs. Bernice McDaniels.

Hostesses for the auspicious occasion were Ms. Jackie Brewington, Paulette Bowman, Linda Bowman, Betty Brown, Brenda Brown, Alverta Campbell Darcell Goenn, Denise Glenn, Cathleen Grillin, Peggy Jackson, Janice Maith, Landoris Owens, Deborah Robinson and Mrs. Debra Tribble.

Earline Austin weds Clifford Cox

NEWLYWEDS Mr. and Mrs. Clifford A. Cox take a turn around the floor during the reception held at the East Central Social Club following their recent wedding.

Miss Earlene Annette Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson, 800 W. Lexington St. was married recently to Clifford Alexandera Cox, son of Mrs. Miriam P. Cox, 3700 block W. Cold Spring Lane.

The double ring ceremony was performed at New Pentecostal Holiness Cathedral, 2022 Edmondson Ave., with the Rev. Romaine Giles, officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather James Robinson, wore an embossed beige poly sheer gown with a flounced hemline and lace capelet bodice, accentuated by pearl errings and necklace.

She wore babys breath in her hair and carried a bouquet of daisies.

Bridesmaids, who also wore beige gowns, babys breath in their hair and carried bouquets of daisies, were Ms. Mildred Tripline and Ms. Betty Jones.

Best man was Earl Austin, father of the bride. Ushers were Maurice Brown, Relando Bush and Michael Saunders.

Flower girl was Monneca Jorain. Ring bearer was Taharka McCoy.

Mrs. Robinson, the brides mother, chose for her daughters wedding a beige evening gown with matching jacket.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for the couple at the East Central Social Club, 900 block Eager St.

The bride, a graduate of Dunbar Senior High School, is currently a student at the Community College of Baltimore.

The groom is presently employed at Youth Corps Express.

Marietta Wiggins, David Lottier wed

MR. AND MRS. DAVID V. LOTTIER smile happily following the nuptials uniting them in matrimony at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lottier. The bride is the former Miss Marietta Victoria Wiggins, of Kilmarnock, Va.

Miss Marietta Victoria Wiggins, daughter of Mrs. Isadora Smallwood of Baltimore and the late Moses Wiggins, Sr. of Kilmarnock, Va., and stepdaughter of James E. Smallwood, and David Vernon Lottier, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Lottier, were married Sunday, Feb. 1 at the home of the bridegrooms parents.

Given in marriage by her brother, Moses Wiggins Jr., the bride was radiant in a pale blue silk gown, the lace jacket featuring short sleeves and cinched waistline.

She selected a headpiece of wildflowers and tiny veil. Her bouquet of white roses and carnations with blue ribbon carried out the blue and white color scheme.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Sharon B. Winters who wore a light blue chifion gown and carried a bouquet of blue carnations mixed with white roses. Lawrence Bethea was best man.

Elder Robert Jackson of the Reedbird Congregation of Jehovahs Witnesses performed the marriage ceremony.

A reception for the immediate family and close friends of the couple followed.

Mrs. Smallwood, mother of the bride, was attractive in a floor length beige frock with matching jacket trimmed in gold lame. The bridegroom's mother Mrs. Arnetta Lottier was elegant in a long blue high fashioned peau de soie gown, the long sleeved jacked falling in delicately draped folds.

The new bride's maternal grandparents were the late Otis Artis of Baltimore and the late Mrs. Lucille White of Franklin, Va. Her paternal grandparents were the late Walter and Clara Wiggins of Kilmarnock, Va. She is a graduate of Mergenthaler Senior High School and the Computer Learning Center in Springfield, Va.

The bridegroom is the grandson of the late D. Arnett and Sadie Murphy and great grandson of AFRO founder, John H. Murphy, Sr. His Paternal grandparents were the late George V. and Lilian Lottier. He is a graduate of Mergenthaler High School and is employed by the General Electric Company.

The newlyweds are making their home in Houston, Texas where Mr. Lottier has been recently transferred.

thoughtfulness of remembering her especially at this time.

A delectable turkey and ham dinner, with all the trimmings, was served, along with a handmade coconut cake and ice cream (a favorite dessert of the honoree).

Guests attending included: Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Joynes, Mr. & Mrs. Lawrence Custis and daughter, Yvette; Mrs. Arthur Gray and daughter Erin, all from Baltimore, Md.

Out of town guests were Mr. & Mrs. Julius B. Young, Wilmington, Del., Mrs. Elizabeth B. Smith, Dover, Del., Mr. & Mrs. R. Campbell Waters and Mrs. Sandra W. Brown, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. & Mrs. Edward Dennis and Son, E. Brooks, from Media, Pa.; Mrs. Ann Adams and Mr. Alvin Adams of Washington, D.C. and Miss Roni L. Jolley, Salisbury, Md.

Francis Bibbins, formerly of Chesapeake, Virginia is the sister of Mrs. Benjamin C. Whitten (Lucretia) and presently is residing in Baltimore with the Whittens while she recuperates from eye surgery.

Woodlawn Highlights

29th annual SSA Awards Service held

By Marjorie R. Green

The Twenty-Ninth Annual SSA award service held in Woodlawn provided the opportunity for many employees to gain recognition for exceptional accomplishments.

Among those employees receiving Commissioner awards and not previously mentioned in this column were: Thomas Boyer, Supervisor; Bernard Cash, Investigation Clerc; Wilbur Harrel, Supervisor; Bernard Cash, Investigation Clerk; Wilbur Harrel, Supervisory Social Insurance Specialist; Mamie Jones, Supervisor; Brenda Oliver, Claims Examiner; also receiving special recognition for 40 years of service was Frank B. Jones, Technician in the Office of Central Operations.

The Office of Civil Rights and Equal Opportunity staff members are planning a farewell luncheon at the Crab Shanty Restaurant in Ellicott City on Thursday, February 19 for Garth Coleman. Coleman's last day at SSA will be Friday, Feb. 20.

Belated good wished are extended to Mrs. Irene Canady, a former coverage technician in the Division of Adjustment Operations, Social Security Administration.

Mrs. Canady, one of SSAs long time employees, retired in late December with 37 years of Federal service, 33 of which were spent at SSA. Prior to her employment at SSA, she worked at Fort Holoibird.

Shortly after her retirement, Mrs. Canady told friends that her future plans include going back to school for continuing adult education and becoming more involved in community activities.

She is an active member of the Waters A.M.E. Church that is pastored by the Rev. John W. Duckett.

She recently served as chairperson for the Church mortgage burning program.

Mrs. Canady lives in the northwest area of Baltimore city and is a member of the National Council of Negro Women.

Congratulations to Mrs. Olivia Cheeks who recently received a well earned promotion in the Office of Disability Operations, SSA.
