Eastside Community Committee hosts 37th annual Blue Ribbon Tea

By Pattie Hodges, AFRO Staff Writer

The thirty-seventh annual Blue Ribbon Tea of the Eastside Community Committee, Inc. was held on Sunday, March 1.

Sponsored by the Women's City-Wide Committee for Delinquency Prevention, the tea was hosted at the Dunbar Community High School, Orleans St., and Central Ave.

The traditional processional of hosts and hostesses and the enthusiastic audience nearly filled the school's theatre. Guests enjoyed an inspirational evening, with Mrs. Lillian P. Jones, chair for the Tea, presiding.

Special highlight was a mini-concert of outstandingly melodious and expertly performed music by the Forest Park Senior High School Co-Ed Chorale, directed by Margaret Lindsay. There was also instrumental music and a clap-along session by the Holliman's Student Orchestra.

Following the invocation by the Rev. James Power, pastor, Our Lady of Lourdes R.C. Church, there was a one-minute silence in memory of the former Tea coordinator, the late Mr. William S. Taylor and the late Mrs. Alva Harris, board members of the Committee. Adrian Cephas sang a solo.

Greetings were extended by Tommie Jackson, director of the mayor's Coordinating Council for Criminal and Juvenile Justice who presented chairperson Mrs. Jones a check from the mayor.

Also bringing greetings to the assemblage was Thomas Waxter, city councilman, (5th D.) who told the group that the tea refreshed his memories of when he and his father, the late Judge Thomas Waxter, attended each year.

The Rev. Americus Roy, permanent Deacon, St. Ambrose R.C. Church, and the son of the late Mr. Melvin Roy, past president, Eastside Committee, also brought greetings.

A representative from the medical staff of Johns Hopkins Hospital presented the organization with a check, and informed them that the plaque, presented to the hospital from the Eastside Community Committee in 1980, is on permanent display to all in a glass-enclosed case in the hospital's conference room.

Those effervescent Kappas have done it again.

Once more their 'Night in Las Vegas', hosted by the Baltimore Chapter, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. was a smashing success.

Held on Friday, March 6, at Martin's West, this glittering gala was attended by 1400 Kappa brothers and their guests — all in highly festive spirits.

A troupe of suave young hosts and bubbly young hostesses, who, all decked out in the Kappa's traditional red and white, greeted guests and escorted them to their tables.

Hosts and hostesses were the fraternity brothers and the sweethearts of the Kappa's undergraduate chapters at Coppin State College, Morgan State University and Towson University.

Several roulette wheels (large and small) were continuously spinning as excited guests tried their luck.

Elated squeals of delight could be heard as many won money — others various brand of liquor.
