Remember Your Loved Ones With An

EASTER TRIBUTE APRIL 17th

The Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN on Friday, April 17th, will help you honor your deceased loved one with a special "Easter in Memoriam Page."

With this thought in mind, we are taking this opportunity to suggest the publication of one of the following poems or any similar poem of your choice. Pictures may be used at a small additional cost. DEADLINE IS 1 P.M. FRI. APRIL 10TH

E-1
"I Remember"
Sometimes along the way of life
I'd hurry thru the day
And miss the sweet things
I'd really meant to say.
Those little words of tenderness
I felt deep in my heart.
But though I cannot tell you
You'll always be a part
Of every loving thought I have
Today and all the year.
Because in words unspoken
I love you husband, dear.

E-2
OUR EASTER PRAYER
O'Sacred Heart of Jesus,
Keep Thou Your side.
For I need not tell You,
He was my joy and pride.

E-3
This Easter brings back memories
Of wonderful times we knew,
A family day together
With Dad and Mom, we had you.
And all these recollections
Of the happy days now gone,
Bring heartaches and a longing
As Easter morning dawns.

E-4
The years we have this Easter
Our wishes to impart,
We know our Dogies are with you
Even tho' we're far apart.
We'd put our wishes in writing
And hope that they'd be read
By the son and brother we loved
so dearly
And whose feet have ceased to tread.

E-5
"OUR EASTER MESSAGE"
Your memory is as a keepsake
With which we'll never part
Though God has you in His keeping
We still have you in our hearts.

E-6
OUR EASTER MESSAGE"
Farewell, Dear father.
We speak to you
Thy willing hands will toil no more.
A loving father, kind and true
No one on earth will find like you.

E-7
"OUR EASTER MEMORY"
Dear Mother, you were the light of our life.
Always happy and gay,
God knows how much we miss you
On this Blessed Easter Day.

E-8
On Easter Day the world becomes
The greatest host of flowers,
And thoughts of you mingle each hour.
To give it added grace.
The flowers we place upon your grave
The clouds against the blue.
Seem brighter than they were before
Because we're always thinking of you.

E-9
No matter how many Easters
Come and we're still apart,
I still have that same deep love for you.
We're still in each other's heart.
So as ever on Easter morning
I'll say "Happy Easter" dear.
And pretend we never had parted
For your presence I'll feel very near.

E-10
Easter brings sad memories,
Of a time we may not see,
But still never be forgotten
By the ones who loved her best.
Though her smile is gone forever,
And her sweet face I cannot touch,
I shall never lose sweet Memories,
Of my sister I loved so much.

E-11
Flowers will bloom at Easter time
From out the fair spring rain,
But the love of our dear sister
We would love to see again.
Sister, when the violets open
And the flowers in beauty wave,
We will gather up some bunches
And lay them gently on your grave
Oh, so often do we wonder
To the place where you are laid,
And think if God had only left you
Longer on earth with us to stay.

E-12
We are and within our memory,
And today, this Easter Day,
For the ones we loved so dearly
Have forever been called away
We think of them in silence,
No eye may see us weep,
But many silent tears are shed,
When others are asleep.

E-13
In the book of God's Remembrance
Your name is written there,
And it seems to bring you nearer,
As I breathe my Easter prayer.
I THANK THE HEAVENLY Father
For having known you so
sweet and dear,
And pray, the tiniest blossoms
Will ever rest on you.

E-14
A cross, a thorny wreath,
The Morning Dispersed, all are signs,
That Easter is at hand.
The thoughts of one so true and good
Bring sadness to the accompanying grief,
He is not dead, just gone before,
We miss him today and evermore,
Come, Easter to our hearts and be so dear
We'll send our love and prayers
That God will bless and keep him
always in His care.

Yellow beauty

Forsythia is the name of the yellow shrubbery now in bloom in the Baltimore area, and other parts of the U.S.

It comes out every year, is said to be the harbinger of Spring.

Just as it blooms in a hurry, it disappears just as fast, almost before you can blink an eye.

Forsythia is named for the British botanist, William Forsyth, (1737 - 1804).

Note how the forsythia in many sections of the city takes a variety of shapes and sizes. In fact, when unytimmed, it makes some beautiful designs.

Typical are those in the Ashburton section, on Callaway near Chatham, and Sequoia near Denslyn.

Cuff note: Forsythia is an ornamental shrub of the olive family. It has opposite leaves, with bell - shaped flowers, appearing before the leaves in early Spring.

Ray Turner

Relatives and friends of Ray Turner did a nice thing on Friday evening.

They invited his former co - workers, students and friends to the Garden Room in Towson to salute him on his retirement.

Some 100 persons were in attendance. They praised Mr. Turner for his service at Featherbed Lane Elementary School in Woodlawn, Baltimore County.

Faculty members and pupils told of the kindnesses and the thoroughness of Mr. Turner during his 13 years as school custodian. They spoke of him as a friend, counselor and supporter.

His pastor, the Rev. Dr. Marshall A. Strickland, Pa. Ave. AME Zion Church, told of his "sense of commitment to family life in the rearing of his family."

He added that the honoree was one who had love, respect, and compassion for others . . "a quiet, but unusual fellow."

Mr. Turner, a 40 - year member of Pa. Ave. is active in the church, as are his wife, Mrs. Garetha Ingram Turner, the Social Security employee and other members of the family.

Carl Boehan, principal of Featherbed; Mrs. Margaret Yates, former principal; and students, Cherise Bullovk and Mia Chapman, testified to Mr. Turner's good deeds and good humor.

The gifts

The Turner offsprings joined in tributes to their father, presenting special verses, songs and gifts.

They were: Patricia Ann, the Commercial Credit analyst; Yvonne Faulcon, the teacher; Louise Turner, the Social Security employee;

Also, Tracy Michelle, the Coppin student; Raymond Turner Jr., the housing employee. His twin brother, Raynard, a Marine corporal in Camp Pendleton, Calif., telegraphed his greetings.

Grandchildren are Teil Turner, 10, who read a verse for grandfather; and J. Wesley Turner, 4. The honoree's wife, Geretha, sang a solo. Dorothy Bosworth, a niece presided. James Henry, a family friend, was soloist. He was accompanied by Mrs. Barbara Chapman.

Cuff note: Mr. Turner marks his 66th birthday on May 23. He says he hopes to spend more time enjoying his favorite relaxation — bowling — during his retirement years.

He is a member of the Lafayette and Dave Branch bowling teams.

Isn't it nice when people give others their flowers while they can enjoy them! Blessings on Mr. Turner and his family.
