Baltimore weddings, Loving couples tie the knot

Pride-Massey wed

Chamos Joadann Pride and Timothy Lee Massey were united in marriage on Saturday, August 29, 1981 at 6 p.m. at First United Presbyterian Church, Charlotte. Reverend Raymond Worsley and Reverend J. W. Smith officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos C. Pride of Charlotte. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Massey of Charlotte.

An hour-long program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Anne Lutz, organist and soloists Mr. Samuel Thomas, cousin of the bride and Mr. Alvin Ricks.

Chomas Pride

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ivory organza gown by Queen Fit. Cluney lace and pearls covered the entire high-necked bibbed front bodice. The fitted lace sleeves were embellished with two scalloped rows of pearls. The princess-lined gown had a pleated over-skirt with a front panel edged in venise lace. The Juliet cap of her veil was covered with cluney lace and and clustered pearls.

Miss Delicia Harper of Charlotte, maid of honor, wore a pale yellow matte jersey gown. The front and back bodices were accented with a wide bertha collar in chantilly lace.

The bride's mother wore a gown of imported silk chiffon. The two - peice aqua background was embossed with floral designs in shades of orange and pale yellows. The soft flowing gown was topped with a hip-length jacket with straight lines and semi-length sleeves.

The mother of the groom wore a suede rose polyester glow knit gown with attached walking length chiffon capelet. The empire waist and neckline were complimented with pearls.

Mrs. Charles Jones, the maternal aunt of the bride, wore a long chiffon gown in celeste blue with a bolero-effect bodice and soft, flowing skirt. A sunburst of appliqued rhinestones accented the softly shirred jeweled neckline.

Mr. Phillip Massey of Charlotte, brother of the bridegroom, served as the best man. Ushers were Mr. Carnell Pride of Charlotte, brother of the bride and Mr. Dennis Sloan of Charlotte.

Following the ceremony, attended by the families and close friends of the bride and groom, a dinner dance for four hundred guests was held the Holiday Inn-North. Dinner music was provided by Mrs. Miriam Booth, harpist. Music for dancing was provided by the Onyx and Ivory Express, directed by Mr. Otto Johnson.

The bride is a graduate of Garringer High School and Kings College. She is employed by the International Division of North Carolina National Bank.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Dover, (Delaware), High School. He served for four years in the United States Navy and attended Central Peidmont Community College. He is employed by Robinson-Humphrey Securities Firm of Atlanta, Georgia.

The couple will live in Atlanta.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marioneaux of Salisbury, North Carolina; Mrs. Anita Marioneaux of Washington D.C.; Mrs. Charles C. Jones of Lexington, Kentucky.
